THE MORGAN GARDNER BULKELEY HIGH SCHOOL

F O R E W O R D

ONCE again the great portals of this notable institution are unfolding. The largest graduating class in the history of Bulkeley prepares for its departure. During our four fleeting years here we have worked and played together. Here iron-bound friendships have been molded. With confidence in the strength of our educational foundations we pass on. Some of our members will immediately be diffused among the masses and will start their climb on that proverbial ladder of success. Others will enter other great institutions of learning. For many of us this graduation is a parting, but we do have this Class Book, the only chain that will forever link us together; may its pages serve as a pleasant memorandum of the days spent at Bulkeley High. Before departing, we wish to extend to the Faculty our sincere appreciation for their kind interest in our studies and club activities. We express our indebtedness especially to Dr. Feingold, whom we have held as our friend, leader, and adviser. Our most sincere thanks are also extended to Miss Potter, Miss Alma Plumb, and Mr. Hart for their aid to us in composing this Class Book. We are also grateful to the typists, Josephine Bania, Edith Dahl, Theresa Donohue, May DeMonte, and Marie Maradei; and to the artists, Robert Burian, George Dush, Charles Jaworski, Frederick Mandly, and Ruth Russell for their responsiveness and helpfulness.

Our Principal's Message

*Teaching makes the school.
And school is a place where he who learns Unfolds his own answers, like the ferns.*

WRITTEN by a New England poetess, the above lines reveal with consummate wisdom and truth the very essence of the educational process. During your brief stay at Bulkeley High School you must have discovered that your instructors were motivated by a single purpose, and that was to make their instruction effective and dominant in your lives. They did not try to teach you to memorize formulas, rules, and passages and to give them back in parrot-like fashion. But rather did they endeavor to guide you in the acquisition of time-tested and proven facts and fields of information in the full expectation that you would synthesize what you learned, in your own minds, in your own time, and in your own way; and in so doing, you would develop your own answers to the many problems that will confront you henceforth. You have but learned the names and the touch of the chords of life. Yours is the task to play on them now, and you alone can decide whether it shall be a symphony or a medley of jumbled noises. My earnest prayer is that it will be a symphony, and to make this more likely, I would urge you to follow this one simple rule: Revere human life. Do not persecute. Protect the aged, the feeble, and little children. You may rest assured that if your energies are bent in this direction, the time you have spent at Bulkeley High School will not have been in vain.

Gustave A. Feingold.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

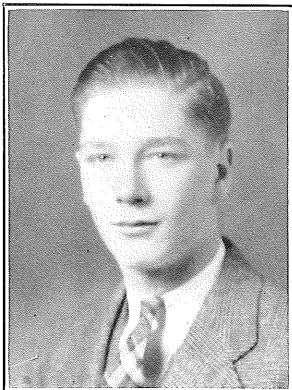

ZACHARY PAUL ABUZA—"Zack"

"Look on the bright side, or polish up the dark."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 1, 2; Junior Usher; Legislative Club 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Secretary 4; Chess Club 1, 2; Biological Repertory 2; Indoor Table Tennis Club 4; Vice-President 4; Charter Member; Boys' Tennis Team 4; Chairman of Reception Committee; Honor Society 4. Washington Street School. Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Throughout his high school career "Zack" has been a scholar of considerable note, in addition to being one of the more prominent of the Bulkeley Dramatists. He is a lively lad, but we fear that his gaiety hasn't always been appreciated as much by the faculty as it has been by his fellow students.

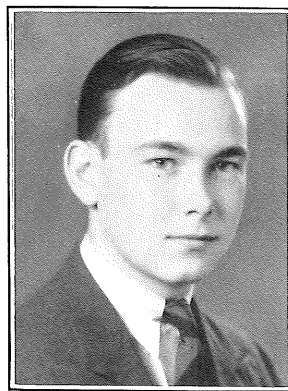

CARL BIRGER ACKERMAN—"Pinky"

"Ah! happy years! once more who would not be a boy?"

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4; Football 4. Never tardy. Windham High School. Northeastern University.

"Red" is and always will be just a kid at heart. We certainly enjoyed it when he would put that innocent look on his face when a teacher started to rebuke him.

ROBERT ALLEN ADAMS—"Bob"

"An honest plain man without pleats."

Boys' Club 4; Honor Society 4; Edison Club 4, Fifth Member 4; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4; Vice-President 2, 3; President 4; Boys' Swimming Club 2. Junior-Senior Prom Committee 3. Never tardy. Washington Street School. United States Naval Academy.

Bob has won the respect of all his teachers as well as his classmates because of the way he so sedulously applies himself. He is a fine chap, and those who have known him have found his friendship intrinsically sincere.

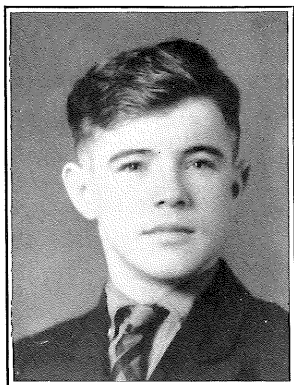

DOROTHY MARIE AKERLIND—"Dot"

"A picture is a poem without words."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Camera Club 4. No demerits. Southwest School.

Dot is the girl that dotes on photography and its results, as can be seen by her fondness for the Camera Club. Many an ardent admirer would love pictures—of her!

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

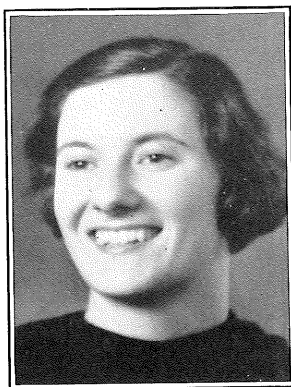

FRANCIS JOHN ALLEN—"Macduff"

"True worth is in being, not seeing."
 Art Club; Dramatic Club; Boys' Glee Club.
 St. Bernard's School, Worcester.
 Like many Bulkeleyites, Frank was larger of brain than of brawn. Small men frequently control the world's affairs.

VARSENIG ALYCE ANANIAN

"That which before us lies in daily life."
 A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2; Ni-No-Van
 3, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; Commercial Club
 3, 4; Kickball 4. No demerits; never tardy.
 Richard J. Kinsella School.
 Alyce always manages to bring us the latest news in the way of pictures, as was proven by her valuable scenes of the flood. She always did her homework—even though it was done in another class.

ROSALIE PATRICIA AMENTA

"The winds and the waves are always on the side of the ablest navigators."
 Girls' League 3; Girls' Glee Club 4; Upper Class Choir 4; Agora 3, 4; French Club 2, 3,
 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Naylor
 School. St. Joseph College.
 Rosalie's ability to comprehend the deeper meaning of her lessons is not due entirely to excess study—or is it?

DORIS EDA ANDERSON—"Dot"

"Quietly and wisely she goes her way."
 Girls' League 2, 3; Ni-No-Van 3, 4. Southwest School.
 Doris makes her long daily trips to school worth while by giving her best to her studies and to outside activities.

EVELYN CECELIA ANDERSON—"Evey"

"To love and be loved, this is good."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Girls' Biology Club 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Senior Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Concert Master 3, 4; Inter-High Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Student Council 4; Editorial Board of Class Book. Never tardy. Southwest School. Teachers College of Connecticut.

Evey is one of the loveliest, friendliest, and most talented girls in the class. Playing the violin, working on the class book, and attending the social activities of the school occupied much of her time.

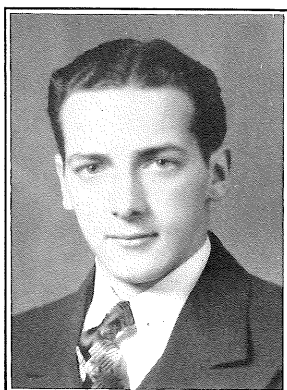

HILDA ANGUS—"Skip"

"It isn't the size that counts."

Girls' League 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4. No demerits. Hillside Avenue School.

They say all good things come in small packages. If that is the case, "Skip" lives true to this saying both in size and nature.

JENARO JOSEPH ANDREANA—"Jin"

"A fragrance such as never clings."

No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

Jin gave the appearance of being quiet until one got to know him. Then he proved to be a very likable chap.

CATHERINE IRENE ARMSTRONG—"Kay"

"Be ruled by time, the wisest counsellor of all."

A. A. 1, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Immaculate Conception School. Connecticut State College.

Kay is the girl who stands for punctuality. She has never been tardy, and as her last name suggests, she is always glad to be of assistance in time of need.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

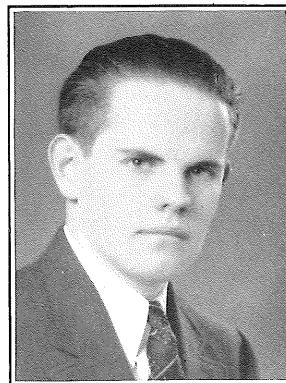

ALMA ANNA ASHLINE

"I never think of the future. It comes soon enough."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' League Corps 4; Girls' Golf Club 4. Washington Street School. University of Vermont.

Alma's constant desire to be the first to leave when the 1.45 bell strikes does not detract from her ability to co-operate. She has a winning personality which will carry her a long way.

JAMES JOHN BARRON—"Jimmie"

"Shame, dishonour, death, to him are just a name."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

Jim is far from the bluffer type of person. Always quiet and unassuming, he reserves his energy for emergencies.

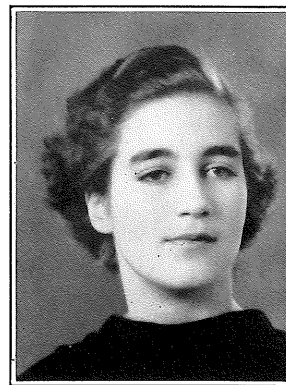

JOSEPHINE MADELINE BANIA—"Jo"

"A careful felicity of style."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 3; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Ni-No-Van Club 3; Agora 3; Commercial Club 3, 4. No demerits. Washington Street School. Smith College.

Bright ideas and bright color schemes seem to suit Jo to perfection. Her knack of wearing numerous contrasting sweaters and skirts is the envy of many a girl.

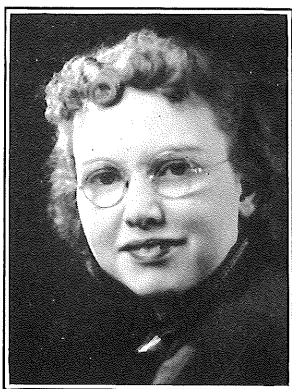

THEODORA NEWCOMB BARTLEY—"Teddy"

"Music her soft persuasive voice applies."

A. A. 4; Girls' Glee Club 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 4; "Dial" Editorial Board 4; Senior Dramatic Club 4; Classical Club 4; French Club 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Clifton High School, Clifton, N. J. Mount Holyoke.

Teddy is known for her singing in various school entertainments. This is not her only talent, as she won many prizes for her knowledge of Latin.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

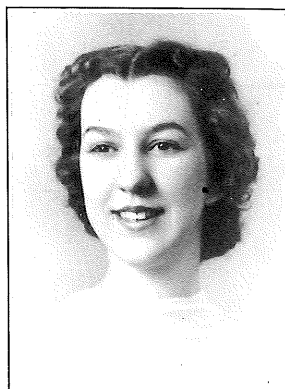

SHIRLEY LOIS BARTMAN—"Shirl"

"The Present is the living sum total of the whole Past."

A. A. 2; Girls' League 1, 2, Room Representative 2; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Vice-President 4; Upper Class Choir 4. No demerits; never tardy. Naylor School. Miss Marchant's Secretarial School.

Shirl likes to keep in touch with the old and new, as is shown by her interest in the History-Civics Club. She applies this also in the case of her friends.

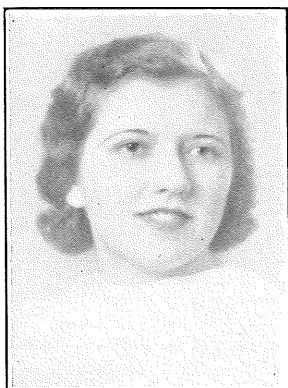

ANNE MARY BAZAN—"Anna"

"Those move easiest who have learn'd to dance."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3; Commercial Club 3, 4; Literary Club 2; Ni-No-Van Club 2; Junior Dramatic Club 2. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Chauncey Harris School.

Anna is a wonderful friend to have and to know. Her outside interests are singing, dancing, and acting. We are sure that if she keeps on trying she will soon be riding on the road to success.

DOROTHY MAY BAUMAN—"Tees"

"She has a smile for every joy, a tear for every sorrow."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Northwest School. New Haven Training School.

The desire to help others with their troubles and ailments has shown itself finally by Dot's desire to train in a Hospital. She has the characteristics that are needed for this, and we are confident that she will succeed.

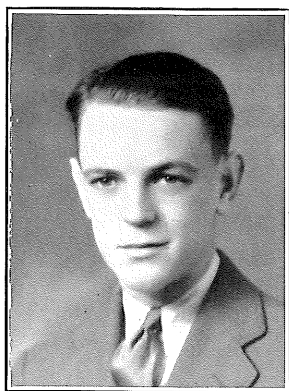

AGNES FRANCES BEDNARZ—"Dimples"

"On with the dance! let joy be unconfined."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4; Literary Club 4; Agora 2, 3, 4; Executive Committee 3; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; Radio Club 3, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; S. S. Cyril and Methodius School. Boston University.

We know that "Dimples" can dance, but we don't know why she chooses places outside of school to do this. However, there may be a good reason all her own behind it all.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

ROBERT JOHN BEECHINOR—"Harp"

"Undecaying gladness, and departed dream."
Never tardy. St. Peter's School.

In the spring and summer, "Harp" could most easily be found on the golf links, either caddying or playing. It wouldn't surprise us to read his name in the paper some day as the winner of the "National Open."

HELEN ELIZABETH BENNETT

"Literature is the thought of thinking Souls."

A. A. 1, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Agora 3, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; Commercial Club 3. No demerits; never tardy. Immaculate Conception School. Connecticut State College.

Helen may seem quiet and sedate in her session room, but she makes up for it in the Agora by entering vigorously into debates and discussions.

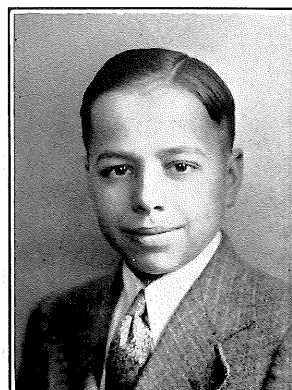

OLIVE FLORENCE BELAIR—"Ollie"

"Or light or dark, or short or tall."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3. St. Peter's School. Morse Business College.

This very winsome girl has a knack of keeping all in doubt as to her intentions or ideas. Seen frequently in the cafeteria and corridors, she is never without an escort.

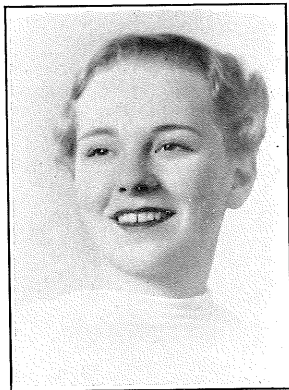

THEODORE HENRY BENNETT—"Teddy"

"I prefer silent prudence to loquacious folly."

Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Parnassus Club 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4. A. E. Burr School.

Teddy is a bright-eyed, unassuming chap with a cheery smile and a merry twinkle in his eyes. He is economical with words, but it is obvious that he thinks deeply.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

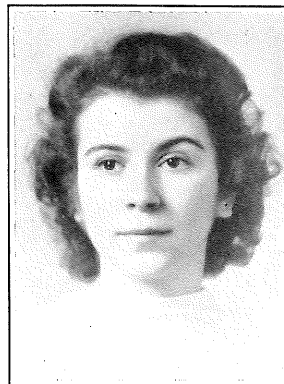

DORIS OLIVE BEST—"Dot"

"Pleasure affords more delight when shared with others."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3; Girls' Golf Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4. Washington Street School. Willimantic Normal School.

The art of carrying one's self aloof and yet with that "hail fellow-well met" congeniality is Doris' best trait.

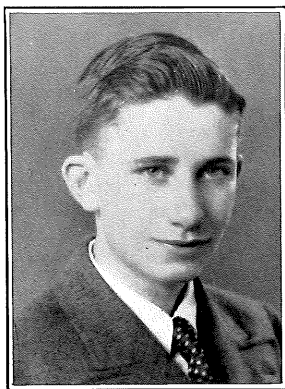

DOROTHY MERIE BISACCIA—"Dotty"

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Agora 3; History-Civics Club 2, 3. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. Morse Business College.

Dotty's mind is wrapped up in the business world. We know she will continue this practice to the best of her ability in life.

JOHN KING BIRMINGHAM—"Senator"

"Immovable, immortal, eminent."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4. Southwest School.

"Ahem!" Then would begin a pompous speech by "Senator" Birmingham. We certainly hope that the "Senator" will become an influential politician so that he can pass out a few jobs to his former classmates.

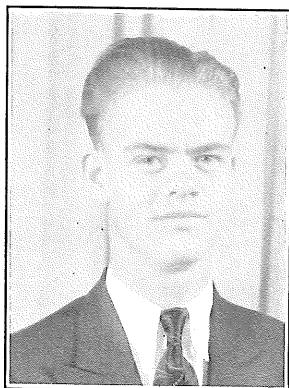

MARY MARGARET BITONDI

"And such a deal of skimble-skamble stuff."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Literary Club 4; Camera Club 4; Girls' Golf Club 3, 4; Girls' Tennis Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Kickball 4. Washington Street School.

Mary's knack of rhyming words, places, and people overshadows even her flighty manner so noticeable during our lunch periods.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

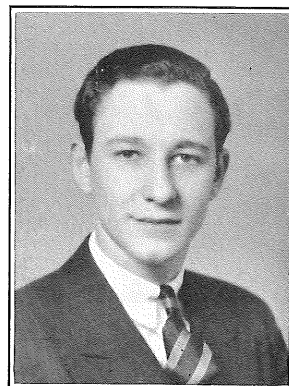

CHARLES GEORGE BITTNER—"Gus"

"Here all is sunny."

Art Club 3, Poster Committee 3; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Fifth Member 3, Vice-President 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Boys' Tennis Team 4; Indoor Table Tennis Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School. Guggenheim School of Aeronautics.

Charlie took great pleasure in delighting us with his amusing antics. However, his versatility was proven by the variety of his hobbies.

EDGAR WILLIAM BLAKE—"Iggy"

"Men did envy, while women loved."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 1; Indoor Table Tennis Club 4, Charter member. Washington Street School. Iggy has been our personality man. A flashy dancer and easy talker, he became a great social lion.

DOROTHY ELIZABETH BITTNER—"Deb"

"Study serves for delight, for ornament, and for ability."

Girls' League 1; Honor Society 4. No demerits; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

Dorothy made a double and added one more student of high ability and charming personality to our class.

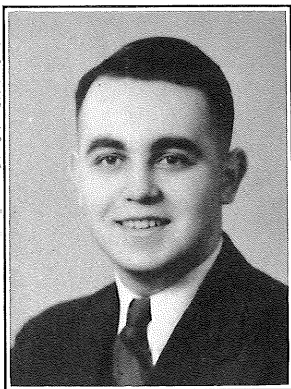

GEORGE MATTHEW BLESSING—"Buddy"

"Of country wine, divinely sup."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Honor Society 4; Biological Repertory 2, 3, 4, President 3. No demerits; never tardy. Hartford High School. Trinity College.

Buddy has been one of the best scholars of the class, especially in mathematics and the sciences. He certainly is a wonder in Trigonometry.

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

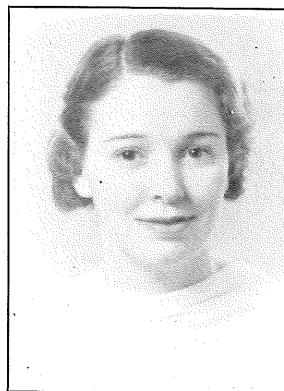

FRANCIS LEO BONAN—"Franny"

"Even bees cannot compete."

Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Hartford High School.

Franny always seemed to be intent on what he was doing. He certainly will never be arrested for vagrancy!

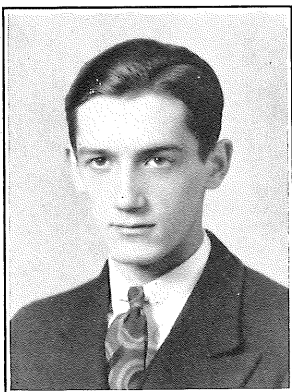

MARGARET ROSE BOWLER—"Margo"

"Friendliness is the wine of life."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 4; History-Civics Club 4; Commercial Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Frank A. Brackett School. Morse Business College.

Margo seems to have a never ending supply of cheery greetings for everybody in school. Her pleasant disposition has won for her many friends.

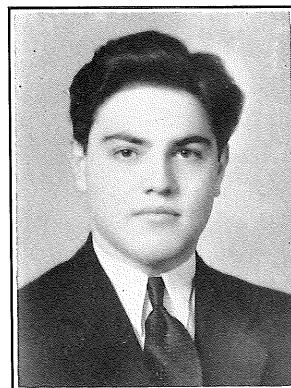

ROBERT DONALD BOWKER—"Bob"

"Laboriously tracing what must be."

A. A. 1, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4; "Dial" Editorial Board 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Boys' Swimming Club 3. A. E. Burr School. Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Bob has done a great deal for the "Torch." Also, he spent considerable time in the service of the Dramatic Club. Keep up the good work in after life, Bob!

GERALD LOUIS BRANCIERI—"Jerry"

"A larger kindness give to me."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4. Never tardy. A. E. Burr School. University of Southern California. Jerry's favorite pastime was bowling, and how he could bowl!

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

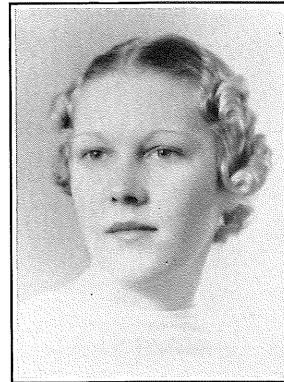

ANNA MARIE BRANDT—"Anne Marie"

"All the world's a stage."

Junior Dramatic Club 2; Tennis Club 2. No demerits. Southwest School.

Anne Marie sees, hears, and acts dramatics. Probably this is where she acquired her ability to speak so fluently.

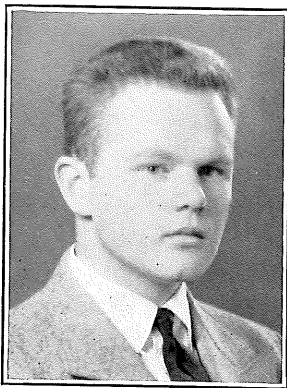

JANE DOROTHY BROWN

"A merry heart goes all the day."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2; Student Council 2; Girls' Swimming Club 3; Girls' Golf Club 4; "Dial" Business Board 3. Never tardy. St. Peter's School. Morse Business College.

Jane presents a more colorful picture than her last name implies. She always gives a smart appearance, and she is ready to do her best at any given task.

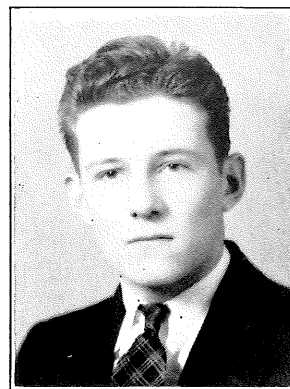

FRED ROBERT BRANT

"Why is the sea gull flying?"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Chess Club 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 3, 4; Parnassus 4; Radio Club 4; Football 2; Manager of Football 3; Manager of Basketball 3; Manager of Baseball 4. A. E. Burr School. Stanford University.

Fred has gained the distinction of being Bulkeley's first three letter manager. With this training, he should be well equipped to manage some professional athletic club.

BERNARD GEORGE BUCIOR—"Bernie"

"In which direction no one knows."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary, 4; Student Council 1; "Torch" Business Board 2, 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 1, 2, 3; Class Testator; Track 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4, Gold Track Shoe 3, New Pole Vault Record; Basketball 2, 3, 4, Letter 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Golf Club 4. Dr. James H. Naylor School. Dartmouth University.

Bernie has been one of our more versatile fellows. The girls will always remember him for his profile, and the boys will recall his pole-vaulting and basketball ability.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

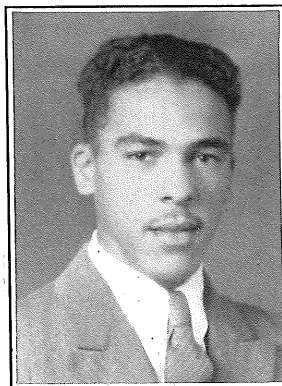

OLIVE CUSHMAN BUEBACK—"Babe"

"Is not the king's name twenty thousand names?"

Girls' Glee Club 2, 3; Upper Class Choir 2, 3. Never tardy. James H. Naylor School.

Olive delights in rushing for her books at the last minute and always has something to say while doing it. She accomplishes her purpose and at the same time amuses her classmates by referring to them by a different name each day.

LEONARD BURYFORD BURGESS, JR.

"Lenny"

"Agile, and with his share of speed."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Upper Class Choir 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4. Never tardy. James H. Naylor School.

Lenny possesses an abundance of athletic ability. It's a pity that a bad ankle prevented him from starring in football as he did in baseball.

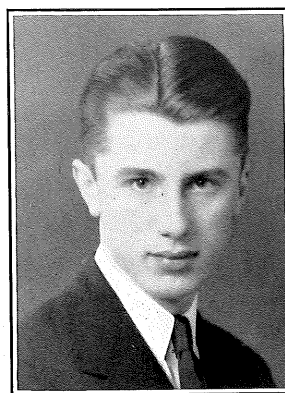

DOROTHY LOUISE JUNE BURCH—"Bubbie"

"Big things come in small packages."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. Pratt Institute.

Bulkeley will certainly miss Bubbie who has set the fashions for girls during her years here. This petite lassie is looked upon quite favorably by many of the Bulkeley lads.

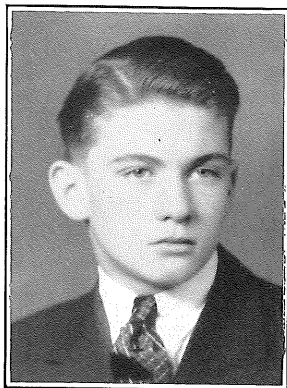

ROBERT EDWARD BURIAN—"Bob"

"Music hath such charms."

A. A. 1, 4; Boys' Club 1, 4; "Torch" Circulation Manager 4, Assistant Circulation Manager 3, Art Editor 4; Legislative Club 4; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Art Club 3, 4; Biological Repertory 2, 3; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Freshman Choir 1; Boys' Glee Club 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Senior Reception Committee. Never tardy. Southwest School.

Bob displayed a great deal of talent in every artistic line. His work in the Dramatic Club has elevated him to a well deserved prominence in our class.

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

JOSEPH FRANCIS BURKE—"Joe"

"Here is the corn and the lea."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Banking Council 1, 2; Class Treasurer 4; Boys' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Interclass Basketball 2, 3, 4; Manager of Track 2, 3, 4; Color and Motto Committee. Never tardy. St. Peter's School. Dartmouth University.

Joe's particular delight was in beating a certain track coach at every game. You may regret your mistreatment of the poor fellow some day, Joe!

ELIZABETH IRENE BUTLER—"Betty"

"She learned the luxury of doing good."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2. St. Peter's School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

This petite blond is the envy of many Bulkeley girls. Although Betty has seemed rather reserved in high school, we have found that she is unselfish and lets others carry off the honors.

PHYLLIS ANN BURR—"Phil"

"Such sweet compulsion doth in music lie."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 2, Vice-President 3; Student Council 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Orchestra 1; Senior Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Inter-High Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Short Story Editor of "Dial" 1; Editorial Board of "Dial" 2, 3, 4; Business Board of Class Book; Junior-Senior Prom Committee; Classical Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3, President 4; Honor Society 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Second Scholarship Prize 1. Naylor School. Smith College.

Phyllis can invariably be seen behind her cello from which she draws a mellow tone. She also holds many offices, which proves that her talents are numerous.

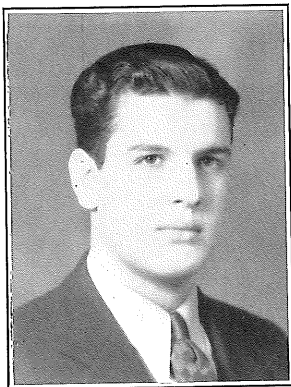

FRANCES THERESE CAMMARANO—"Fran"

"The ancient languages are the scabbard which hold the mind's sword."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3; Girls' Glee Club 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Classical Club 4; Golf Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Honor Society 4. Washington Street School.

How often have we envied Frances' ability to read Latin, and what's more, to understand it. Her knowledge of the "dead" language, on the contrary, accentuates her "lively" personality.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

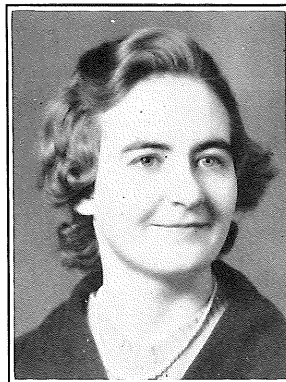

SANTO ANTHONY CANNARELLA—"Sammy"

"The right angle to approach a difficult problem is the try-angle."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 3, 4; Radio Club 3. Hartford High School.

Santo is a jolly, happy-go-lucky fellow. We always wonder how he got his "Trig." Just the same, we hope he gets through life as well as through school.

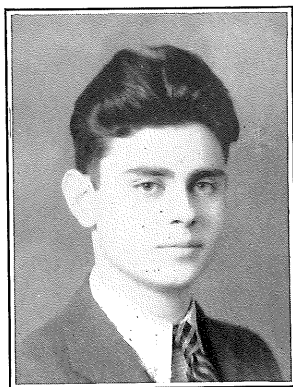

ALICE MARY CAREY

"The sort of a girl you're proud to call 'friend.'"

A. A. 1, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 2, 3. No demerits. St. Peter's School. Merchants and Bankers School.

Alice is a good sport and pal. She can always be found strolling down the corridors talking over the news of the day with a friend.

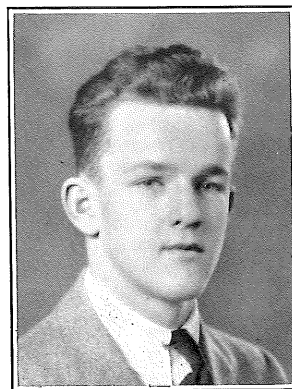

DANIEL MATTHEW CARDILLO—"Dan"

"The shell seemed somewhat empty."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 3, 4. Never tardy. Hillside Avenue School.

Who dug his spikes into the ground to toss the discus for Bulkeley every spring? Of course, it was Dan. His valuable abilities came in handy for the track team.

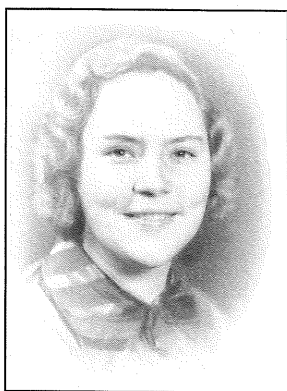

ARTHUR HENRY CAREY—"Art"

"Then mixt a laughter with the serious."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2; Edison Club 4, Secretary 4; Boys' Swimming Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Junior Choir 1; Junior Glee Club 1; Boys' Tennis Team 3; Boys' Golf Club 3, 4; Southwest School.

Art made a practice of burning up the floor at the sorority dances. There was something in his "line" that never failed to attract the women.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

GERTRUDE DAGMAR CARLSON—"Gertie"

"As I am, so I see."

A. A. 1; Girls' League 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 4. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Southwest School. Marchant Secretarial School.

Gertie may be quiet, but she certainly has gained many friends by her willingness to listen and to give encouragement.

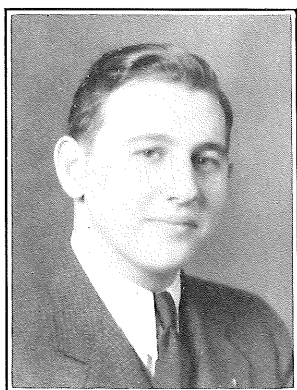

JOSEPHINE ANN CARTELLI—"Jo"

"To women, silence gives their proper grace."

Girls' League 1; Commercial Club 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School.

Jo is inclined to be one of our quieter classmates—at least in the Democracy class. Her sweet personality and her ability to wear clothes well has won for her the admiration of many.

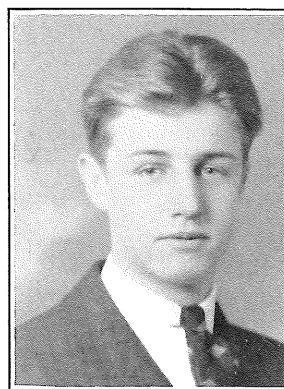

RAYMOND JOSEPH CARNELLI—"Ray"

"It is the end that crowns us, not the fight."

Biological Repertory 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

Ray is a happy-go-lucky fellow who never seems to take studying seriously, but yet seems to get on. His quiet ways do not seem to hurt his popularity any.

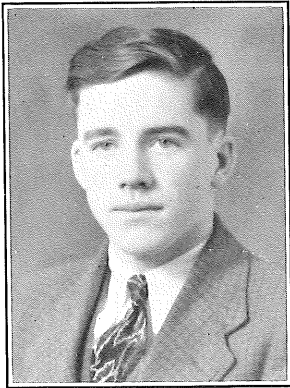

ROBERT GAY CARTER—"Bob"

"There's nothing so kingly as kindness."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 2, 3; Radio Club 4; Boys' Glee Club 1, 2; Choir 1, 2, 3; Interclass Basketball 3. Naylor School. Trinity College.

Something on the type of Gary Cooper, Bob wasn't slow to make friends of both sexes.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

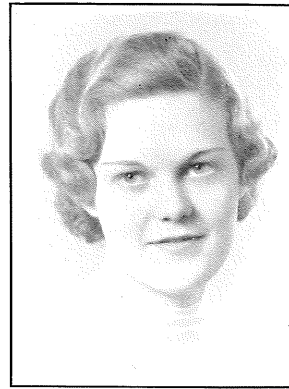

CHARLES HENRY CARUKIN—"Charlie"

"A certain meadow, full in blossom."

Bloomfield High School.

A certain rosy-cheeked little fellow often kept his session room in an uproar. Upon investigation by his teacher it was usually found to be Charlie. Yet somehow he always remained in favor.

EVELYN MAE CASEY—"Lyn"

"It's the spirit that counts."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1; Girls' Swimming Club 4; History-Civics Club 4; Commercial Club; Kickball 4; Honor Society 4; Class Testatrix. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School. Connecticut State College.

Whenever kickball or swimming is mentioned Lyn is right there with her dashing spirit and friendliness which she is never without.

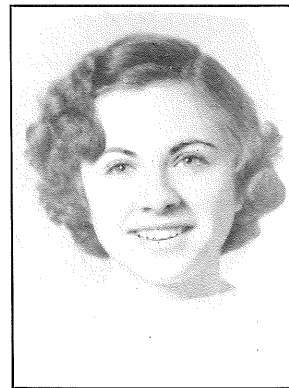

MARIE DELORIS CASALE—"Tiny"

"The great and the little have need of one another."

A. A. 1; Girls' League 1, 2; "Dial" Business Board 3, 4; Camera Club 4; Literary Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4. No demerits. Naylor School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

We don't have to wonder why Marie was nicknamed "Tiny," since her mere presence shows it. She does her share of work, however, and deserves much credit for preparing for a nurse's training school.

CONSTANCE FRANCES CASSARINO—"Connie"

"Whose powers shed round her in the common strife."

A. A. 4; Commercial Club 3; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3. Washington Street School. Juilliard School of Music.

When Connie is not playing the piano, she is doing rhythmic dancing, which shows that her talent is extended in more than one field.

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

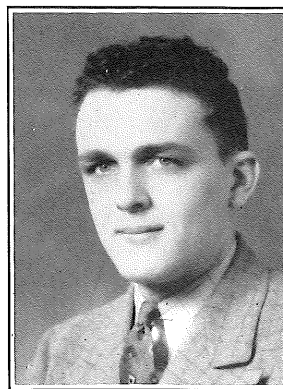

ANNA MAE CHIASCIONE—"Ann"

"And don't the days seem lank and long?"

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1; Girls' Leaders Corps 2; Ni-No-Van Club 3. Washington Street School. St. Mary's Hospital Training School of Waterbury.

If a good 'mixer' can go a long way in society, rest assured that Anne will soon be leading our younger society columns.

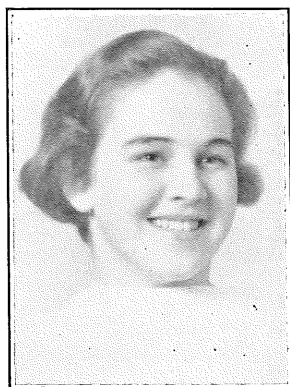

ANDREW HERBERT CHRISTENSEN—"Herb"

"And most silently makes his way."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club electrician 3, 4. Never tardy. St. Peter's School. Columbia University.

There is a certain quiet, masculine air about Herb. He possesses some powers that even he himself doesn't realize.

BARBARA WARD CHITTENDEN—"Bobbie"

"Things done well,

And with a care, exempt themselves from fear."

A. A. 1; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 4; Honor Society 4. Never tardy; no demerits. Center School, Killingworth, Conn. New Britain Normal.

Not only is Barbara the center of attraction because she checks the attendance thoroughly in the rush of 303, but also because of her comeliness and cheery disposition.

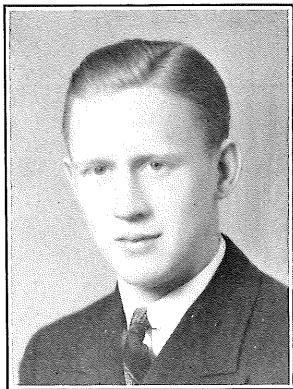

DIANE HOPE CLARK

"Bid me discourse, I will enchant thy ear."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; "Dial" Business Board 2, 3; "Torch" Editorial Board 3; Girls' Golf Club 4; Camera Club 4, Secretary 4. Southwest School. Massachusetts General Hospital.

Hope's incessant chatter is one of those things which social gatherings cannot do without. At football games many rousing cheers had their source in sections where she sat.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

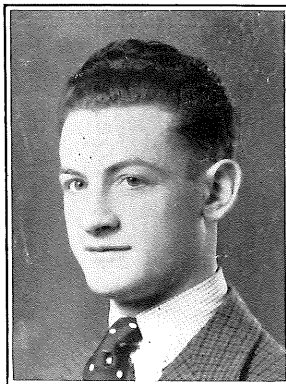

WILLIAM JOSEPH CLARKE—"Red"

"The blush is beautiful, but sometimes inconvenient."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 4; Legislative Club 2, 3, Speaker 4; Boys' Debating Club 4. Biological Repertory Club 2; Junior-Senior Prom Committee; Editorial Board of Class Book; Junior Usher; Track 2, 3; Honor Society 4. Washington Street School. Yale University.

It didn't take Red long to find out, after a few football practices, that track was his sport. He certainly turned out to be a flash on the cinders.

PHILIP COHN—"Phil"

"Speak freely what you think."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3; Student Council 1. Washington Street School. Columbia University.

Phil is such an earnest person, especially in English class. He has the faculty for making very odd answers at times, also.

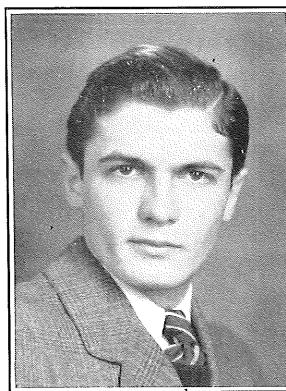

FRANCES BARBARA CODELLA—"Fran"

"No man can tell what the future may bring."

Girls' League 1, 3, 4. Never absent; never tardy. Southwest School. St. Francis Hospital Training School.

Fran isn't through her studies yet by any means, for she intends to go in training. We are all sure that she will succeed in her chosen field.

THOMAS JOSEPH COIRO—"Tom"

"Out of the sun, out of the blast."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Radio Club 4; Track 4. Never tardy. Dr. James H. Naylor School.

Tom was known for the quickness with which he caught on to subtle jokes. We can remember his laughing frequently at something no one else could understand.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

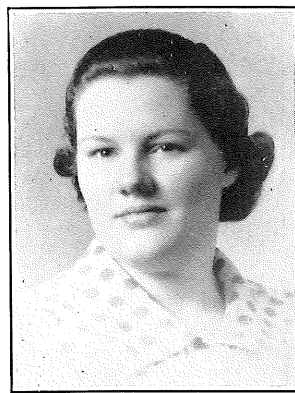

ELVIRA GLORIA COLANERI—"Vi"

"I cannot tell what her name is."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Chauncey Harris School. Weylister Secretarial School.

Elvira, often mistaken for her sister, Marie, is the girl with the clothes we all envy. She, along with her double, presents a striking picture.

ROSE ELLA CONDRÓN—"Rosah"

"The way to gain friends is to be one."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3. No demerits. Washington Street School.

Hail to the future Emily Post. Many people might learn a lesson in courtesy from Rose. She is one of the few persons left in the world who never slight an acquaintance.

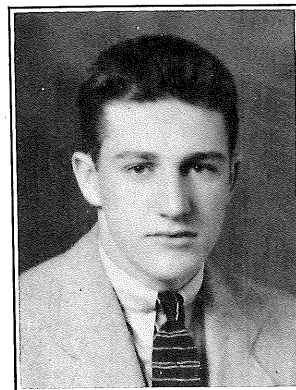

MARIE GRACE COLANERI—"Mary"

"A girl's style is her mind's voice."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Chauncey Harris School. Morse Business College.

The knack of good grooming seems to run in the family along with an air of congeniality which she and her sister always have.

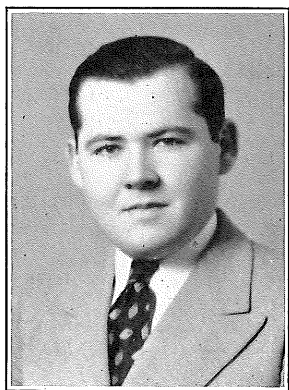

THOMAS LAWRENCE CONDRÓN—"Harp"

"We pass for what we are."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 2; Football 1, 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4. Washington Street School. Northwestern University.

Tom certainly was one of the mainstays of our football team. He did a grand job in the position of guard.

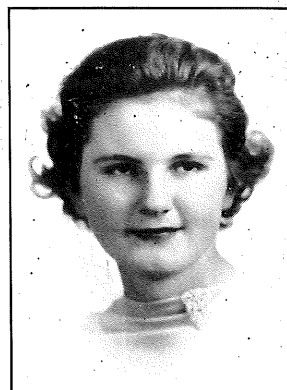

BERNARD JOSEPH CONROY—"Butch"

"For he's a jolly good fellow."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4. Washington Street School.

Bernard, although you'd never guess it by looking at him, has very strong feelings about things—especially class politics. Not much escapes him, in spite of his seeming naivete.

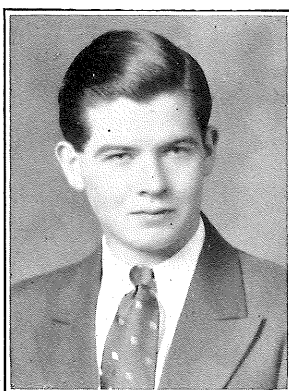

DORIS PRISCILLA CONTESSA

"Acquaintance I would have."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Golf Club 3, 4; French Club 2, 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School.

One way to get acquainted with another language is to speak it often. Doris does this not only in French, but in making friends by starting informal conversations on her own initiative.

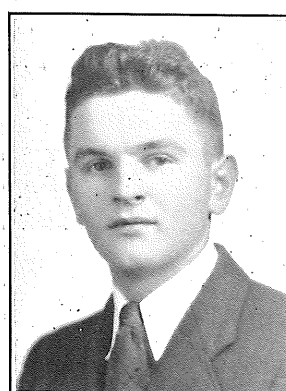

JAMES HUNT CONROY—"Cutie"

"An amiable fellow."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School. Notre Dame University.

Jim proved to be a very capable "back" on the football team. He had the ability to guess what was going to happen long before it took place, a talent which made him invaluable.

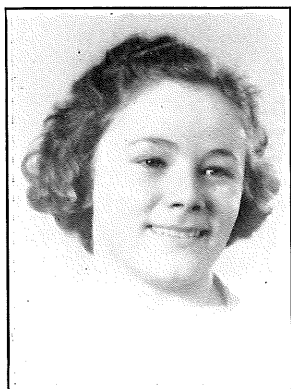

FRED EMANUAL CONTESSA

"Patience is power."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 2, 3; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 2, 3, 4; Vice-President 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4; Golf Team. Southwest School.

Fred is one of those reserved boys who impressed us as doing lots of thinking and little talking. Anyone with these two unmistakably fine qualities should go far.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

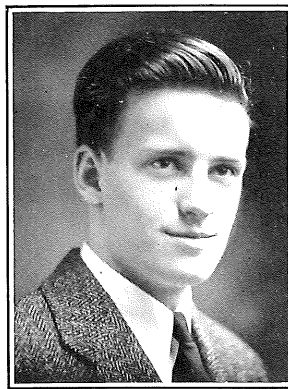

RITA MARIE CORCORAN

"Happiness is added Life, and the Giver of Life."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Commercial Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Kickball Team 4; Girls' Tennis Club 3. Never tardy. St. Peter's School.

When one enjoys sports as Rita does, she is certain to be full of spirit and always ready to enjoy life to the utmost.

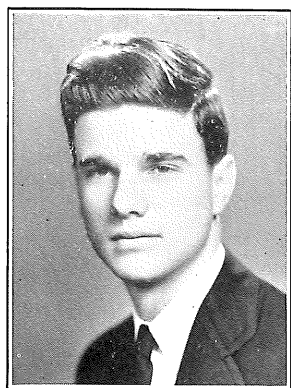

JOHN FRANCIS COSGROVE, JR.—"Cos"

"Learning by study must be won.
'Twas ne'er bequeathed from sire to son."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3; Track Team 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Georgia School of Technology.

Johnny is one of our all-around sports. He indulges in tennis playing and golf. Besides these, he is a member of our track team. He engages in the social sport of dancing, also,

JOSEPH REMI CORMIER—"Joe"

"You waked me too soon and I must slumber again."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 2, 3, 4; Golf Team 3, 4; Junior Usher; Honor Society 4. A. E. Burr School. Trinity College.

Joe's grin reminds one of a cat which has just caught a mouse. It's a rather sheepish look. From all reports, Joe may follow in Bobby Grant's footsteps.

LENA MARY COTTONE—"Lee"

"Ah, sweet is youth."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2; French Club 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. St. Joseph College.

Although Lee is diminutive, she is full of congeniality and friendliness. Her bright, twinkling eyes express her pleasant personality.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

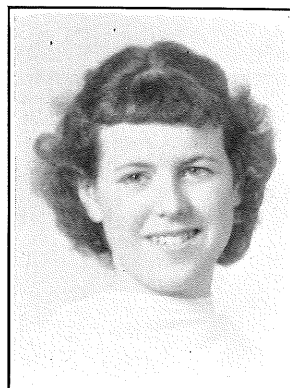

SHERLEY ROSE COUGHLIN—"Lee"

"Anything may develop now."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; "Dial" Business Board 3, 4, Assistant Circulation Manager 3, Circulation Manager 4; Ni-No-Van 3, 4; Camera Club 4, Vice-President 4. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. A. E. Burr School. Morse Business College.

Lee is the attractive young lady we see every time we go by the "Dial" room. We hear that she is also interested in photography. Is this right, Lee?

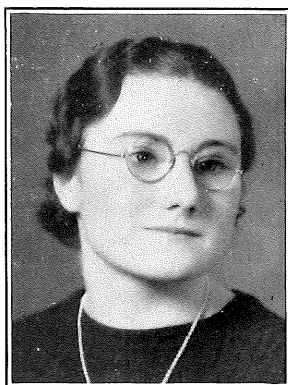

GRACE MARGARET CULLY—"Gracie"

"Action is the proper fruit of knowledge."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School.

We are very glad to see that Grace succeeded in making her double promotion. She certainly deserved it after her constant hard work. Her popularity with the boys outside of school is interesting.

CATHERINE MARY CROWLEY—"Kay"

"Silence is gain to many of mankind."

Agora 3, 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

Kay is one of our classmates who has managed to go four years without a single demerit. It must be her shy yet friendly nature that makes her such a likable girl both in and out of school.

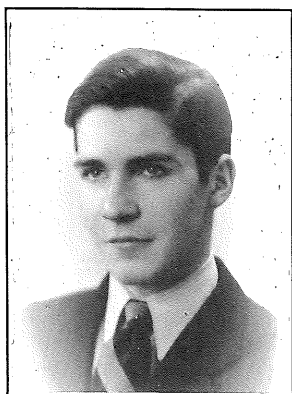

FRANCES MARION CURLEE—"Curly"

"Happy, as it were, by report."

Certificate in Shorthand.

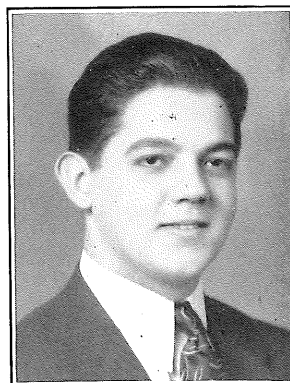

Curly didn't go in for any school activities, but perhaps she had other interests? At any rate she did not fail to make friends.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

ROBERT STUART CURTIN—"Bob"

"Nonchalance and gaiety carry the day."
Boys' Club 3; Student Council 2; Interclass Basketball 2. Never tardy. A. E. Burr School. Bay Path Institute.
Full of fun and with lots of what it takes to make friends, Bobby never lacked admirers. His four years have been just one good time after another.

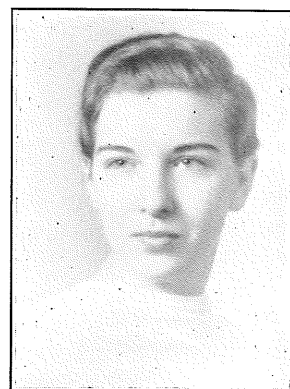

MARTIN FRANCIS DABROWSKI—"Chubby"

"With fairy fancy far before."
A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School. Northwestern University.
A large body and a correspondingly large heart were the possessions of "Chubby." His classmates will always remember his pleasant nature.

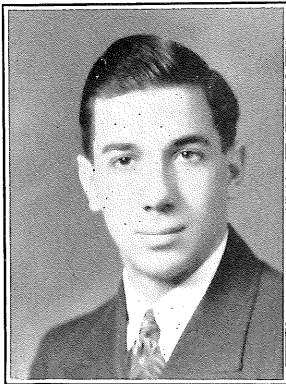

MARJORIE MARY CUSTER—"Marge"

"'Tis a sure sign work goes on merrily,
When folks sing at it."
Girls' League 1; Student Council 1; A Cappella Choir 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; Agora 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School.
Marjorie is the "singing bird" of Bulkeley and will always be remembered for her excellent showing in the operetta "The Mikado."

EDITH ERICA PAVOLONA DAHL—"Sliver"

"It is work which gives flavor to life."
A. A. 1; Girls' League 1; Camera Club 4. Certificate for Shorthand. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School.
"Sliver" is indeed an appropriate nickname, as it describes Edith very well. Shorthand gives her the necessary background for the business world.

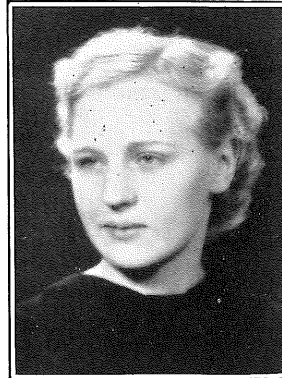

MICHAEL JOSEPH D'ALESSIO—"Doc"

"I love to sit in school and yawn, and think of future days."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4;
Football 1, 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School. Northwestern University.

Mike succeeded in landing an end berth on the football team through his good work. He certainly was a "wonder" in chemistry. Much luck to you, Mike!

GENEVIEVE TERESA DAWIDOWICZ—"Dave"

"Quiet and wise."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 3; Commercial Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4, Fifth Member 4; Honor Society 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. S.S.
Cyril and Methodius School.

We don't know where the name "Dave" came from, but we do know that it doesn't suit Genevieve. She is a rather unassertive person, but she always has an interesting opinion to offer.

MARIE HELEN DAVIDSON—"Dave"

"A nice appearance delights us all."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Girls'
Leaders Corps 3; Girls' Swimming Club 4;
Girls' Golf Club 4, Secretary 4. Southwest
School.

Marie's splendid posture and tailored clothes bespeak the athletic girl at her best. So do her alert manner and cheerful smile.

DONALD JEWETT DAY—"Don"

"See thou, character."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 4; Debating
Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; "Torch" Business
Board 2, 3; "Torch" Editorial Board 4; Co-chairman of Junior-Senior Prom; Dramatic Club 4; Indoor Tennis Club 4; Honor Society;
Tennis Team 2, 3, 4, Captain and Manager 3,
4; Tennis Champion 3; Class Orator. Washington Street School. Springfield College.

Don seems pretty well liked by the fair sex. We wonder if it's because they'd like lessons from such an exceptional tennis player.
He makes a handsome actor in our dramatic club performances.

ALBERT ANTHONY DE CAMILLIS—"Al"

"He held his tongue."

Never tardy. A. E. Burr School. Northwestern University.

Al could almost always be found in the vicinity of 222 during the recess period. Although quiet, he has won many friends during his four years at Bulkeley.

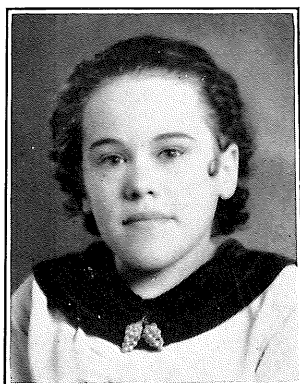

THOMAS JOHN DE FAZIO—"Pop"

"No hurt could he feel."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Stamp Club 3; Radio Club 3; Football 3, 4; Letter 4; Freshman Football; Baseball 3, 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 2, 3; All City Left End for 1936. Richard J. Kinsella School. Northwestern University.

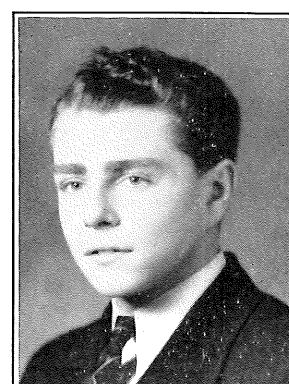

"Pop" played a slam-bang game at end for Bulkeley. His greatest triumph was in overcoming the heralded New Britain backs on Thanksgiving day.

FRANCES THERESE DEFAYETTE—"Toots"

"And, gentle, gentle Lady, deign to stay!"

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. St. Peter's School. Morse Business College. Congratulations, "Toots," for the double you made into our class. We are very glad to have you with us.

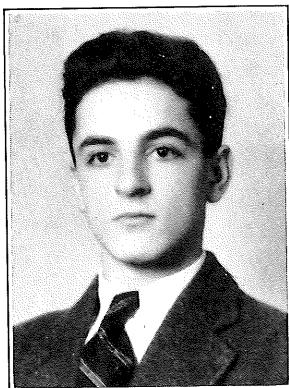

JOSEPH FRANCIS DEL GAUDIO—"Joe"

"The ticking of Eternity."

A. A. 2, 3; Boys' Club 1, 2; Biological Repertory 2, 3, 4; Vice-President 3; Treasurer 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4. Chauncey Harris School.

Joe is the proud owner of a massive pair of shoulders and a powerful chest. He was about the best acrobat in the school.

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

JOHN JOSEPH DE LISA—"Jack"

"I profess not talking; only this Let each man do his best."

Basketball, 1, 2, 3. No demerits; never tardy. St. Peter's School.

Jack rarely blows his own horn and consequently only a few of us get to know him well. His intimate friends assert, however, that he is a swell pal.

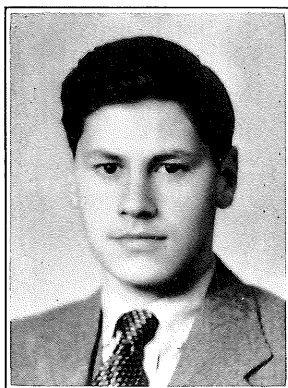

MARY LOU DE MONTE—"Babe"

"Now and then you of wit
Will condescend to talk a bit."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4, President 4; Upper Class Choir 1, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Circulation Board of "Dial" 3; Assistant Advertising Manager of "Dial" 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits. A. E. Burr School.

Whenever a penny, a ticket, or a token is needed, almost invariably Mary can be depended on to give that helping hand. Coupled with this, her wit adds even more to her personality.

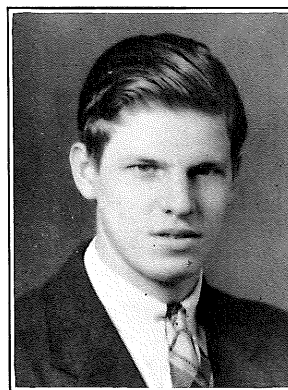

LOUIS DE LORETO—"Del"

"Then a boy, but now a man."

Chess Club 2, 3, Interscholar Team; Basketball 2. J. H. Naylor School.

Del showed promise as a basketball player in his sophomore year. After that, his interest turned to the more intellectual activities of Bulkeley.

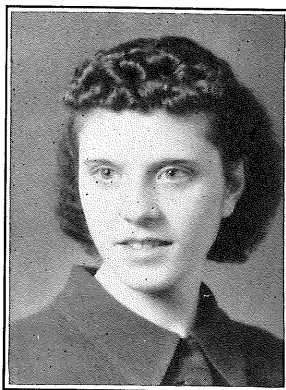

CARL JOHN DE NINO—"Butch"

"Silence is the perfectest herald of joy."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 2. J. H. Naylor School.

"Butch" is the vigorous, yet easy-going type of fellow. One can't help liking him. We have all enjoyed his amicable disposition.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

ROCCINA ANN DE PHILLIPS—"Rocky"

"Dignity of manner always conveys a sense of reserved force."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3. No demerits. Alfred E. Burr School. Miss Marchant's School.

Rocky is the young lady whose hair is never out of order. Her extreme neatness is the pride and envy of all her classmates. She is always a staunch supporter of all athletic undertakings.

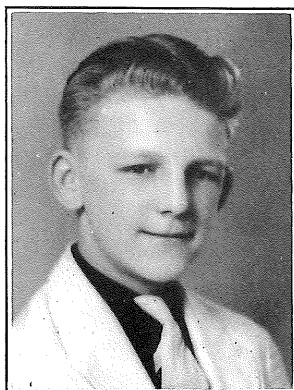

ELINOR ANN DEVANNEY—"EI"

"You will swim without cork.
You will get on without help."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Tennis Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Swimming Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary and Coach 3, President 4; Student Council 4; Business Staff of "Torch" 3, 4, Assistant Advertising Manager 4. Never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. St. Joseph College.

Elinor is a born leader in club activities, as well as "queen of the mermaids," proven by her success in the girls' swimming club.

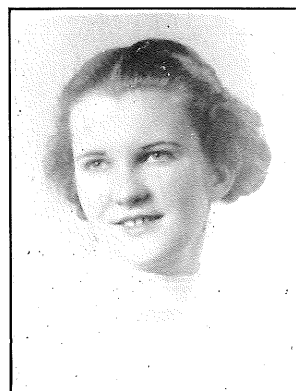

ALBERT RAYMOND DEVANNEY, JR.
"Whitey"

"Life is but a stage."

A. A. 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 2, 3, 4, Mailing Manager 2; Junior Dramatic Club 1, Vice-President; Boys' Glee Club 1, 2. J. H. Naylor School. Bay Path Business Institute.

Al is a fine singer and dancer, and is at home on any stage. What other qualifications should one have for a theatrical career?

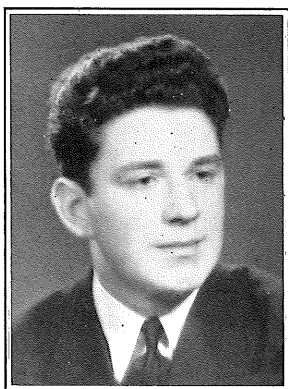

KATHRYN MARIE ANN DEVANNEY—"Kay"

"My way is to begin with the beginning."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Girls' Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 2, 3. No demerits. Alfred E. Burr School.

Is it a coincidence that Kay's middle initials spell "Ma," or is it because she is always ready with that "motherly advice" so needed by us all?

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

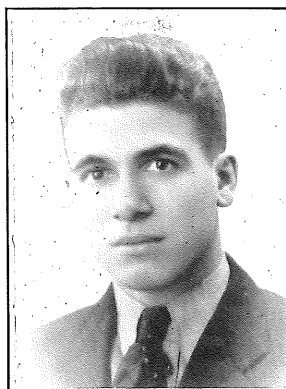

PETER FLAVIAN DE VAUX—"Pete"

"And he is mighty and fine."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 4; Class President 2; Student Council 1, 2, 3; Junior Council 2; Associate Editor of "Dial" 4; Classroom Treasurer 4; Boys' Debating Club 2, 3, 4; Camera Club 4; Treasurer 4; Chess Club 2, 3, Vice-President 2, 3. No demerits; never tardy. Hillside Avenue School. Holy Cross College.

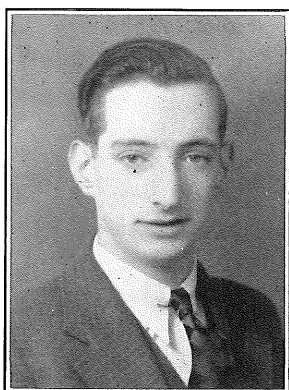

Pete displayed his natural leadership by immediately coming to the front in our class four years ago. The statistics above will tell the rest of his tale.

ANDREW CHARLES DE VITO—"Andy"

"He is a man per se and stands alone."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4. A. E. Burr School. Andy is a quiet, nonchalant, likeable fellow. His nonchalance is deceiving, however, because he does possess some reserve energy of which occasionally he makes use. We're not at all sorry that Andy made a double into our class.

JOHN JOSEPH DEVINE—"Jack"

"Upon the monarch's silken stool."

A. A. 4. Washington Street School. Columbia University.

Jack always obtained maximum results with a minimum of effort. He is truly an efficient individual.

KATHLEEN AGNES DILLON—"Kitty"

"Is she not passing fair?"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 3; Commercial Club 3; Girls' Tennis Club 3, 4; Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Golf Club 3, 4. St. Peter's School.

Kitty's attractive features, together with her knowledge and skill in shorthand, will surely go a long way in aiding her to obtain a position.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

RAGHILINE MARY DISALVATORE

"Hang Sorrow! Care'll kill a cat
And therefore let's be merry."

Girls' League 1. No demerits; never tardy.
Alfred E. Burr School.

Even though Raghiline loved to have a merry time and joined her friends anywhere at any time, she also managed to finish school by never being late or tardy.

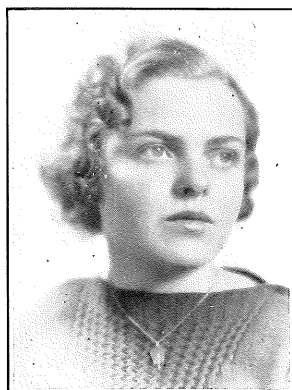

CATHERINE BARBARA DONAGHUE—"Kay"

"Friendliness is the wine of life."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 4. Never tardy.
Alfred E. Burr School. Morse Business College.

Kay always has a cheery smile and greeting even in the gloomiest times. This has won her many true friends.

MARION DIX

"In every exalted joy, there mingles a sense of gratitude."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 4; Circulation Board of "Dial" 2; Advertising Board of "Dial" 3, 4, Assistant Advertising Manager 4; Advertising Manager 4; Classical Club 3, 4; Fifth Member 3; Treasurer 4; Literary Club 3, 4; Agora 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Class Room Treasurer; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Southwest School. Simmons College.

Marion's efforts in 303 to collect from sixty girls their class dues may have given her many a headache, but through it all a winning smile brightened the surroundings.

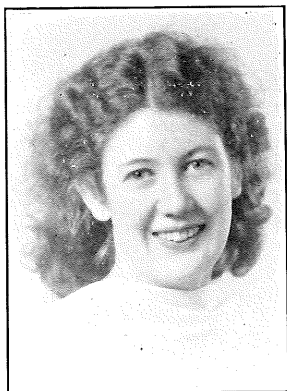

MARIE MARGUERITE DONAHUE

"A good sport makes a good friend."

Girls' League 1, 2; Commercial Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Tennis Club 3, 4. O. G. A. Award in Stenography. No demerits. Never tardy. St. Peter's School.

Knowing how well Marie likes active sports, we don't wonder why she chose the clubs to which she belongs. Her good work in Stenography proves that she is industrious in other ways, too.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

TERESA MARY DONOHUE—"Terry"

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Upper Class Choir 4; Classical Club 4; History-Civics Club 4; "Dial" Advertising Board 3; Honor Society 4. No demerits; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. St. Joseph College.

Teresa's height enables her to "see" things more quickly than anyone. Her sweet personality and her long lovely curls make her well beloved in Bulkeley.

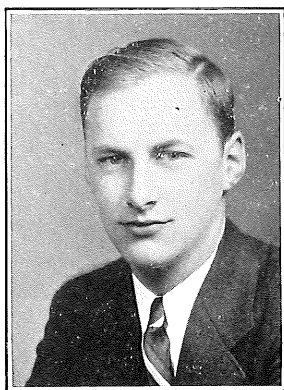

SADIE MARIA DONZA—"Chille"

"Persuasion hung upon her lips."

Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Golf Club 4. Alfred E. Burr School. Merchants and Bankers Business School.

Perhaps Sadie derived her ambition to make a double promotion from her love of golf. She certainly is helpful in "boosting" her friends on.

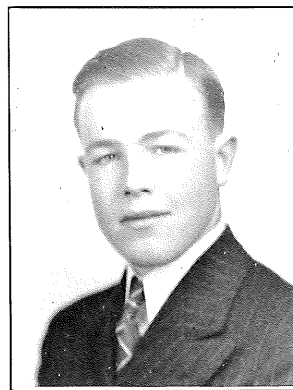

ROBERT JOSEPH DONOVAN—"Bob"

"Why am I lying so late?"

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Biological Repertory 3, 4; President 4. Saint Thomas Seminary. Colby College.

Bob is as nonchalant and carefree as one could possibly be. How could anyone help but like him?

ERNEST FRANCIS DOOLEY—"Ern"

"And all his rarer, better, truer self."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Art Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 3, 4; Freshman Football; Interclass Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School. University of Southern California.

Ernie ruled his followers with an iron hand. Yet his tactics didn't prevent him from becoming a noted artistic figure in the school.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

KATHERINE ELIZABETH DRISCOLL—"Kay"

"Friendship is one necessity of life."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. St. Joseph College.

Kay and Nancy are intimate companions. Katherine is well-liked, and we hope she makes more friends who will be as close to her as her cousin, Nancy.

MARY DROPIOK—"Monnie"

"The never idle workshop of Nature."

Girls' League 1, 2; Art Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Biology Club 2, 3, 4; President 4. No demerits. Richard J. Kinsella School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

With the "alleviation of pain" as her objective, Mary has two most necessary traits, leadership and understanding.

NANCY ANN DRISCOLL—"Nan"

"She that holdeth a friendship."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls League 2, 3, 4; Kick-ball 4; History-Civics Club 3; Commercial Club 3, 4; Southwest School. St. Joseph College.

Nancy has tried hard to keep up with Katherine and has done a wonderful job of it. They have been together since they first started school.

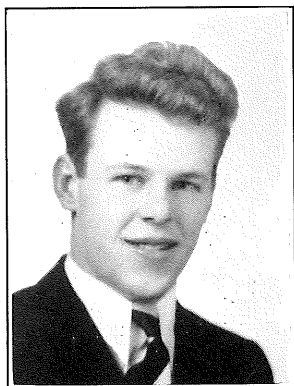

CATHERINE TERESA DRUMMOND—"Kate"

"It's good to be merry and wise
It's good to be honest and true."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4. St. Peter's School. Morse Business College.

To some people Catherine seems to be a very quiet and reserved person. She isn't, though, for outside of class Catherine's very lively and always ready for a good time.

GEORGE HENRY DUSH

"The royal feast was done."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Art Club 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School.

George is gifted with marvelous scientific and mechanical abilities. There is no beating him when it comes to woodworking.

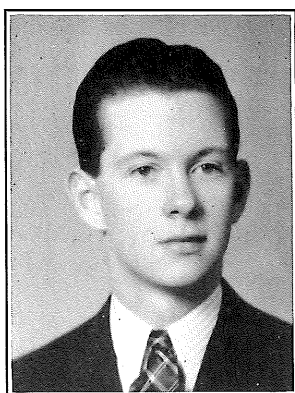

GERTRUDE SARA EFF—"Gert"

"In the sense of the brilliant, or wise."

Honor Society 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3; French Club 3, 4; Classical Club 3, 4, Fifth Member 4. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School. Connecticut State Teachers College.

Gert possesses a studious look by which no one can fail to be impressed. She was particularly successful in judging the rights and wrongs of class arguments.

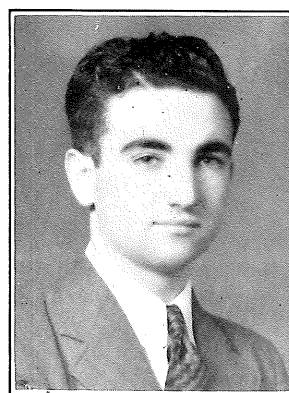

WALTER RAYMOND ELLIOTT, Jr.—"Walt"

"The music rare that fills the air."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Student Council 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 4; Legislative Club 4; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4, President 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 3, 4. William Hall High. Trinity College.

Walt has been the warbling Romeo of Bulkeley. Nor did his abilities cease with the social circle. He was one of Mr. Daly's finest sprinting stars.

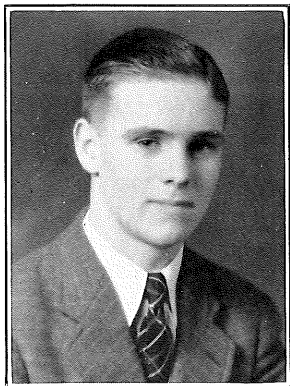

JAMES VINCENT EULIANO—"Jim"

"He's mighty like a rose."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 3, 4; Biological Repertory 4; Edison Club 4; Camera Club 4, Charter Member; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Upper Class Choir. Washington Street School. University of Southern California.

Jim didn't follow athletics at Bulkeley for some reason. Yet his basketball and swimming abilities were well known in H. P. H. S. districts.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

FRANCIS ROGER EVERIN

"What have we here?"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2; Boys' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 2, 3. St. Peter's School. St. Mary's College.

Roger has been the champion of all Bulkeley practical jokers. You really should become a professional performer, Roger.

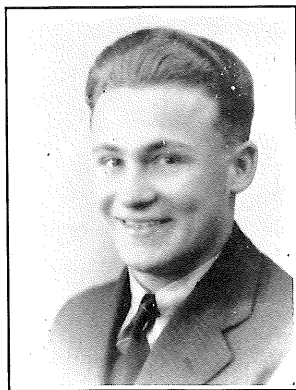

THERESA MARIE FANELLI—"Peanuts"

"The friendly welcome on the never changing face."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4. Washington Street School.

"Peanuts" has been a popular heartthrob for many Bulkeley lads. Hats off to a girl who always meets with unlimited success!

NICHOLAS RICHARD FANELLI—"Dick"

"Man, it was a joy to me."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Track 2, 3; Football 3, 4; Letter 4; Baseball 4; Interclass Basketball 2, 3. Never tardy. A. E. Burr School. Northwestern University.

Dick was fleet as the wind as halfback on the football team. The ladies of Bulkeley found him up and coming, too.

ANNA MARIE FERRO—"Ann"

"Always courteous, good, and kind."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy; never absent. Southwest School.

Anna has a pair of dark twinkling eyes which always seem to be hiding mischief. Though she's quite small, she holds a lot of cheerfulness.

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

PAULINE CECILIA FILIPKOWSKI

"Sweet and neat—she can't be beat."
Girls' League 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4.
No demerits. Never tardy. S.S. Cyril and Methodius School.

Pauline is very neat in her dress. She believes in being seen and not heard, yet she has a definite popularity with the boys outside of school.

MARION VIRGINIA FINN—"Babe"

"Popularity hath power."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4;
"Torch" Business Board 2, 3, 4, Assistant Advertising Manager 3, 4; Senior Dramatic Club
3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2, President 1,
Vice-President 1; Junior Glee Club 1; Upper Class Choir 4; Girls' Leaders Corps; Color and Motto Committee. Never absent. Southwest
School.

"Babe" has made the name for herself of being the Ginger Rogers of Bulkeley. We are certain that with her liveliness and wit she will always be successful.

JOHN FRANCIS FINCH—"Jack"

"You have all crossed the melancholy stream."
Boys' Club 4; Lansdowne, Pennsylvania
High School. Connecticut State College.

Jack is an honest, frank sort of fellow who never fails to get ahead in his undertakings.
His air of abstraction conceals a keen sense of humor.

ALICE ELIZABETH FINNERTY—"Al"

"Friendly to all, but intimate with few."

A. A. 1, 3. Never tardy. Alfred E. Burr
School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

Alice is another of our hard workers, for she studied diligently. She is a very good-natured person, and an interesting one, too.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

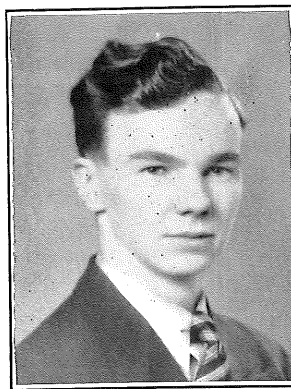

JOHN GERALD FITZGERALD—"Jack"

"And we're all good fellows together."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Legislative Club 4; Edison Club 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Basketball 3; Interclass Basketball 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Trinity College.

On the basketball court, Jack was a terror. Yet in the corridors he was just a pleasant, jolly good fellow. We hope you concentrate more on varsity basketball at Trinity, Jack.

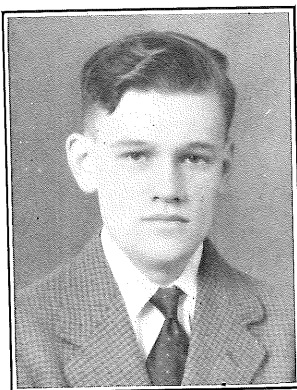

TIMOTHY JOSEPH FLYNN—"Tim"

"Ah, welcome dawn."

A. A. 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Stamp Club 1; Track 4. William Hall High. Trinity College.

Tim possesses a typical Irish appearance. He went in for that good old Irish sport, soccer, too.

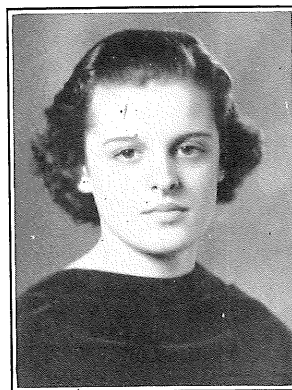

EDWARD FRANCIS FLANIGAN—"Ed"

"And eloquent was he."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 4; Boys' Debating Club 3, 4; Edison Club 4; Room Banker 2; Boys' Swimming Club 4. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Immaculate Conception School. Dean Academy. Yale University.

Ed is a pompous person with a deep, rumbling voice. In debates, he often swayed the judges with his violent speeches.

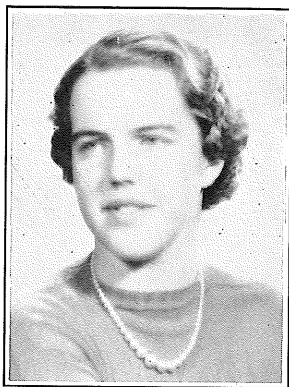

DOROTHY ELIZABETH FLYNT—"Dot"

"Pretty and quiet."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

If our class were to be divided into two groups, the noisiest and quietest, we are sure that Dot would belong to the latter. However, we hear that she is quite popular with the male sex outside of school.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

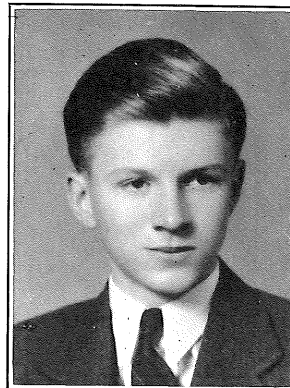

ELEANOR WINIFRED FOSTER—"L"

"And who loves Nature more?"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Biology Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School. Goddard Junior College.

The outdoors attracts Eleanor so much that she brought it in with her by joining the Girls' Biology and Girls' Swimming Clubs.

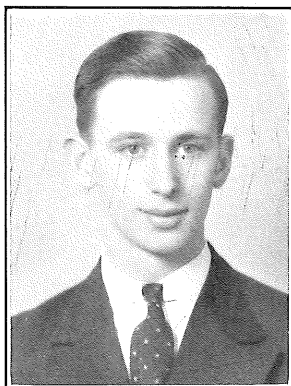

ROBERT HICKOX FRANCIS—"Bob"

"A man's man, in ambition only."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 1, 2; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Boys' Biology Club. Southwest School. Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Bob was another Bulkeley Romeo who spent most of his time trying to get rid of the girls. We're afraid that he'll never be entirely successful.

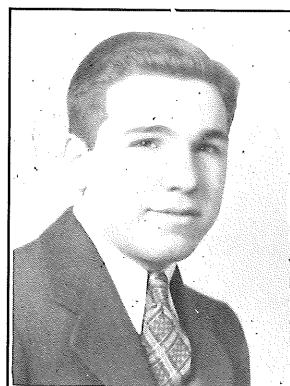

ROBERT LOUIS FOURNIER—"Bob"

"I warrant him heart-whole."

Naylor School.

I wonder what Mr. Jenkins will do now that Bob is graduating. He will not have anyone to appreciate his jokes!

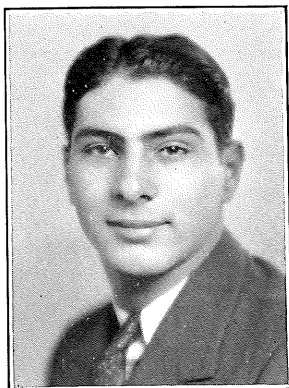

FRANCIS JOHN FRANCO—"Tot"

"For his unconquerable soul."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Junior-Senior Prom Committee; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3; Edison Club 4; Baseball 4; Interclass Basketball 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

"Tot" is another of the fine Bulkeley athletes who didn't get around to showing his "stuff" on the Bulkeley teams. We hope he takes sports more seriously in college.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

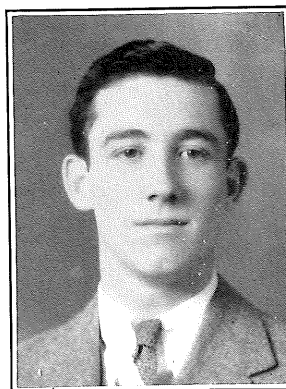

JAMES JOSEPH FRANCOLINE—"Moosy"

"He plants a friend of sun and sky."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4, 4; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; Interclass Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Sophomore Football, Captain. James H. Naylor School.

Jim is a superb baseball player, and was snatched up by professional leagues when he was very young. He became a local headliner when he hit a "homer" against "Dizzy" Dean last spring.

ROBERT JAMES GAGEL—"Chris"

"I'm to voyage, and explore."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4; "Torch" Business Board; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Art Club 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Football 4, Cheerleader 3; Freshman Football 1; Interclass Basketball 4; Freshman Basketball 1; Track 3. Washington Street School. National Mechanical School of Diesels.

Perhaps he didn't like it, but Chris attracted the girls as jam attracts flies. Maybe it was that rapid manner of talking.

HELEN JOSEPHINE GABRIEL

"A girl who is good, in nature sweet."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, Chairman 2; Student Council 1, 2; Swimming Club 4; Scribblers' Club 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Chauncey Harris School. Teachers College of Connecticut.

Helen is that friendly girl who has a bright smile and a cheery "Hello" for everyone. A glance at Helen proves to you that she has a very pleasing personality.

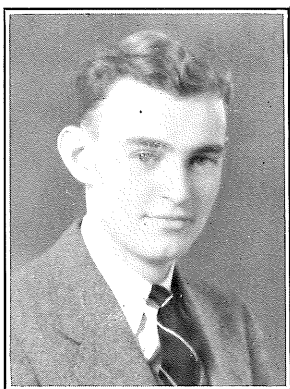

NELLIE THERESA GALUZKA

"A woman, yet a spirit still."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 4; Room Representative for Girls' League 4; Ni-No-Van Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School. McKeon Business School.

Nellie helped to make the school a better place with her sweet disposition. Good luck, Nellie!

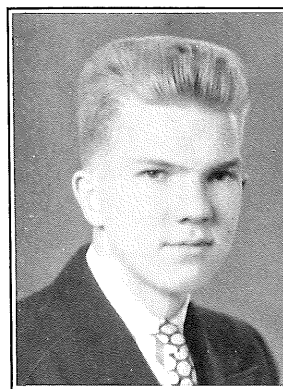

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

JOHN HUMPHREY GANTER—"Doc"

"Very rich is he in virtues."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3. Never tardy. Southwest School. Springfield College. "Doc" is a friendly chap whom one can't help liking. We usually find a broad smile beaming on his face, and he is forever looking on the bright side of life.

ALFRED EMANUEL GAVERT—"Al"

"Fair spoken and persuading."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4; Student Council 4; Edison Club 3, 4, Treasurer 3, President 4; Charter Member of Camera Club; Upper Class Choir 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Al is a likable sort of fellow who is known among us all for his congenial, courteous disposition. Al's hair is rather distinctive; it resembles the crest on the helmet of a Roman soldier.

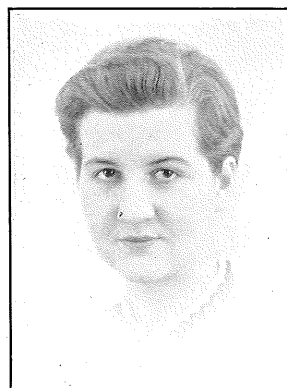

LILLIAN MARY GARTHWAIT

"Among the lilacs, hand in hand."

Art Club 3; Art Editor of "Dial." Leavenworth High, Waterbury, Connecticut. Pratt Institute.

Lillian has been quite an artistic figure in our class. She certainly did much to adorn the "Dial."

ALICE GENEVIEVE GECHAS—"Al"

"Few things are impossible to diligence and skill."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4. Holy Trinity School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

Al is a quiet girl and seems to expend her energy on her studies. She has a slow-catching smile which readily makes friends of those she meets.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

ELEANOR AMELIA GEORGE—"Lea"

"Those who put forth an effort gain much."
Girls' League 1. Southwest School. Bay Path Institute.

Shy and reticent—that's Eleanor. She is persevering in her studies, for her belief is that "If at first you don't succeed, try again."

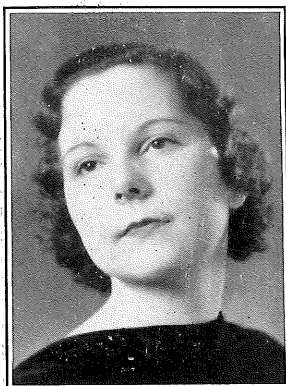

MARY ANTOINETTE GERVASIO—"Mary"

"Hers is a friendly heart."

Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Choir 1. No demerits.
A. E. Burr School.

Mary has made many friends during her stay at Bulkeley, for she is considered a "good sport" by all her friends.

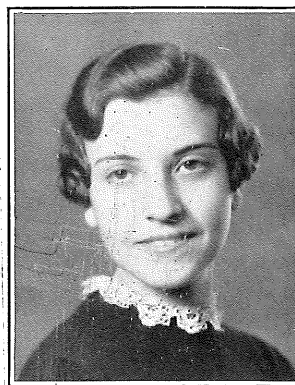

DOROTHY GWENDOLYN GERNRICH—"Dot"

"There's a lot to do."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League Representative 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 2, 3; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School. Yale Pharmaceutical College.

Dot, a petite person; has such small dainty feet that they are the envy of many of the girls. One of her chief activities has been participating in the glee club.

SYLVIA MARY GESUALDI—"Sis"

"Full many a flower is born to blush unseen."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Upper Class Choir 3, 4. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Washington Street School. Miss Marchant's Secretarial School.

Sylvia is always willing to do what she is asked to do. Never have we seen her with a cross look. She preferred outsiders to our Bulkeley boys.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

ANNA MARIE GIAMMATTI—"Ann"

"Always courteous, good, and kind."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 3, 4; Choir 1; Commercial Club 3. Never tardy. Chauncey Harris School. Morse Business College.

Ann is a very co-operative and enthusiastic student. She has high hopes of attending Morse Business College after graduating. We know she'll be a success there after the short-hand honors she has received here.

RITA LOUISE GIANNETTINO

"Is she not passing fair?"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 2; "Torch" Business Board 3. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School.

Rita is not only very attractive but she also has the power of thrilling audiences with her lovely voice. We only wish she would sing for us more often.

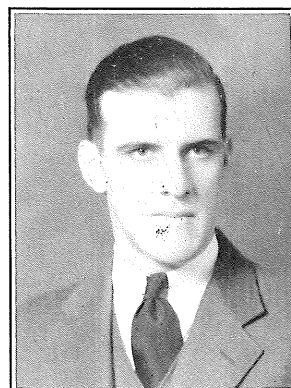

ANNA HELEN GIANETTI—"Nan"

"Diligence is rewarded."

Girls' League 1; Agora 3, 4; French Club; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Alfred E. Burr School.

Anna is one of those rare persons who really come to high school to study and to learn something, and she has succeeded admirably. Above all, Anna's quiet unassuming manner and her friendliness have made her well-liked among her fellow classmates, and there is no accomplishment more worth-while.

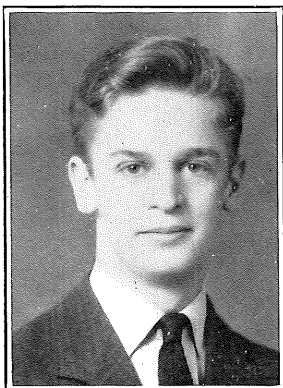

WALTER FRANCIS GILCHRIST, Jr.—"Fish"

"He plants the forests' heritage."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Football 3; Freshman Football. Washington Street School. University of Southern California.

Fish is a valuable man on the gridiron and a fine fellow off it.

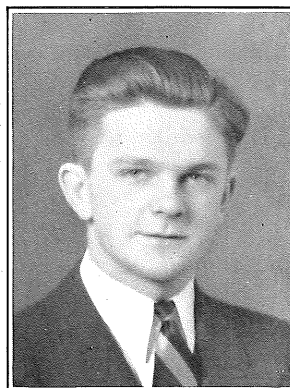

CAROL GOLDENTHAL—"Goldie"

"Youth is a blunder."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Legislative Club 4; Boys' Debating Club 4; Chess Club 3; Edison Club 4; Upper Class Choir; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 3, 4; Boys' Tennis Team 3, 4. Weaver High School. Yale University.

Here he is: Goldie, the man of the hour! He is a good scholar, and is capable of talking himself in and out of more situations than anyone we ever heard of.

EDMUND HAROLD GRANDAHL—"Ed"

"The joy that unborn eyes shall see."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; "Torch" Business Board 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; Boys' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4. A. E. Burr School. Morse Business College.

Ed is a pleasant fellow with a shrewd business-like mind. He is the ideal type for a business executive.

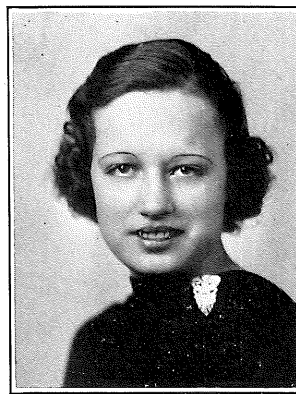

VIRGINIA ROSE GOULET—"Vee"

"She is a daughter of the gods."

Girls' League Room Representative 1; Girls' Swimming Club 2; Commercial Club 3. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

Virginia is a tall girl full of enthusiasm from top to toe. She's always very friendly and helpful. Much luck to you, Virginia.

HEDWIG ANNA GRILL—"Wiggie"

"Never elated, never depressed."

A. A. 4. No demerits; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School.

Hedwig goes about her studies in a very quiet way. It is impossible to believe that you always look upon the world so seriously, Hedwig.

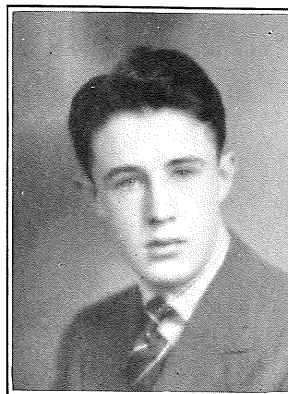

GERTRUDE RUTH GUERTIN—"Gertie"

"It is tranquil people who accomplish much."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 1, 2, 3, 4, President 4; Upper Class Choir 4; Volley Ball Team 4. Washington Street School. Becker College.

Gertie does not belong to the noisy class. She has a smile for everyone and has gained many loyal friends at Bulkeley. She has sufficiently displayed her wares as president of the French Club.

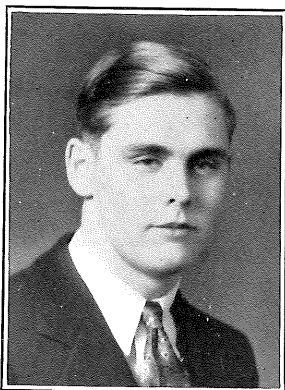

EDWARD JOSEPH GUNNING—"Eddie"

"The vibrations of deathless music."

A. A. 1, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Freshman Basketball 1, 2. Washington Street School. Bentley School.

Eddie is indeed a "live wire." His presence seems to give everything a spark. He is speedy and tricky in athletics, too.

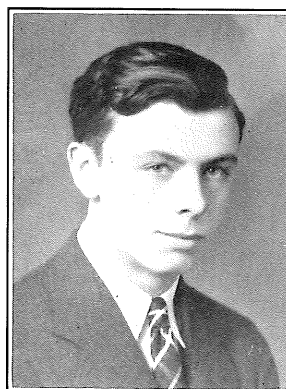

THOMAS PATRICK GUINAN—"Tom"

"Ah, happy, happy boughs."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; No demerits; never tardy. Immaculate Conception School.

Tom is a really fine fellow underneath a cloak of reserve. He is highly respected by those who come in contact with him.

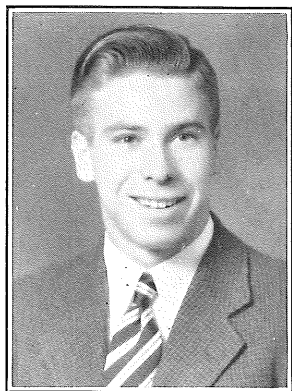

ROBERT MOORE GUNNING—"Bob"

"No wider than the heart is wide."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4; Biological Repertory 3; Boys' Swimming Club 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Bentley School.

Bob is an easy-going, lovable lad with a great store of wit. His subtle remarks often had the girls screaming with laughter.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

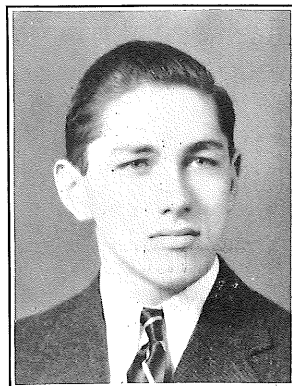

ARTHUR MICHAEL GUSTAFSON—"Gus"

"We shall rest, and faith, we shall need it."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 3, 4; Freshman Football 1; Baseball 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Inter-class Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4. Hillside Avenue School. Holy Cross College.

Gus was at perfect ease, either on the gridiron or on the baseball diamond. He achieved considerable notoriety as a basketball star, too.

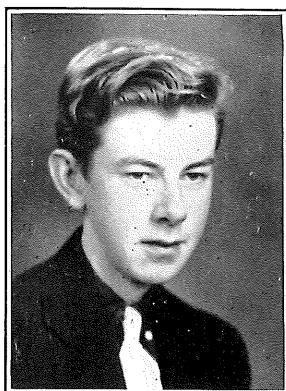

WILLIAM FRANCIS HADDEN—"Bill"

"Anything for a quiet life."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Assistant Editor of the "Dial" 4; Parnassus 2, 3, 4; Track Team 3. St. Peter's School. International School of Banking.

Bill is a member of the no-necktie brigade. He is one of our most silent classmates, but he aspires to be a Mark Twain.

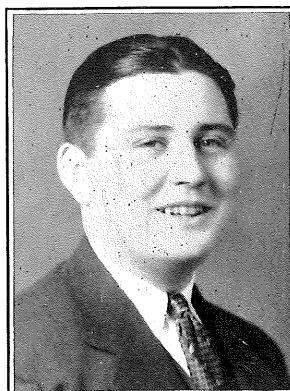

JAMES EDWARD GUTHRIE—"Jimmie"

"A shaft of beauty, towering high."

Radio Club 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

Jimmie knew his stuff as a radio technician. We understand he is quite a man with the ladies, too.

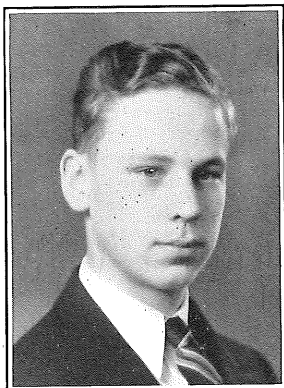

CHARLES BENEDICT HAFEZ, Jr.—"Chick"

"From the crown of his head to the sole of his foot, he is all mirth."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Student Council 1; Baseball 3; Football 3. Washington Street School. Notre Dame University.

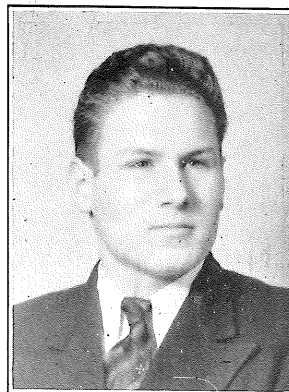

Chick is a well-liked, easy going fellow. With his winning smile and personality, he soon became very popular. His great singing on "Dial Night" was a surprise to us all.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

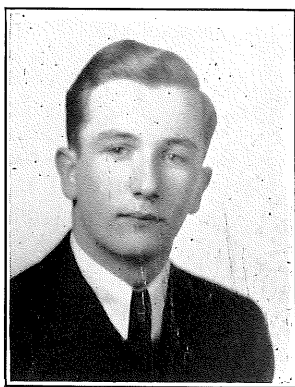

VINCENT HAIKO—"Vinnie"

"You can't judge a book by the cover."
A. A. 1, 3; Boys' Club 4; Parnassus 3, 4.
Never tardy. A. E. Burr School. International School of Banking.
Vinnie is rather silent at times but his witty remarks have kept many a class from falling asleep.

PETER HANSEN—"Pete"

"A penny for your thoughts."
No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School.
Peter apparently likes to be alone, as is shown by his daily walks to school. However, he deserves all the honor he can get, because of his double promotion.

THOMAS JOSEPH HANKARD—"Hank"

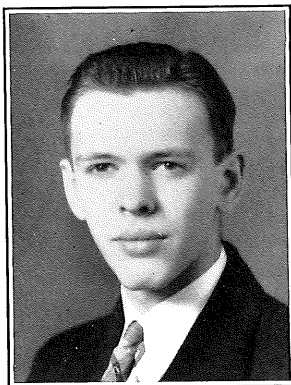

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4; Football 2. Never tardy. Southwest School.
Hank is a quiet fellow and seldom has anything to say, and when he does, he says it quietly.

FRANCES JOSEPHINE HANUS—"Franny"

"As merry as the day is long."
Girls' League 1; Commercial Club 3, 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. Bay Path Institute.
Frances is no gloomy soul on the verge of black despair; she always has a smile which goes beautifully with her delightful sense of humor.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

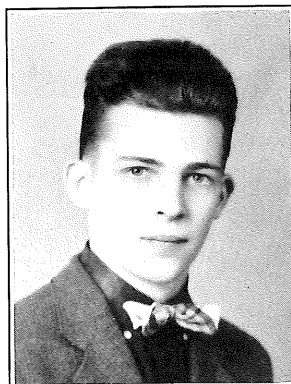

STEPHEN DAVID HART—"Steve"

"Still runs the water where the brook is deep."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 4; Junior Usher; Assistant Business Manager of Class Book; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Steve is undoubtedly the most obliging fellow in the class. His unimpeachable fairness, his absolute integrity, and his ability to enjoy a joke have earned him the respect of every member of the class. Ever sincere, Steve will go far in his chosen work.

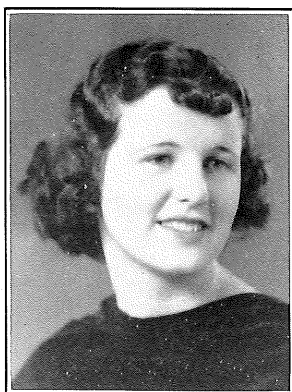

NORMAN BORCH HASSELRIIS—"Hass"

"Be as you would seem to be."

Boys' Club 4; Tennis Team 4. No demerits; never tardy. Newton, New York, High School.

Hass was a boy who would certainly have been an active participant in school affairs except for the fact that he didn't enter Bulkeley until the second half of his senior year. Yet he swept his teachers off their feet by making the Honor List from the very start and made a hit with his classmates by writing the class poem. An interesting personality and a sense of humor have enabled him to make friends quickly at Bulkeley.

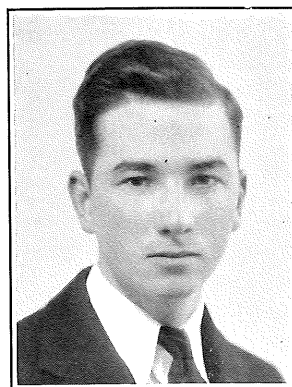

ELEANOR FLORENCE HARVEY—"Ele"

"Modesty is the beauty of women."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 2, 3; Girls' Swimming Club 3. No demerits. Alfred E. Burr School. Morse Business College.

Ele is very active in outside activities. She swings the baton at many outside performances, but because of her shyness she will not display her talent at school activities. Roller skating at St. Mary's, however, appeals to her.

RUSSELL WARNER HAYES—"Russ"

"You were born under a charitable star."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Baseball 3. Never absent. James H. Naylor School.

Although Russell is one of our quiet fellows, he is well liked by all his classmates. We know that he will lead a successful life.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

WINIFRED ELEANOR HAYES—"Win"

"Laugh and the whole world laughs with you."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 3, 4. Chauncey Harris School.

Win has a delightful chuckle which seems to inject cheerfulness into any listener. There's no doubt that she is a pleasant addition to the class.

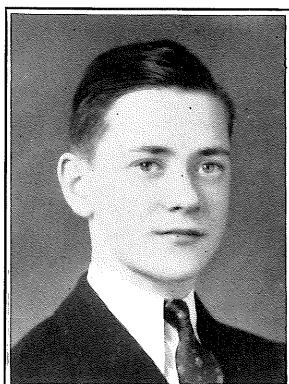

CLARA WANDA HERMANN—"Cooky"

"Her friendliness is everywhere admired."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Swimming Club 3, 4; Agora 3, 4; O. C. A. Complete Theory. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Morse Business College.

Clara was the blonde who often started a rumpus in 222 by bringing fudge to Mr. Daly. She also made the track team by promising to mend the boys' suits. Her talking in typing will always be remembered by the teacher there.

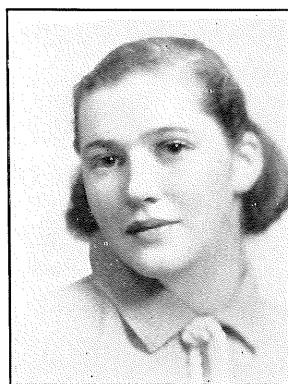

WILLIAM FRANCIS HEALEY

"There's nothing so unready as the readiness of wit."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 2, 4; Assistant Manager of Track 2, 3; Assistant Manager of Basketball 2. No demerits; never tardy. St. Peter's School. Teachers College of Connecticut.

William mixed nonchalance with wit and the combination was pleasant. Remember the fun in his College English 8 class? We do.

CLARISSA GREGORY HILL—"Deed"

"A favorite theory is a possession for life."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, Secretary 3, President 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 2, Assistant Manager 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Editorial Board of Class Book; Honor Society 4. Alfred Plant Junior High School. Sargent.

Only too well has "Deed" earned the coveted title of "Ideal Girl," for her own ideas and aims, so early started, have taken root. Even Trinity can verify this.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

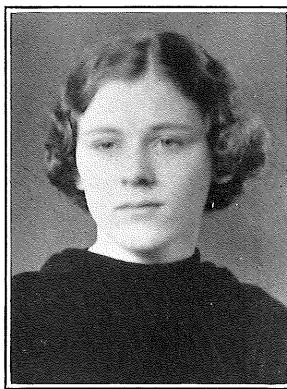

NANCY HODDINOTT—"Nan"

"Mildest manners and gentlest heart."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, Treasurer 3, Vice-President 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 2, 3, 4, Circulation Manager 2, Advertising Manager 3, Assistant Business Manager 3, Co-Business Manager 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Girls' Tennis Club 3; Honor Society 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. St. Joseph College.

Nan is an industrious little girl. She is especially busy Friday afternoons in the "Torch" room gaily overseeing or doing the work of the Junior members of the staff. We all find her one grand person.

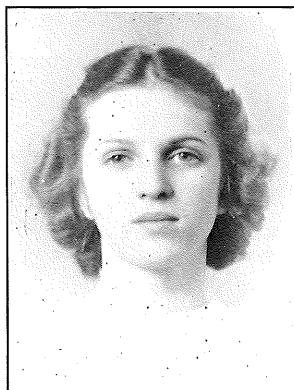

FRANCES IRENIA HOLLERIETH—"Fran"

"What sweet delight a quiet life affords."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 4; Commercial Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Bassick High School, Bridgeport. Hartford Secretarial School.

"Nice and neat, small and sweet" describes Fran. If you want the words to that certain song, just ask Fran and she'll not only give them to you but she'll accommodate you by singing them also.

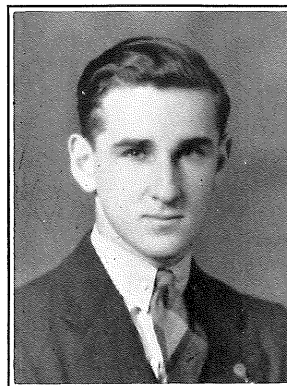

CHARLOTTE HOHMUTH—"Lottie"

"A quiet consciousness makes one secure in life."

Girls' League 2; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Camera Club 3, 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

There are some people who are more interesting than the best talkers, and Charlotte is one of these. Conscientious, industrious, and loyal, Charlotte has contributed much in her quiet way to the school life and traditions. Her happy nature makes a bright spot in the corridors on a gloomy day.

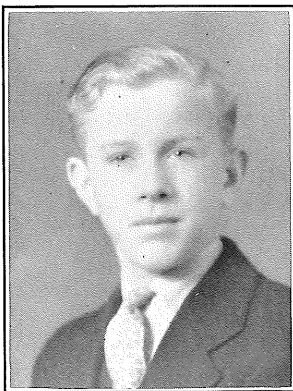

JAMES DAVID HOLLOWAY—"Jimmy"

"The mind travels where the eye does not see."

Wethersfield High School.

According to James our future is in aeronautics, and we agree with him. More power and luck to you, James, and here's hoping there is a "Lindy" in our midst!

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

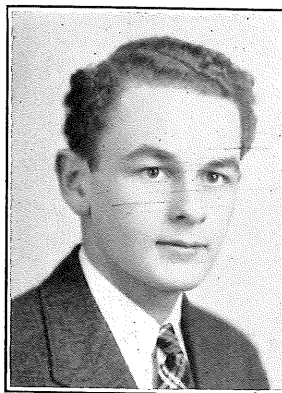

JOHN ARTHUR HOLLOWAY—"Mert"

"As merry as the day is long."

Boys' Biology Club 2, 3. Wethersfield High School.

To describe Mert's personality as cheerful would be inadequate. He possesses that sort of cheerfulness which is contagious, and his disarming personality has searched out and won many friends.

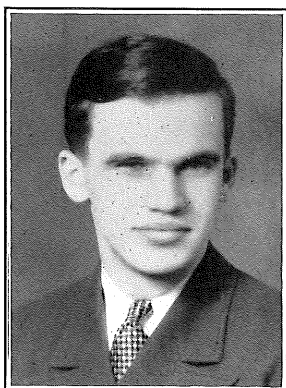

FRANCIS GERARD HORAN—"Fran"

"True modesty is a discerning grace."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 1; Orchestra 2, 3. Washington Street School.

Fran has delighted us many times with well-rendered selections on the drum. He is a happy-go-lucky fellow with a kind word for everybody and always willing to lend a hand. Smooth sailing, Fran, and don't lose that smile.

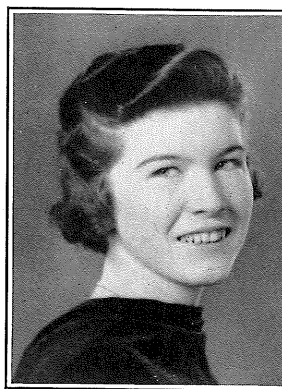

ANTHONY JOSEPH HOLOWIESZKO—"Tony"

"He is one who spareth his words."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4; Boys' Glee Club 2; Radio Club 3. No demerits; never tardy. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School.

We seldom hear anything from Anthony. We don't know whether to attribute his silence to modesty or deep thought. He is so modest we might well dub him the "Shadow."

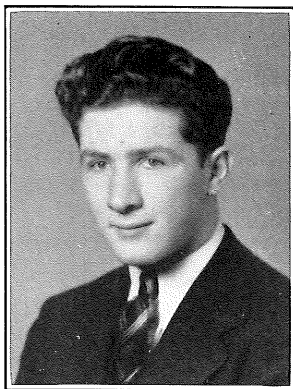

HELEN MARIE HORAN—"Peanuts"

"May you through life remain the same, Unchanged in all, except your name."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club; Commercial Club. Washington Street School. Marchant's Secretarial School.

"Peanuts" is one of those girls who are always ready to please. We were all proud to see that she made the honor roll. Best of luck, Helen.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

FRANCIS WOODROW HUGHES—"Bananas"

"It is better to wear out than rust out."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Marshal. Southwest School. Cincinnati School of Embalming.

"Bananas," although he appears harmless to the casual eye, is a great talker. He's like a Mack truck on a down grade, slow starting, but, oh my, try and stop him.

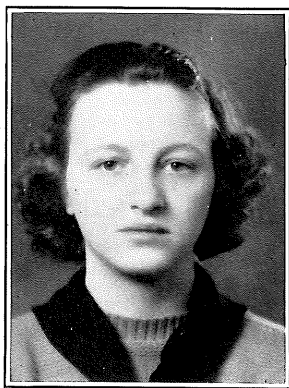

MARY ANN INFANTE—"Mar"

"Small, but nice."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 3, Room Representative 4. No demerits. J. H. Naylor School.

Mary, though always busy, did a grand job of keeping the girls well-informed on the activities of the League. We shall always have the warmest feelings toward her.

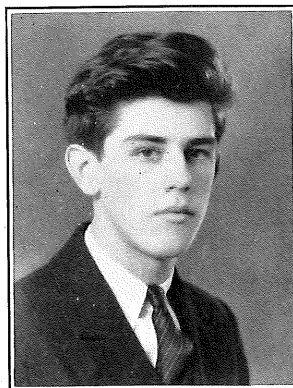

IRENE ALICE HURLEY

"A smile for all, a greeting glad,
An amiable jolly way she had."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps, 4; Student Council 2; Junior Council 1; Girls' Golf Club 4; Reception Committee 4. Never tardy. Southwest School. University of Vermont.

This quiet girl is a joy to any heart. We're certainly glad you were able to get to the library every day, Irene. What was the attraction, anything special?

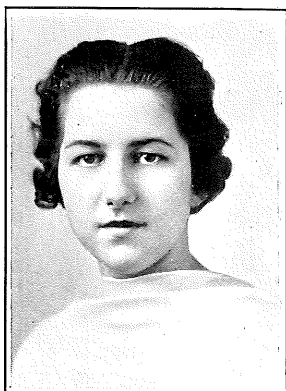

BRONISLAUS PETER JACHYM—"Bruno"

"Time hastens for no man. So why should I?"

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4. Never tardy. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School. Morse Business College.

Bruno was probably best known to his classmates by the leisurely way he strolled through the corridors. However, when anything ever happened, he was there, "Johnny on the spot."

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

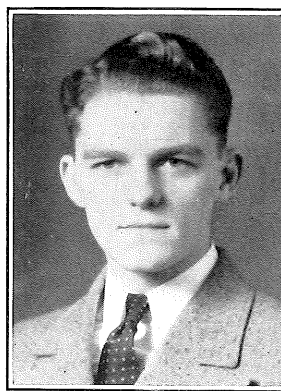

GENEVIEVE IRENE JACOBEC—"Gene"

"Wrapped in silence, so deep and still."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 3; Ni-No-Van Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Kickball Team 4. No demerits; never tardy. Chauncey Harris School. Smith College.

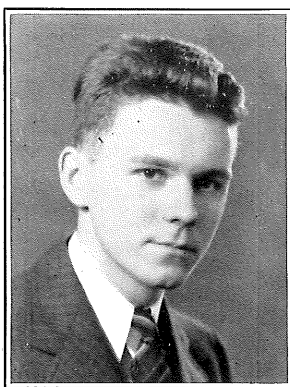

Genevieve usually wore a serious expression, but now and then we were favored with a smile that proved she was not always engrossed in her duties.

RICHARD JOHN JAWORSKI—"Dick"

"The mighty atom"

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 2, 3; Basketball 2, 3. Never tardy. Chauncey Harris School. Dick, despite his mere 135 pounds, was one of the best ends "Babe" Allen has had in a long time on his football squad. He was fast, and his opponents say as hard as nails.

CHARLES JOSEPH JAWORSKI—"Chas"

"Nothing so great as the artist."

A. A. 2, 3; Boys' Club 3; Art Club 3, 4, Secretary 3, President 4; Art Editor of "Torch" and "Dial" 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Indoor Table Tennis Club 4; Treasurer 4; Tennis Team 3. Never tardy. Chauncey Harris School. Rhode Island School of Design.

Chas was famous throughout the halls of dear old Bulkeley for his marvelous work in art. It certainly was a pleasure to see Charlie take out his tools and turn a drab linoleum block into a beautiful block cut.

GRACE ELIZABETH JEFFRIES—"Gracie"

"Taste the joy that springs from labor."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Camera Club 4, President 4; Commercial Club 3. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Chauncey Harris School.

Grace is one of the most industrious girls in the class. She finds time to take different courses outside of school and still keep up her marks.

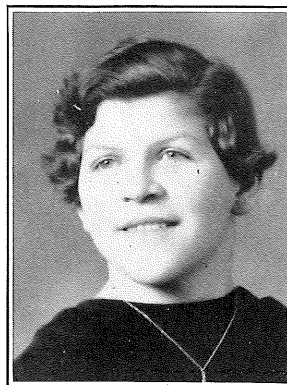

HAZEL HELEN JEFFRIES—"Jeff"

"Good company makes the way seem shorter."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Biology Club 2, 3, 4; Radio Club 3, 4; Senior Orchestra 2, 3, 4. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Chauncey Harris School. Waterbury Training School.

Hazel divides her time among Biology Club, orchestra, and studies. She's making a double in order to graduate with our class, too.

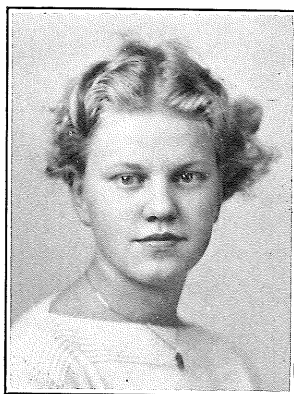

SOPHIE BEVERLY JEPEAL—"Zush"

"She seems so meek and demure."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Agora 4; Ni-No-Van Club 4; Commercial Club; "Dial" Typing Staff 4. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. Hartford Secretarial School.

Sophie is one whom the boys can't put anything over on. She's always alert and ready with an "Oh, yeah!" Though small in stature, she certainly fills a place in our hearts with her blustery good nature.

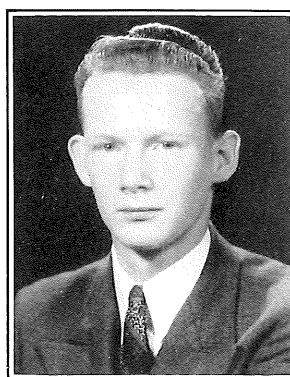

MARY PETRINER JENSEN—"Jenny"

"Never idle a moment, but thoughtful of others."

Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; "Dial" Circulation Board 3; Classical Club 3, Secretary 4; French Club 3, Treasurer 4; Honor Society 3; Color and Motto Committee. Southwest School. Mount Holyoke.

Mary, though proud of her own ability to make the grade, is always ready to aid the less brilliant members of the class. We know her life will be as successful as her high school career.

HAROLD GILNOUR JOHNSON—"Red"

"How beautiful the blush."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Class Treasurer 4. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School. Trinity College.

"Red" had the unhappy faculty of blushing every time he was spoken to in school. He reminded one of the reddleman in "The Return of the Native," for wherever Harold Gilnour was, there was red.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

KATHLEEN MARGARET JOHNSON—"Kay"

"The sweet expression of her face."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Agora 3, 4; Student Council; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2. No demerits. A. E. Burr School.

A quiet girl with a beneficent smile is Kathleen. She is a good student and believes that it is better to study one thing well than a great deal in a superficial way.

FLORENCE ROSE KAHRMANN—"Carmen"

"Art needs no spur beyond itself."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 4; Art Club 3, 4, Secretary 4. Southwest School.

Carmen's artistic traits are shown by her hair style and clothes, as well as in her drawings. Perhaps this may help her to choose her career.

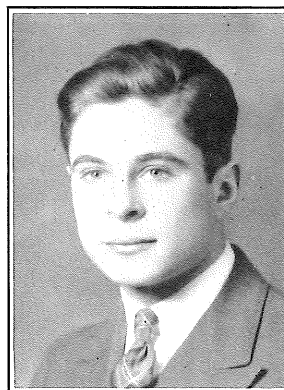

RUTH ANNA JONES—"Sister"

"Here's luck to you
What e'er you do."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Camera Club 4; Never absent; never tardy. Jefferson Junior High, Meriden. Salt Lake General Hospital, Utah.

Ruth is one of the Joneses who wishes to train for nursing out in the wild and woolly West. Although of a quiet nature, she is very interesting.

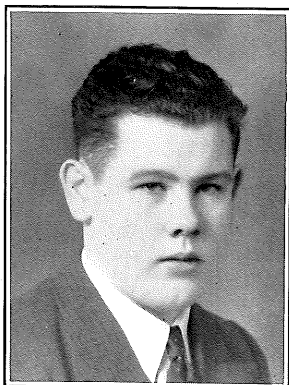

HENRY MORRIS KAPLAN—"Sport"

"Loquacious is the word for Henry."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Fifth Member 3, Vice-President 4; "Torch" Business Board 1, 2, 3, 4, Assistant Advertising Manager 3, Business Manager 4; Boys' Debating Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Honor Society 4; Co-Chairman of Junior-Senior Prom; Basketball 2, 3; Interclass Basketball 1, 2; Rotary Essay Contest Prize 3; Class Historian. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Henry distinguished himself in school by his numerous extra-curricular activities, but the thing we most enjoyed seeing Henry do was to get out on the basketball court and run around. O-o-oh, was he cute....eh, girls? Shall we ever forget his splendid display of debating technique at the debate between the Agora and the Boys' Debating Club?

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

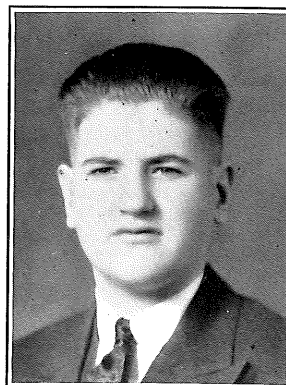

ALAN EUGENE KASPUTIS—"Al"

"Of science I am master."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3; Radio Club 3, 4; Vice-President 4; Edison Club 4, Secretary 4. Never tardy. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Al's interest in school centered around one definite thing—science; and he distinguished himself by his feats along this line. This knowledge will prove invaluable to you in later life, Al.

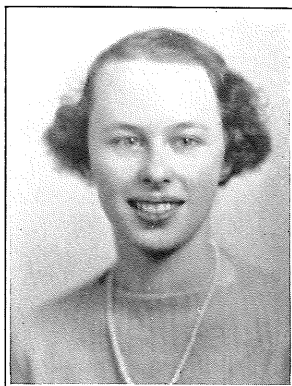

THOMAS EUGENE KEENA—"Scoop"

"With malice toward none and charity for all."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; "Torch" 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Parnassus 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Student Council; "Dial" Editorial Board 3, 4; Business Manager of Class Book; Football 1, 3; Basketball 2; Track 2, 3; Junior Usher. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School. Yale.

"Scoop" went through school with three prime interests—football, basketball, and the "Torch." To each of these he devoted hours of his time and still managed to remain an honor student in school.

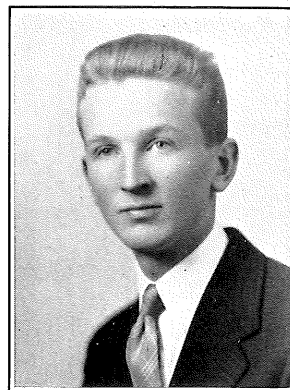

FLORENCE LUCINDA KEARNS—"Flossie"

"He listens to good purpose who takes note."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 4. St. Peter's School. Merchants and Bankers School.

Flossie is that dainty and demure girl who occupies the bench in the corner of the lobby every recess. Her quiet nature makes her a good listener—a trait very few of us possess.

WALLACE GEORGE KELLY—"Kel"

"Life is just a bowl of cherries."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Duquesne University.

Kel is one boy who apparently knew how to combine business with pleasure, for he seemed to get a lot out of school and still to enjoy himself in the classroom without becoming a nuisance.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

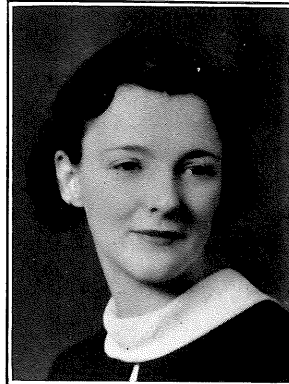

AGNES ELIZABETH KENNEY

"Their wants but few, their wishes all confin'd."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Girls' Golf Club 4.

Agnes seems to go for vacations in a big way, even though she has to miss classes. Nevertheless, she never fails to make up her tests and to do her best in them.

ANNE MARIE KILLORAN—"Buddy"

"We all pass certain stages of life."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 4. Hillside Avenue School.

Anna used to be quiet and timid, but lately she has been getting over this, and has become very popular.

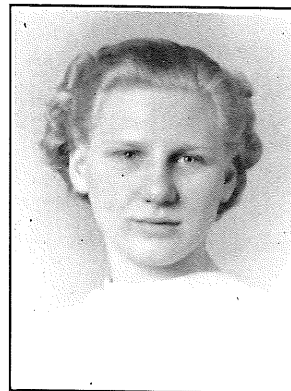

MARY CROSS KENYON—"Sprizz"

"The song of the lark brings joy."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir 2, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Student Council 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School.

Anything in the line of singing Mary excels in, as is shown by her presence and help in all the musical clubs.

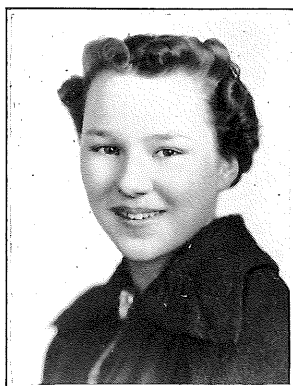

MARION FAITH KIRTLAND—"Chubby"

"Amiability shines by its own light."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 3; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4; Ni-No-Van 3, 4. Never absent; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School.

"Chubby" as a nickname and Faith as a middle name portray the characteristics of Marion. She is always jolly, and has never lost her school spirit.

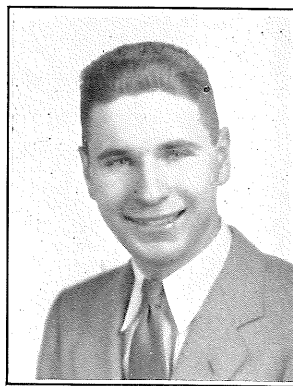

HILDEGARDE LOUISE KLAPPRODT—"Dee"

"Modesty is the citadel of beauty and of virtue."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3; Honor Society 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

Hildegarde's the kind of girl whom everybody likes. Her modesty and reserve are charming qualities which are much to be admired. She has obtained all she can from school, including both studies and friendships.

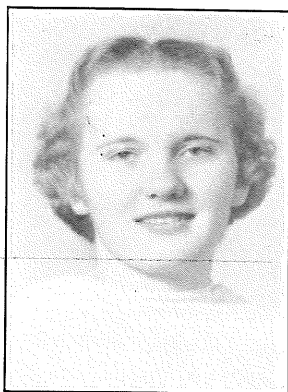

THEODORE ROBERT KURLOWICZ—"Ted"

"The manly art of self-defense."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2; Legislative Club 3, 4. Washington Street School.

Ted's ambition was, and may still be, to be the heavyweight champion of the world. His four or five attempts at pugilistic fame didn't turn out so well, but keep on trying, Ted. You'll get there yet.

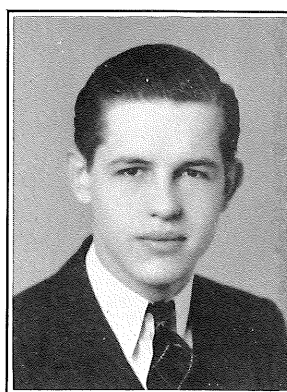

BERNICE FRANCES KOLODZIEJ—"Bernie"

"The twinkle in her eyes never fails."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 4; Agora 2, 3, 4, President 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

Bernie is one of those cheerful girls who are always willing to help others. We shall always remember her, especially, for her splendid work in the annual debate.

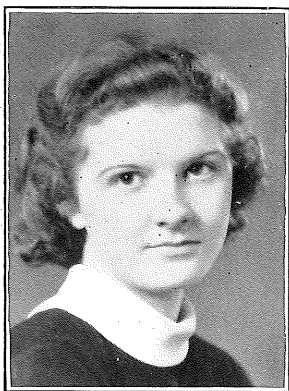

WALTER JOSEPH LACH—"Walt"

"He argued high, he argued low."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4; Edison Club 4; Boys' Debating Club 4; Legislative Club 4; Boys' Glee Club 4; A Cappella Choir 4. Alliance Academy. University of Southern California.

Walt spends most of his time arguing. He also enjoys singing, and promises to be one of tomorrow's great singers.

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

HAZEL MARGARET LAGERSTEDT

"The music that can deepest reach,
And cure all ill is cordial speech."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3;
Kickball Team 4; Girls' Golf Club 4; French
Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

Don't let Hazel's looks deceive you, for she is not as angelic as she looks. She's always a center of fun and is continually talking.

BARBARA LOIS LAMKINS—"Bobbie"

"She that holdeth our friendship."

A. A. 3; Girls' League 1, 2; History-Civics
Club 3; Girls' Swimming Club 3. Alfred E.
Burr School.

Barbara has a personality that is hard to surpass. She is always gay and has a smile for everyone. She is easy to get along with and makes more friends wherever she goes.

WILL ROBERT LAING

"For though he is a wit, he is no fool."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Boys' Swimming
Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Hillside Avenue School.

Although Will is a terror to his teachers, he is a pleasant companion to those of us who know him and understand his childish pranks and witticisms.

ANTHONY DANIEL LA PENTA—"Curly"

"The figure floats along."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Inter-class Basketball 3, 4. A. E. Burr School.
Morse Business College.

"Curly" displayed a remarkable ability to annoy people, and then getting back into their good graces by laughing everything off. The teachers found this to be especially true.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

ANNETTE ANNA LARNED—"Peaches"

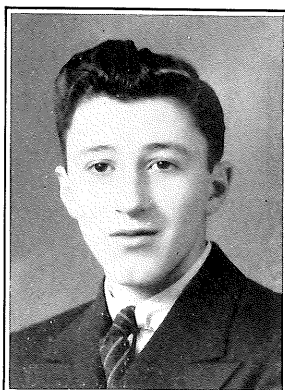

"Like—but oh! how different!"
 "Dial" Editorial Board 1, 2, 3, 4, Freshman Editor, Associate Editor 2, Assistant Editor 3, Co-Editor 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 2; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Dramatic Club 4; Agora 3, 4, Secretary 3, Vice-President 4; Scribblers' Club 3, 4, Secretary 3, Vice-President 4; Honor Society 3, 4. No demerits. A. E. Burr School. Hunter College.

Unique and original are the characteristics of "Peaches." She proved this to us by her interesting continued stories which were frequently in the "Dial." She is not only a born novelist, but also showed us that she can act as well, by appearing in "Torch" night in an Oriental dance.

ROBERT BERNARD LAVENBURG—"Bob"

"Witty, courteous, and full of spirit,"
 Boys' Club 4; Dramatic Club 2; "Torch" Humor Staff 4; "Dial" Business Board, Publicity Agent 4. Peoria Central High School, Peoria, Illinois. Morse Business College.
 If you want a good press agent, see Bob, and he will build you up to a big letdown. Nobody will forget his remarkable sense of humor, and the many times he sent us rolling in the aisles.

ERNEST GEORGE LA ROCQUE—"Ernie"

"There we live as merry as the day is long."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Art Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Track 2, 3, 4; Assistant Manager of Football Squad 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. A. E. Burr School. Pratt Institute.

Ernie is of the jolly, fun-loving type, although he looks very serious-minded while strolling along.

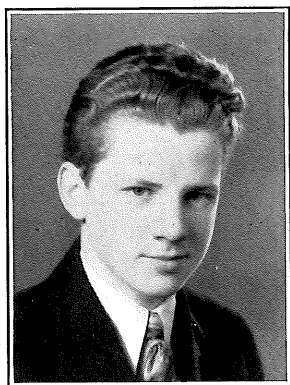

MARION VICTORIA LAZLO—"May"

"A comely one, busy as a bee."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Commercial Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School. Morse Business College.

A great deal of credit should be given May for her ability to think and do things by herself. Once she plans anything it is done, and always to perfection.

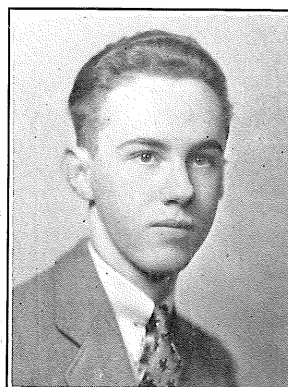

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

JOHN FRANCIS LEAHY—"Jack"

"His glowing personality warms the world."
A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. St. Peter's School.

Jack, the tap dancer supreme, the boy with the nimble feet and hot rhythm, is our substitute for Fred Astaire. We shouldn't be surprised if some day we saw his name in lights on Broadway.

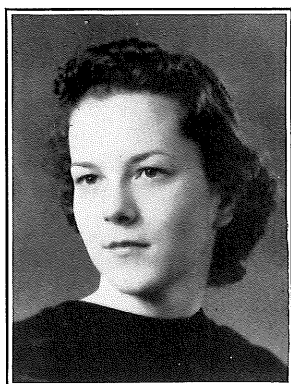

MICHAEL JOSEPH LE CONCHE—"Mike"

"All his work was kept a secret."

Boys' Club 4; Chess Club 3; Indoor Table Tennis Club 4. Southwest School. Northeastern University.

Mike's delight was to play the part of the villain in the English Class sketches. But, poor fellow, he was usually cast as the silent lover.

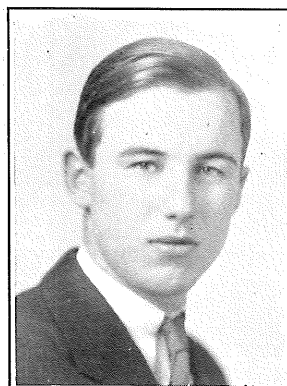

ANITA MARCELLE LE COMPTE—"Skeet"

"To lengthen to the last a sunny mood."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3; French Club 4; Agora 2, 3, 4; Literary Club 4; Scribblers' Club 4. Never tardy. James H. Naylor School. St. Joseph College.

Everyone takes his own stride in this world, and "Skeet" certainly has a charming way all her own. She believes that a light heart lives long.

GERALD THOMAS LEDWITH—"Jerry"

"He that hath knowledge, spareth his words."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4. Never tardy. Weaver High School.

Jerry spends most of his time minding his own business, a procedure that is warmly admired by his fellows.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

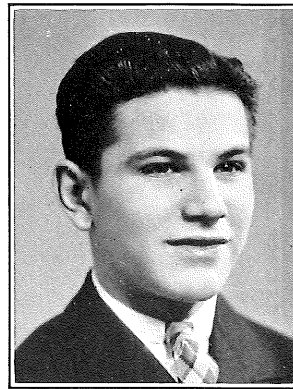

GLADYS LE GEYT

"Silence that spoke, and eloquence of eyes."

Girls' Biology Club 2, 3, 4. Never absent; never tardy; no demerits. Southwest School.

Gladys possesses a generous supply of kindness and sincerity and a pair of laughing eyes—the latter obviously contradicts that quiet attitude which she sometimes assumes.

NICHOLAS ANTHONY LENGE—"Nick"

"Modest and shy."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Parnassus 2; Boys' Biology Club 2; Legislative Club 4; Interclass Basketball 2, 3. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Quiet, soft spoken, dreamy, and tolerant are words that most fully characterize Nick. His smile makes us feel as if the sun had come out.

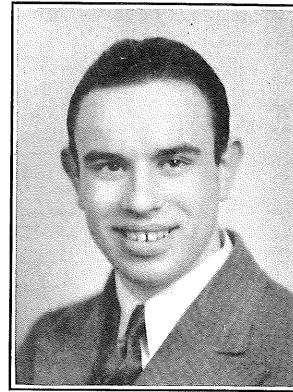

FLORENCE LILLIAN LEIBOWITZ—"Flo"

"Speech is great, but silence is greater."

Commercial Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Weaver High School.

Maybe quietness is the method for getting things done, because Flo is one of those who made a double promotion, leaving behind her a clear record of no tardiness and no demerits.

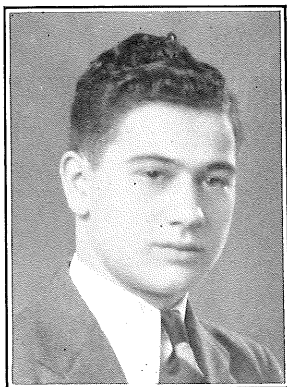

ROSARIO FRANCIS LETIZIA

"Reserve is best."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4. Never tardy. J. H. Naylor School.

Rosario may be quiet in school but he is just storing up his energy to use in the wide open spaces after the 1.45 bell.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

CHARLES JOSEPH LETTIERE—"Chase"

"The rule of my life is to make business a pleasure, and pleasure my business."

A. A. 1, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 4; Boys' Biology Club 2. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Duke University.

Charlie is a fun-loving lad whose antics have brightened many a dull class. A broad grin is one of his constant attractions.

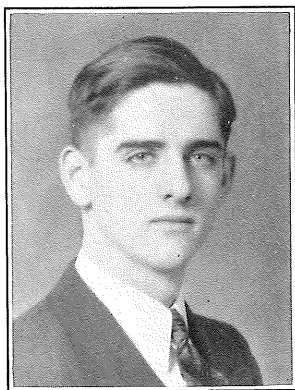

HARRIET FRANCES LEXA—"Sis"

"Self-possession possesses more than self."

Girls' League 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Hartford High School.

"Sis's" business-like attitude will certainly help her in the field of office work, as well as her ability to get along with her numerous friends.

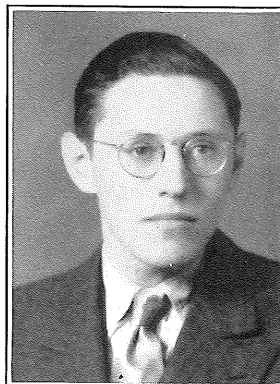

JOSEPH PETER LE VASSEUR—"Joe"

"He floats through the air with the greatest of ease."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Track 2, 3, 4, Letter 4. St. Peter's School. Loomis Preparatory School.

When we think of Joe we picture a graceful athlete soaring over the cross bar like some winged creature. He was not only a practically invincible pole vaulter, but a genuine personality as well.

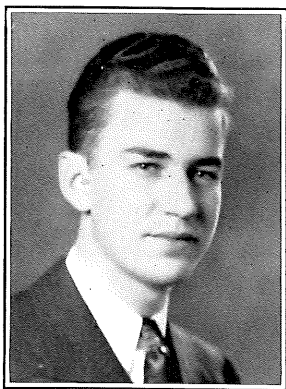

ALLAN LIEBERMAN—"Chick"

"A friend to everyone."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Indoor Table Tennis Club 4; Track 2; Assistant Manager of Football 3. Never tardy. A. E. Burr School. University of Southern California.

"Chick" always seemed to be a bouncing ball, most of the time bouncing out of one place or another. Yet he had no enemies and many friends.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

ARTHUR LEROY LISBON—"Otsy"

"Shy and bashful, with energy to pull forward."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3. No demerits; never tardy. Hillside Avenue School. Georgia School of Technology.

Art is the quiet sort of fellow who prefers to remain in the background. He took part in many school activities, but always as the power behind the group that was in the limelight.

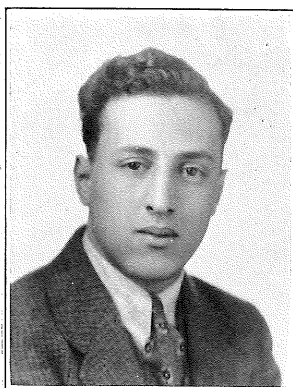

JOSEPHINE ANNE LOMBRUNO—"Jo"

"A gentle nature, kind to all alike."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Honor Society 4; O. G. A. Certificate 3; Theory Test Certificate 4; 60-word Certificate 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

Josephine is more often than not to be seen with her nose in a book. However, when she does show her face, it is with a cheery smile for all and a word of encouragement where it is needed.

PAUL JOSEPH LOMBARDO—"Curly"

"He was the mildest mannered man."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Treasurer 4; Boys' Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Choir 1, 2, 3, 4; Cheerleader 3. No demerits. A. E. Burr School.

Although "Curly" is small, he is very much a gentleman. He worked hard enough to make a double into the graduating class. Congratulations, Paul.

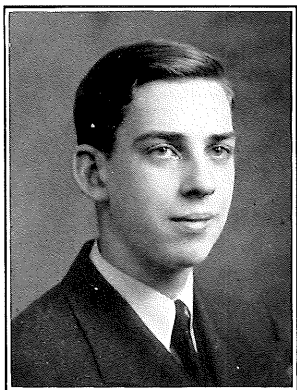

EVELYN MAY LONGMORE—"Honey"

"A maiden never bold."

Girls' League 1, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Radio Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School. Morse Business College.

Evelyn does not reveal all the good qualities she possesses. After careful study, however, you find her a quiet sort of girl with a sweet winsome manner.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

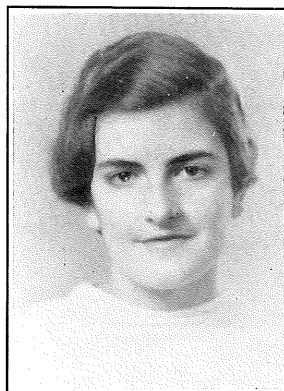

ALBERT CURTIS LOVELAND—"Curt"

"Always happy, always gay."

Boys' Club 1, 4. Southwest School.

Curt is surprised when he answers a question correctly, and laughs when he doesn't. He upsets his teachers, but delights his classmates.

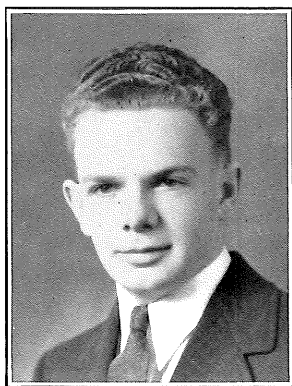

EDITH ANNA LUKO

"A quiet conscience makes one so serene."

Girls' League 4; Radio Club 4; French Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. New Britain High School. Bates College.

Edith is quiet and self-contained at all times. She is cheerful, and enjoys a good joke as well as the next person.

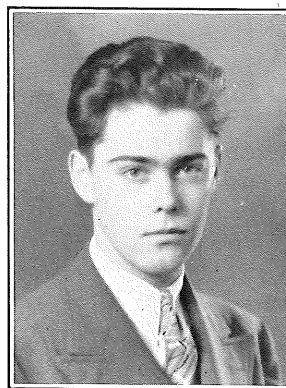

CHARLES ERNEST LUDKE—"Charlie"

"My mind to me a kingdom is."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Honor Society 4; "Torch" Business Board 2, 3, 4; Class Treasurer 4; Junior Usher; First Scholarship Prize 2; Second Scholarship Prize 3; Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award 4; Salutatorian. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School.

Charlie's scholastic proficiency has won for him the respect of all the members of his class. He is also a welcome friend to his select group of companions.

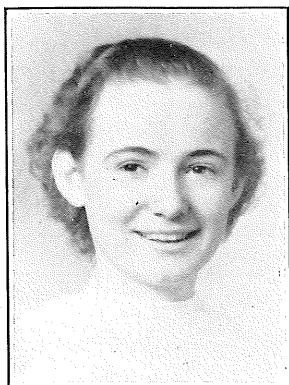

HENRY HERBERT LUSCOMB—"Herb"

"He'd rather lose his dinner than his jest."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 3, 4; Biological Repertory 2, 3, 4; Secretary 3; Vice-President 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

Herb is a big fun-loving lad whose pranks and witticisms have brightened many dull moments for his classmates.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

KATHLEEN GRACE LYNCH—"Kay"

"Little girls should be seen and not heard."

A. A. 1, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; "Dial" Tall Story Contest, first prize. Never tardy. Hartford High School.

Kay is one who would rather listen than voice an opinion herself. She is slow to criticize, but always ready to approve.

DORIS EVELYN MACDAVID—"Mac"

"Friendliness is all that's necessary."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 4; Dramatic Club 2; Girls' Glee Club 2; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Girls' Golf Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Newington High School. Hartford Hospital Training School.

Doris is quiet and 'self-contained, the pivot around which affairs in her particular crowd move.

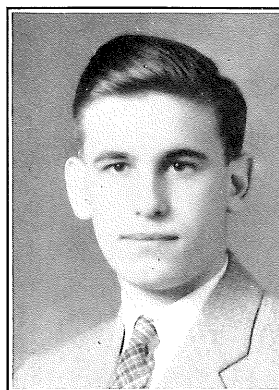

ISABEL ANNE MACAULEY—"Mickey"

"All of the world is pleasant."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4. Chauncey Harris School. Morse Business College.

A young lady with an unusual face and a really startling voice, Isabel should make good in her chosen work, dramatics.

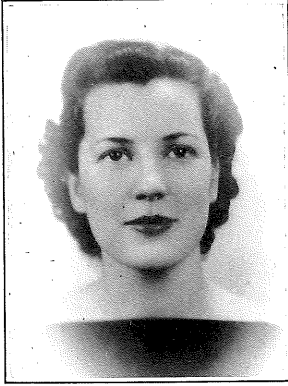

ROBERT RAYMOND MADAMA—"Bob"

"I am modest and true."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Honor Society 4; Boys' Biology Club 2; Junior Usher; Baseball 2, 3, 4, Letterman 3. Washington Street School.

Bob is a quiet chap who has done well in baseball, as well as in his studies. He is conscientious in whatever scholastic work he undertakes.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

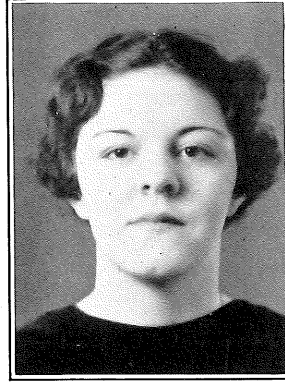

CONSTANCE ETHEL MAGNUSON—"Connie"

"Whatever is popular deserves attention."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 1, 2, Secretary 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3; Ni-No-Van Club 3; Commercial Club 3; Kickball Team; Senior Reception Committee. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School.

Connie has a devoted following won by a charming personality, and a way of helping people over the hard places.

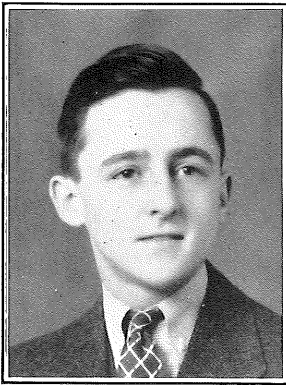

LILLIAN MARGUERITE MANNING—"Lillums"

"Love, labor, and laugh."

Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Agora 2. Never tardy. Windsor High School.

Those of us who are fortunate enough to know Lillian well can vouch for her sunny disposition and ready wit.

FREDERICK ANTHONY MANDLEY—"Fred"

"Quiet of mien and movement."

Boys' Club 1; Art Club 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School. Pratt Institute.

Fred is one of the several artists of our class. Perhaps the moments he dreaded most in school were those in his French Class.

MARIE ANTOINETTE MARADEI—"Ree"

"Diligence increases the fruit of toil."

Girls' League Room Representative 1, 2, 3, 4; Agora 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1, 2; "Dial" Typing Staff 4; Girls' Golf Club 4; Honor Society 3, 4; Gregg Transcription Test, 60 and 80 words. No demerits; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. Teachers College of Connecticut.

Quiet, friendly, reserved, and of sweet disposition, Marie is one of the people who add so tremendously to the prestige of Bulkeley High. If it be true that those who persevere are the winners, Marie should reach the goal in advance of her contemporaries.

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

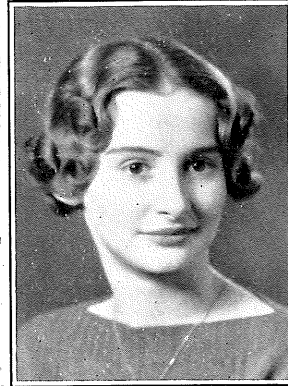

EMANUELA FRANCES MARASCIA—"Nellie"

"Not much talk; a great sweet silence."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 1; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 4; Kickball Team 4. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

Nellie is inclined to keep her own counsel, but, nevertheless, she is liked and admired by her many friends.

MARY MARCELLA MARCHOCKI—"Mayor"

"Taste the joy that springs from labor."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Agora 2, Executive Committee 3, Treasurer 4; Honor Society 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; "Dial" Typing Staff 4; Second Scholarship Prize. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School. Connecticut State Teachers College.

Mary is always ready to shoulder responsibility or complete any task, be it pleasant or not. She treats others with the warmth which is naturally hers and gains confidence and admiration in return.

MARIA ADELE MARCHETTI—"Rio"

"A silent tongue seeks no trouble."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 4; Girls' Glee Club 1, 2; Art Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Girls' Golf Club 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Senior Classroom Treasurer 4; First Prize Art Scholarship. No demerits; never tardy. Hartford High School.

Everybody likes a quiet, dependable girl whom you can trust, and that describes Maria perfectly. It's certain that she will meet with success in whatever she attempts.

JEANNE ANGELA MARINO—"Janee"

"Silence is more musical than a song."

Commercial Club 3, 4; Camera Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Radio Club 3, 4. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Washington Street School.

Jenny clings to the old motto, "Silence is golden." At the right moment, however, it becomes apparent that she can speak and has something to say which is worth-while.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

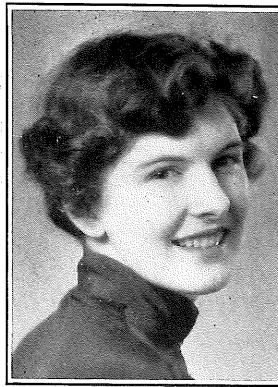

GRACE MARKMAN—"Gracie"

"Fortune follows the industrious."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Classical Club 3; Vice-President 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Girls' Golf Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Honor Society 4; Gregg Transcription Test 50 words a minute. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School. Radcliffe.

Grace is a girl who attends to her studies before she indulges in sports or other more pleasurable pastimes—a conscientious girl.

INABELLE THEODORA MARTEL—"Teddy"

"A sunny disposition."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Literary Club 2; Girls' Glee Club 1; Agora 4; Associate Editor of "Torch" 4. No demerits. Hartford High School. Antioch.

Teddy believes that a soft voice is a good quality among women. We shall not forget her petite "Hello" and the meaningful smile with which we are greeted so often. When Teddy has once made friends, she is sure to keep them.

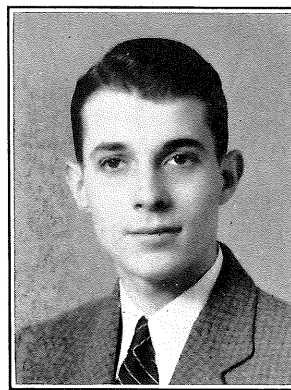

DORIS ALTHEA MARSHALL—"Dor"

"Quiet and efficient."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Art Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Literary Club 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Chaffee School. Smith College.

Respected by her teachers, honored by her classmates, and well-liked by her intimate friends, Doris leaves a gap in school which cannot be readily filled, for there are not many girls like her.

LEVERETT ARTHUR MARTEL—"Marty"

"The greatest of faults, I should say, is to be conscious of none."

Boys' Club 3, 4; Boys' Debating Club 3, 4; Vice-President 4; Senior Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; President 4; "Dial" Business Board 3; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4; Legislative Club 3; Color and Motto Committee. Maplewood School. Carnegie Institute of Technology.

It seems that arrogance is Marty's middle name, but perhaps because this propensity is so common to us all, we have been able to tolerate Marty. Regardless of this failing, however, he has won many friends in Bulkeley.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

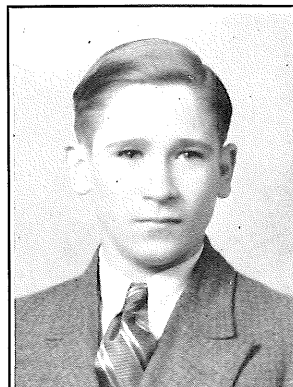

LENA MARTELLO—"Lee"

"A very quiet, orderly, and industrious person."

Girls' League 4; History-Civics Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. James Talcott Junior High School.

Lena exerts herself most in helping others. Conscientious about her studies, loyal to her friends, and deeply interested in scholastic activities, she must needs leave a sad vacancy when she departs from Bulkeley.

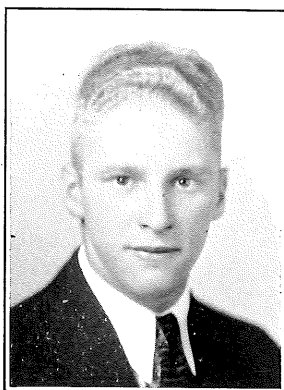

THOMAS EDWARD MARTIN—"Shorty"

"Small men are men of power."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 4; Art Club 4. Southwest School. Pratt Institute.

Tommy may be small, but he has always managed to make himself known. He may also be classed with the better artists of Bulkeley.

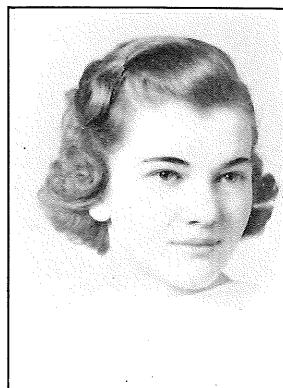

STANLEY RHOME MARTIN—"Red"

"His hair is red."

Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Football 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School. Pratt Institute.

Stan is one fellow we know who is capable of taking care of himself in more ways than one. We know he has a good lead on the right track, and wish him luck in following it.

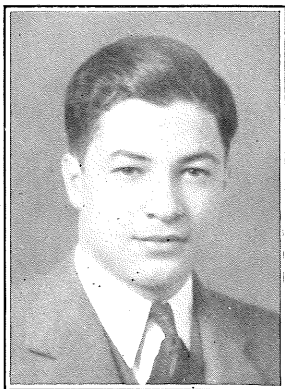

EMILY IRENE MASIUK—"Pete"

"Learning by study must be won."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2. No demerits; never tardy. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School.

Emily is exceedingly studious and little is known about her for that reason. She is amiable and friendly, but very shy.

JEREMIAH JOHN MASSARO—"Jerry"

"A calm young man."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4. Washington Street School.

Jerry keeps calm and collected regardless of what he is doing. Although he hasn't mingled with the class as a whole, he is a very likable chap.

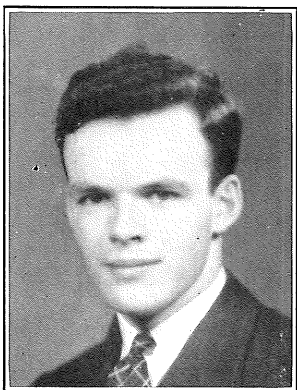

JEANETTE ANN MAZUREK—"Janie"

"Reserve is the truest expression of respect."

History-Civics Club 4; Commercial Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. S. S. Cyril & Methodius School.

Jeanette is rather quiet and reserved, but we have heard many times that she usually can find the missing answers.

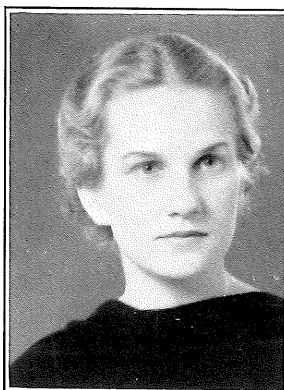

RICHARD GREGORY MATTHEWS—"Dick"

"A light heart lives long."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Indoor Table Tennis Club 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Holy Cross.

Dick slipped out of our class for a while, but we are happy to have him with us again. Dick is a good sport and a true friend.

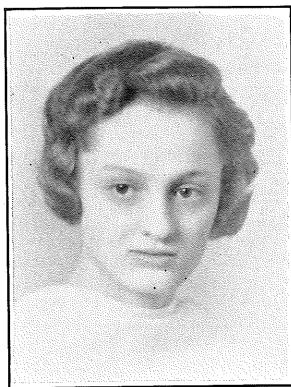

RUTH DOLORES MCCARTHY—"Rudie"

"There is majesty in simplicity."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club. Never absent. William Hall High School.

Rudie has been one of the reticent members of our class, but in spite of her reserve everyone has enjoyed her companionship.

DORIS LORRAINE McCREERY—"Dot"

"Nothing is more careful than silence."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Girls' League 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Student Council 1, 2, Secretary 1, Vice-President 2; "Dial" Business Board 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits; never tardy. Manchester High School. Connecticut State College.

Dot has been quiet while at Bulkeley, but has many friends among her own sex. She has been a loyal member of many clubs, and a very popular member of her class.

MURIEL COURAGE McGOWAN—"Myrt"

"She shines in amiability."

Girls' League 1, 2, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School. Morse Business College.

Little Muriel has won all our hearts by her friendliness and sweetness. She always has a pleasant word for everyone.

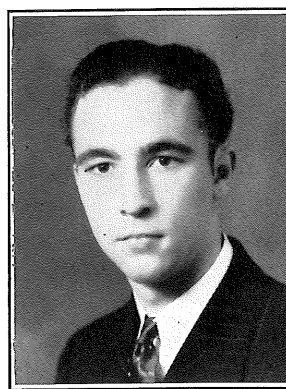

MARY ADELAIDE MC DONALD—"Boundy"

"A light heart lives long."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3. Washington Street School. St. Francis Hospital Training School.

Mary has a great many friends. She is very seldom seen alone, but is always in the midst of a large group of girls. We don't wonder at that, however, after hearing her talk.

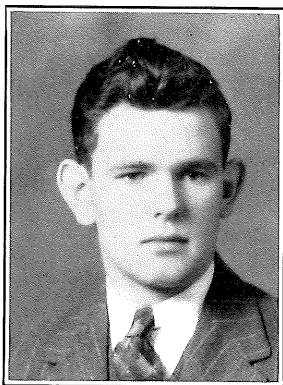

MILTON ROBERT McGUIRE—"Mac"

"Knowledge is power."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Student Council 4; Boys' Debating Club 2, 3, 4; Secretary 4; Junior Usher; Parnassus 3; Boys' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; "Dial" Editorial Board 2, 3; Junior-Senior Prom Committee; Football 3, 4; Letterman 4; Track 2, 3; Class Prophet. St. Peter's School. Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Mac is one of our brilliant, versatile scholars, who has manifested his talents not only in the classroom but also upon the football field. Milton is not exactly a misogynist, either. We are certain he will succeed in whatever field he enters.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

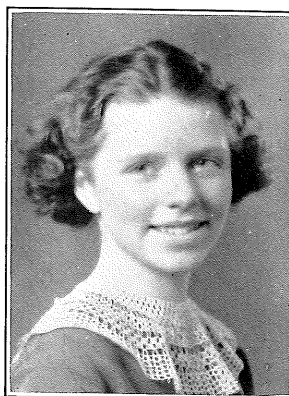

ROBERT GORDON MCKAY—"Bob"

"Thou likest to spread sunshine."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Usher; Honor Society 4; Inter-class Basketball 2, 3, 4. No demerits. A. E. Burr School. Trinity College.

Although Bob doesn't display himself too conspicuously, he has a throng of friends. He possesses a cheerful, good disposition, and has been noteworthy in scholastic attainments.

DOROTHY MCKRELL—"Dot"

"Sincerity is the Queen of Virtues."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4. Southwest School.

Initiative, reliability, and co-operation being among her characteristics, Dot should succeed in whatever field she enters.

MARY TERESA MCKEOUGH—"May"

"Smiling always with a never fading serenity of countenance."

Girls' League 3, Room Representative 3; Ni-No-Van Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4. St. Peter's School. Nurses' Training School.

Mary is one of our classmates who takes pleasure in helping others. She has a smile for everyone, and a very attractive voice.

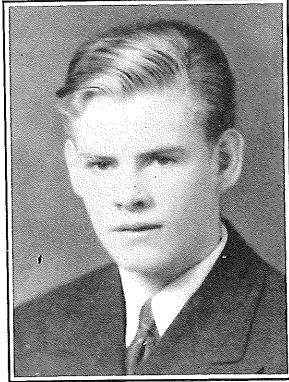

FRANCES HOPE MCMAHON—"Sis"

"No legacy is so rich as honesty."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Girls' Swimming Club 1, 2, 3, 4, President 3. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

"Sis" has a charming personality and is always ready to help a friend. We all wish her the best of luck.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

JOHN FRANCIS McMAHON—"Mac"

"Slightly cynical, yet he conquers."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3; Radio Club 2, 3. St. Peter's School.

Mac has really only one noticeable fault, that of disagreeing with everything said. We have often suspected that it was all in fun.

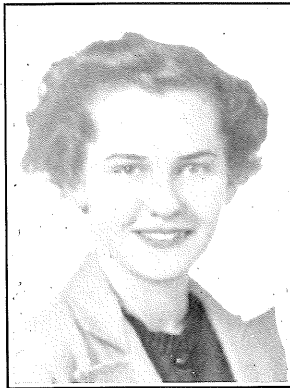

DOROTHY MYRTLE MEARMAN—"Dottie"

"The way to gain friends is to be one."

Girls' League 3, 4. No demerits. Wethersfield High School.

Dorothy is one of our quieter girls, but she has acquired many friends by her ability to say the right thing at the right time. We know she will continue this practice in life.

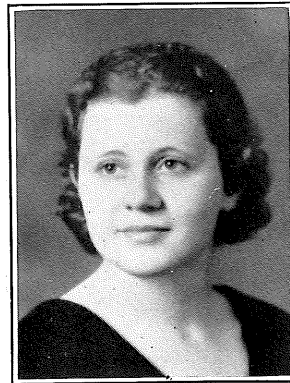

ELSIE LOUISE McMULLEN—"Ei"

"Still waters run deep; shallow noisily."

Girls' League 4. No demerits; never tardy. East Hartford High School.

Elsie is a charming representative from East Hartford High. Another school's loss is our gain.

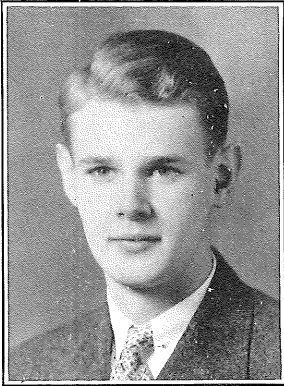

MAY VICTORIA MENCI

"I'm bubbling over."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Executive Council 4; Commercial Club 3; Scribblers' Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; Literary Club 3, 4; French Club 4; Student Council 4; "Dial" Business Board 2, 3, 4, Mailing Manager 2, Secretary 3, Business Manager 4; "Dial" Editorial Board 4; Upper Class Choir 4; Business Board of Class Book; Honor Society 4. No demerits. Washington Street School.

Certainly jealousy has no place in high school; so we have for May only admiration for her many triumphs and glories during her four years at Bulkeley.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

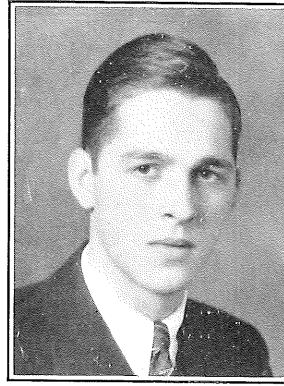

GEORGE EMERY MERWIN

"Gentle in personage, Conduct and equipage."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 3, 4; Parnassus 2, 3, 4, President 4; History-Civics Club 4, Secretary 4; Edison Club 4; Chess Club 3; Football 3; Track 3, 4; Honor Society 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. Trinity College.

George is a well-bred, intelligent lad, whose geniality has won for him a score of true friends. The book room has been one of George's favorite resorts.

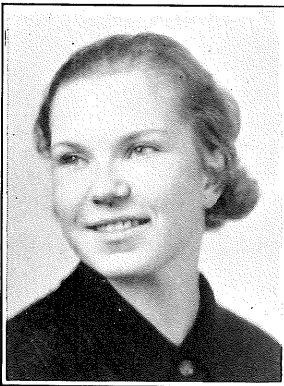

JOHN FREDERICK MILLER—"Johnny"

"A companion that is cheerful is worth gold."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Manager of Baseball Team 3; Manager of Basketball Team 4; Football 3. Never absent; never tardy. Washington Street School.

Johnny is one of those more or less forgotten men behind the scene—an athletic manager. He has proved very capable in that capacity. John and his sidekick, Ed, have enlivened many a dull moment with their pranks and witty remarks.

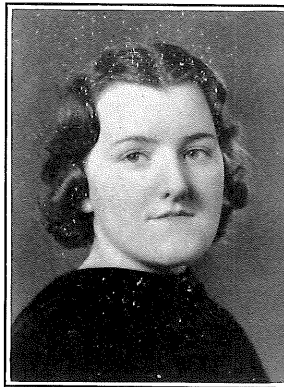

PAULINE WINIFRED MESSANG—"Polly"

"Silence is golden."

Girls' League Room Representative 2. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School.

Who is nicer than the girl who minds her own business but is always ready and willing to lend a helping hand at a time of need? Pauline does both exceedingly well.

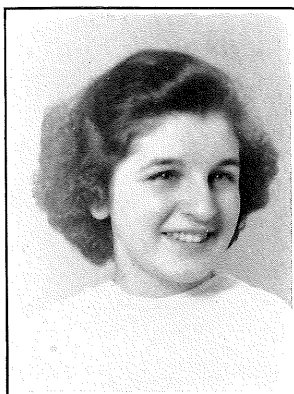

MARGARET MILLER—"Peggy"

"A good sport and a good friend."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4. Never tardy; Alfred E. Burr School.

Peggy has a very pleasant personality—she's an exceptionally good listener and a good conversationalist as well.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

ANNA CARMELA MOBILIA

"As merry as the day is long."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Room Representative 2, 3; Junior Glee Club 1; "Torch" Business Board 2, 3, 4; Assistant Advertising Manager 4; Classical Club 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Kickball Team 4. No demerits; never absent. Southwest School.

Anna has been very active in extra-curricular activities, as you can gather. Always genial and big-hearted, she often goes out of her way to help others.

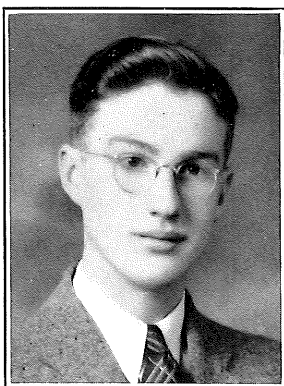

BEATRICE MARY MOLUMPHY—"Honey"

"Be courteous to all, but intimate with few."

A. A. 1; Girls' League 1, 4. No demerits; never tardy.

She is another of our red-headed women. Her red hair was both her woe and joy, but mostly her joy!

CHARLES JOHN MOLLOY—"Chas"

"A sense of glad awakening."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Junior Usher; "Torch" Editorial Board 4; Legislative Club 3, 4; Boys' Debating Club 2, 3, 4; Parnassus 2, 3. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

Chas is a delightful cross between a politician and a Don Juan. He's not lacking in brains, either.

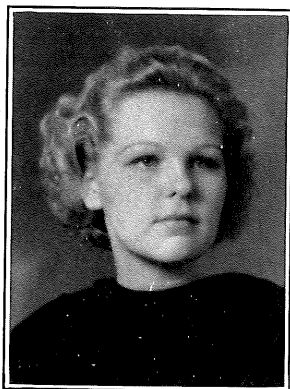

FLORENCE PEARL MONKIEWICZ—"Flo"

"Dance away sorrow; cast away care."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Chauncey Harris School.

Flo is one of our luckiest girls, for she is the possessor of grace in dancing and skill in athletics. Flo is considered a good pal by her friends, who really know her intimately.

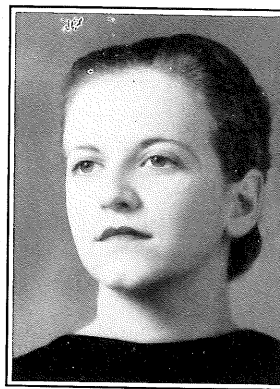

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

INGRID EVELYN MONSON—"Iggy"

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."
A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4;
"Torch" Business Board 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3;
Girls' Tennis Club 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1, 2;
Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Junior-Senior Prom Committee; Kickball. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. Miss Marchant's Business School.

Ingrid knows everybody and everybody knows Ingrid—for her sweet manner and gay flippancies win all with whom she comes in contact.

LUCILLE MARLENE MONTROSE
"Cookie"

"Variety is the spice of life."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4;
Choir 1, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Girls' Golf Club 2, 3, President 4; Student Council 4. Washington Street School. Miss Marchant's Business School.

Though petite, Lucille is literally bubbling over with pep, vim, and vigor. She dares to be different and succeeds, too!

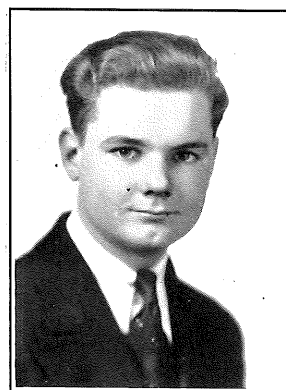

ANGELINE MARJORIE MONTANA—"Ange"

"Industry is the parent of success."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Literary Club 4; Commercial Club 4; "Dial" Business Board 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. Miss Marchant's Business School.

Ange always has a smile for everyone, but her taciturnity has had us baffled. Beneath this silence, however, one could find a real friend, helpful, loyal, and true.

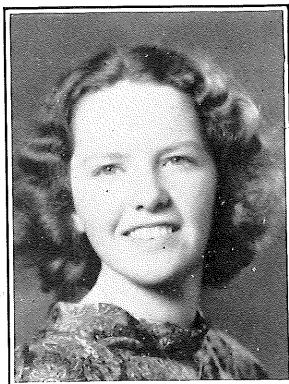

OMER WILLIAM MOREAU—"Om"

"The royal feast is done."

"Torch" Business Board 2, 3, 4; Assistant Advertising Manager 3, Assistant Business Manager 4; Camera Club 4, Executive Committee; Edison Club 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2, Business Manager 1, 2; Boys' Swimming Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 1, 2. Southwest School.

Om stunned us with his professor-like chemistry explanations. Some students learned more from him than they did from their books.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

CATHERINE PATRICIA MORRAN—"Kay"

"To comfort friends and foes."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; French Club 4; Girls' Golf Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Classical Club 4. No demerits. Durfee High School, Fall River, Mass. St. Joseph College.

Although Kay has been with us for only a short time, she has displayed keen interest in the clubs and their activities. It's too bad that you weren't with us sooner, Kay.

ELIZABETH MARIA MORTENSEN—"Bette"

"All styles are good except the tiresome kind."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Southwest School.

Bette is our cute little debutante who arranges her hair in so many attractive ways. Variety is the spice of life, isn't it, Bette?

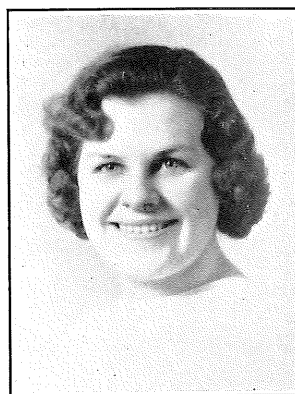

GEORGIANNA ELMIRA MORROW—"Georgie"

"A good listener is a good conversationalist."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 4. No demerits; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. Connecticut College for Women.

Georgie may not contribute much in class by speaking her thoughts, but she can do it better in black and white. She is a joy to her talkative friends because she is an intelligent listener.

VERA ELIZABETH MORTENSEN—"Toots"

"With a smile on her lips."

Girls' League 1. Washington Street School. Vera was one of the quieter members of our class, but her smile and pleasant manners were always conspicuous.

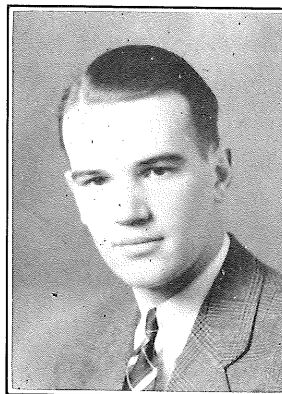

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

EVELYN JEAN MOSHER—"Ev"

"In the midst of things."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Girls' Biology Club 3, 4, Treasurer; Ni-No-Van Club 3; Girls' Swimming Club. A. E. Burr School.
Ev has been the inspiration of most of the Bulkeley footballers. Maybe it was that spic and span appearance of hers.

GRAHAM KING MUIRHEAD—"Gray"

"To one who stands six feet from the ground."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1; Color and Motto Committee. Never tardy. Southwest School.
Gray's deep, masculine voice and handsome countenance gave him the air of a duke. He should go far with these valuable attributes.

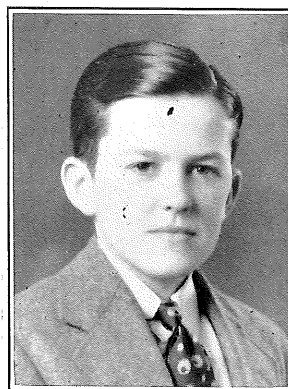

MILDRED THERESA MOTTO—"Mil"

"Rare things are best."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. St. Joseph College.

Mil never says very much, but when she does her friends sit up and take notice for they know it is worth while. That is why she never received demerits, and accomplished her duties on time.

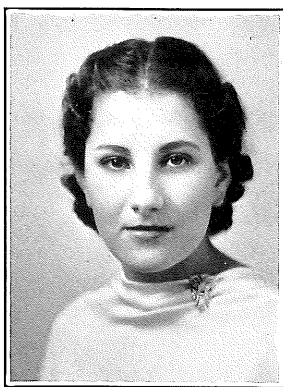

DONALD IRVING MUISENER—"Don"

"Yes, we do love him well."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3; Camera Club 4; Charter Member. Never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

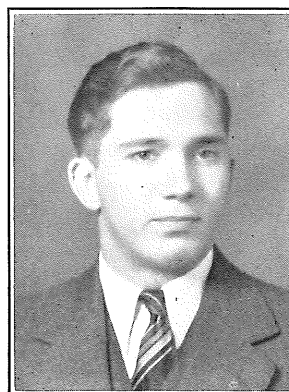

Don has been a great favorite with everyone since his entrance to school. One of his most delightful qualities is his subtle sense of humor.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

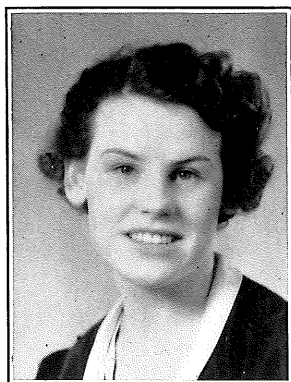

HELEN IRENE MULARZ—"Lynne"

"A maid of grace and complete majesty."
A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4;
Commercial Club 4; Never tardy. Richard J.
Kinsella School. Bryant Business College.
Lynne is courteous and good-looking, and a good dancer. Her dreamy eyes are apt to conceal her argumentative disposition.

BENEDICT FRANCIS MULL—"Ben"

"And yet we know that all is well."
A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School.
Ben always wore a sagacious look, but his innermost thoughts have always been quite a mystery to all of us.

MARJORIE MARY MULCAHY—"Marge"

"And jolly good company."
A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. St.
Joseph College.
Marge has always mixed well with her classmates. Because of her cheerful personality she has a large retinue of friends at Bulkeley.

JERRY NICHOLAS MURASSO—"Sockey"

"The thunder was silent."
A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4; Never tardy. J. H.
Naylor School.
A smart dresser and an easy talker, Jerry made a mark in this school. Keep on going, Jerry!

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

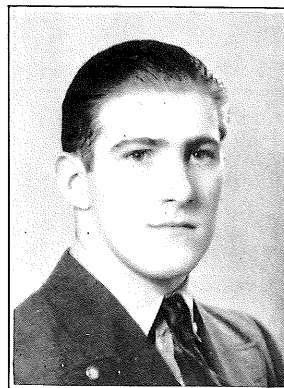

MARY ELIZABETH MURRAY—"Betty"

"My gentle lady, I wish you all the joy that you can wish."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' Club 2, 3; History-Civics Club 3; Basketball 2. No demerits. Hartford High School.

Although Betty has only recently entered Bulkeley, she has acquired many friends through her pleasing smile. We know that she will be a success in the business world.

KENNETH DAVID NELSON—"Pooky"

"As was mighty Hercules, so is he."

Student Council 3. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

"Pooky" is quite a Hercules, physically. We shall never forget his-er-gentle slaps on the back.

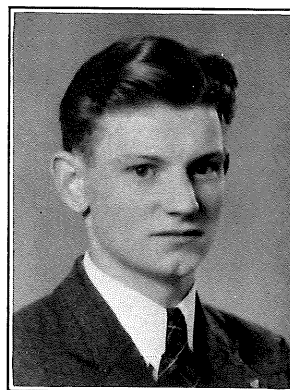

RHEA BLANCH MURRAY—"Ray"

"A little lady."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 4; Girls' Golf Club 4; Treasurer 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Class Treasurer 4; Pin and Ring Committee. Hartford High School. Emma Willard Finishing School.

Ray is one of the petite, lovable members of our class. Sincerity in friendship is one of her pleasing attributes.

CHARLES HUDSON NETTLETON—"Red"

"God made man in his own image."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Track 2. Washington Street School.

Contrary to the traditional characteristic of all redheads, Red was exceptionally cool and level-headed. We have found him a likable, easy-going person.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

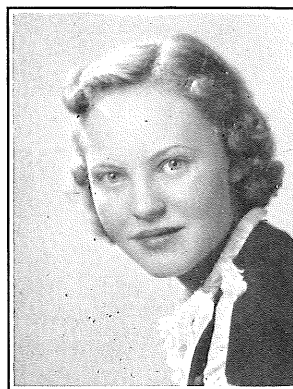

NORMA EVELYN NIELSEN—"Norm"

"Youth is full of pleasure."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4. Southwest School. George Vesper School of Art.

Norm is one of the more sociable lassies of our class; she likes the boys and a good time. It is not a rare sight to see Norm swaggering down the corridors trying to captivate the hearts of the innocent male Bulkeleyites.

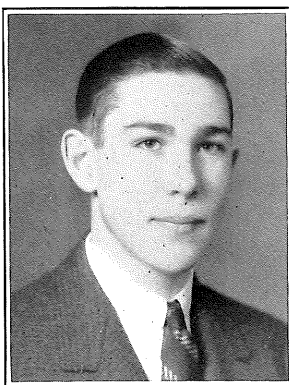

ELINOR EUGENIA NORDSTROM—"EI"

"Tiny little fingertips."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, Girls' League Room Representative 2; "Torch" Business Board 3; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Literary Club 3, 4; Secretary 4; Girls' Swimming Club. J. H. Naylor School.

EI possesses the most ideal feminine charm of any girl in Bulkeley. Most of us attribute this quality to her admirable naturalness.

RICHARD ALVIN NOLF—"Dick"

"He truly conquers."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Junior Usher; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 4; History-Civics Club 4; Track 3. Never tardy. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Dick has the uncanny ability to take confusing information, arrange it into an orderly sequence, and draw a logical conclusion. Consequently, he has been one of our abler scientists.

HARRIETTE PATTEN NOYES—"Noisy"

"No receipt openeth the heart
But a true friend."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Commercial Club 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School.

"Noise" usually indicates sounds of banging and clattering, but Noisy in this case means only the nickname given to a quiet and friendly girl.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

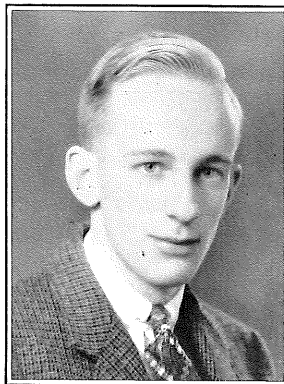

MARGUERITE AGNES O'BRIEN—"Margie"

"Be silent and safe."

A. A. 1, 4; Commercial Club 2; History-Civics Club 3. St. Peter's School.

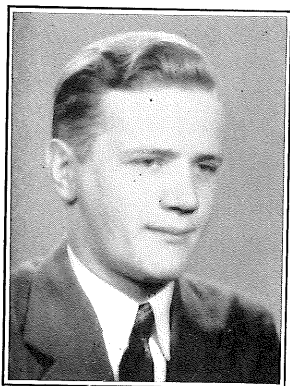

Marge always has a cheery word and a smile for all comers. As a member of our class, she has added much in the way of humor.

EDWARD GEORGE OLSCHESFSKIE—"Orf"

"Upset each cloud's gigantic gourd."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4. Southwest School. Orf just doted upon making subtle, witty "cracks" at the moment when the teacher was exasperated over one thing or another. The result—well, we'll let you guess.

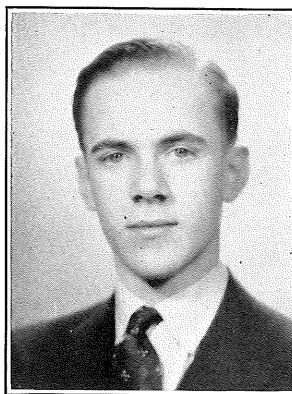

EVERETT HAROLD OGREN—"Bud"

"Gentle in method, resolute in action."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Southwest School. Morse Business College.

Bud always had a way with the women, and sometimes we got a little provoked over it. But you must admit he certainly had a fascinating manner about him, and was one of the snappiest dressers in the class.

JOHN IRVING OLSEN—"Johnny"

"Thou'rt gone, my handsome one."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club. A. E. Burr School.

Johnny's tall figure frequently graced the Bulkeley dance floor. How the ladies loved his blonde hair!

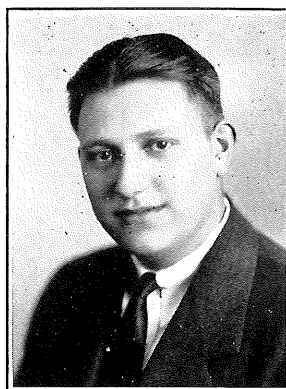

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

DOROTHY MAY ORVIS—"Dot"

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness."
Camera Club 4. Never tardy. Weaver High School.

Regardless of the fact that Dot had been attending Weaver until very recently, she has won for herself many friends at Bulkeley. We're sorry you were not with us earlier, Dot.

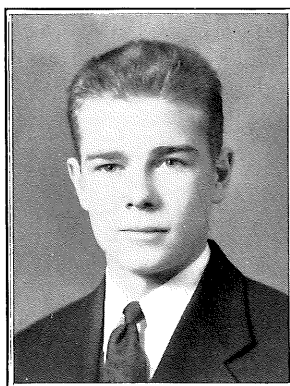

DOMINIC JOSEPH PALUSO—"Baron"

"He teaches altruism."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Boys' Club 1, 2. Never tardy. Southwest School.

Dom is a big-hearted fellow who thinks of everyone else. His smile has rescued him from many scrapes with his teachers.

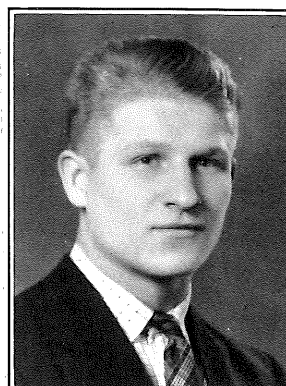

WALTER JOSEPH PALOZIE—"Pad"

"A good sport makes a good friend."

A. A. 1; Boys' Club 1; Biological Repertory 2; History-Civics 2; Boys' Swimming Club 3; Inter-class Basketball 3; Track 2, 3, 4. J. H. Naylor School. Northwestern University.

Everybody remembers "Pad" in Tiny Quinn's orchestra and although he usually appears busy he is never too busy to recognize his friends.

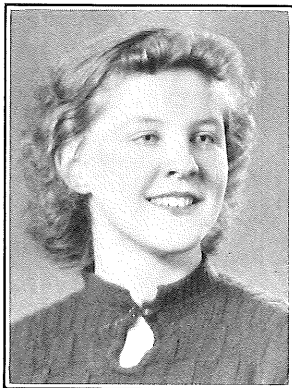

EDWARD KAZIMIER PAWLOWSKI—"Eddie"

"Great in council, glorious in the field."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4, Letterman 3, 4, Captain 4; Track 4. Washington Street School. St. Mary's College.

Eddie is a boy of many abilities. If he succeeds in future life as he has played football for Bulkeley, we know he will become famous.

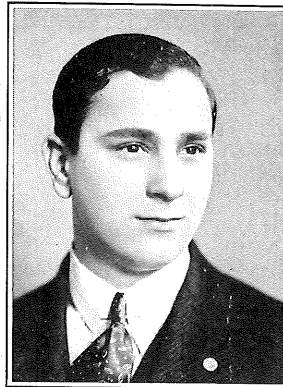

RUTH PRISCILLA PEARSON—"Scrappy"

"So wholesome is effort."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Girls' League 1, 2. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

We wonder why Ruth doesn't care to make more impression upon her male schoolmates; with all her poise she could certainly have done it.

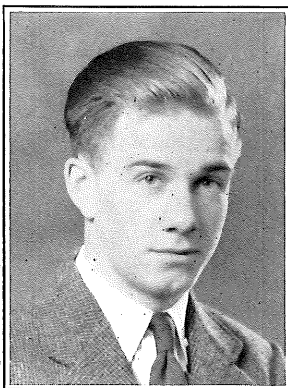

PAUL JOSEPH PETERS—"Pete"

"He is a marvellous good neighbor."

A. A. 1; Boys' Club 3, 4; Room Treasurer 4; Interclass Basketball 3. Never tardy. Brown School.

Pete always has a smile for every one he meets. He has made many friends while in Bulkeley and they will all remember him as "a jolly good fellow." He has more than once exerted his joyous spirit to the vexation of his teachers.

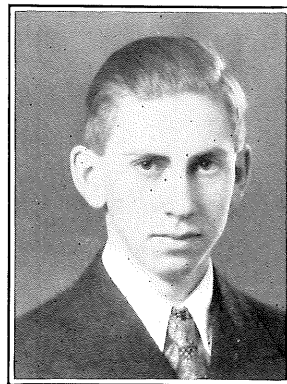

BRUCE STEELE PETERS

"A long, long road."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2; Football 1; Interclass Basketball 1, 2. A. E. Burr School. University of Alabama.

The past four years will probably be the longest that Bruce will ever spend. His one consolation is that he had plenty of opportunities to make "eyes" at the pretty Bulkeley belles.

ROBERT BERGER PETERSEN—"Bob"

"Man delights me not, no, nor women either."

A. A. 1; Boys' Club 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School.

Bob is quiet and shy, but he always seems to know the answer in astronomy. He'll make a good silent partner some day.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

ELIZABETH MARY PETRELLA—"Betty"

"Peace in earth."

No demerits; never tardy. J. H. Naylor School.

Betty is one of the few members of our class who were forever at peace with the faculty. She didn't receive a single demerit.

ANITA MARIA PETROSSI—"Pete"

"And feel pleasant, and amiable in sport."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3; Girls' Golf Club 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2. A. E. Burr School. Brooklyn Hospital Training School.

Pete is another of the girls graduating ahead of their class. We hear that Pete aspires to become a nurse. Best of luck, Anita.

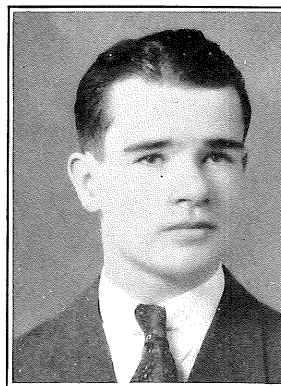

ELENA NANCY PETRINI—"Pete"

"Nothing is so popular as kindness."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; "Dial" Business Board 3, 4; Mailing Manager 4; "Dial" Editorial Board 4; French Club 3, 4; Secretary 3; Vice-President 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Treasurer and Assistant Director 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Class Historian. Washington Street School. St. Joseph College.

Pete's demure and gentle disposition makes her a welcome visitor in every circle. She always has a delightful smile, which certainly produces a cheerful effect.

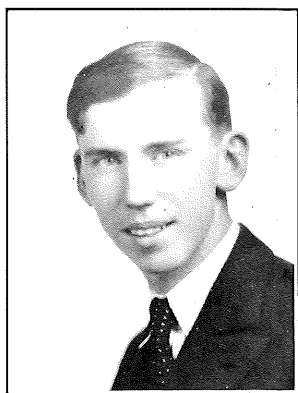

RICHARD CHARLES PHILLIPS—"Dick"

"Silence is the virtue of the wise."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Student Council 4; Co-Editor of "Dial"; Vice-President of Parnassus Club 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Dick with his quiet easy-going manner has gained our respect because of his capable management of the "Dial." Although he is one of the quieter members of our class, beneath his silence one can find a loyal, helpful, and true friend. We know that Dick will win renown in the future—his literary ability alone assures this.

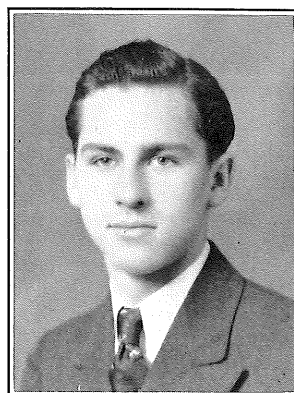

STANLEY PETER PIKUL—"Stan"

"There can no great smoke arise
But there must be some fire."

A. E. Burr School.

Silence must conceal great thoughts and such a lack of smoke must mean a clear fire is burning deep within.

JOSEPH STEPHEN PLOSZAY, JR.—"Lefty"

"Keep your fellow's counsels and your own."

A. A. 3, 4. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School.
"Lefty" is very silent in classes, but once outside he can challenge anyone in "loud speaking."

STELLA SOPHIE PIUREK

"There's nothing lost by being wise."

Girls' League 1, 4; Student Council 3; Honor Society 3, 4; Class Essayist; 1st Scholarship
Prize 1, 2. No demerits; never tardy. Kinsella School. Bay Path Institute.

We are very proud of Stella's scholastic record. Rarely is her name not found on the monthly lists. Since success comes to those who diligently apply themselves it should certainly come to Stella.

ADELAIDE PLUMSTEAD—"A"

"The ideal of courtesy, wit, grace, and charm."

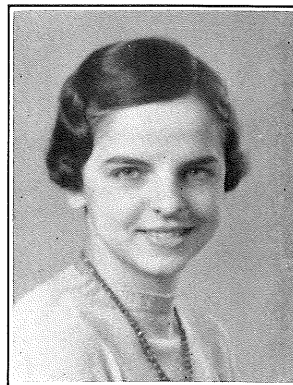

Southwest School. Laselle Junior College.
Adelaide's principal attribute is probably her sophistication. Nevertheless, she has proven to be a sincere friend to those who have had the pleasure of knowing her. She has displayed great scholastic efficiency, especially in her English classes.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

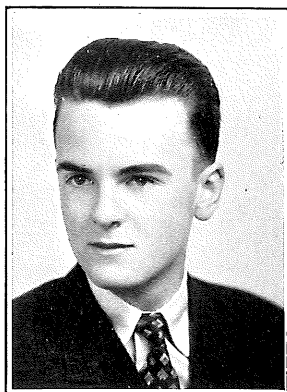

WANDA BETTY PORESKEY

"There is no wisdom like frankness."
A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Kinsella School.
If you don't understand your French lesson, go to Wanda. She will certainly sympathize with you. Wanda is known for the clear, frank tone of her voice.

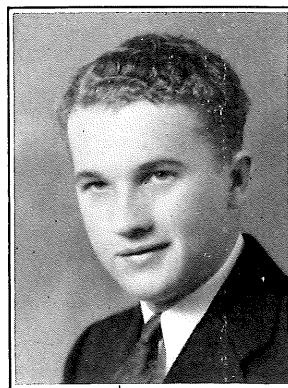

FRANCES SOPHIE PRENETA—"Nancy"

"She is calm because she is the mistress of her subject, the secret of self-possession."
A. A. 4; Girls' League 4. No demerits; never tardy. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School.
During the four years of school, Frances has been willing to be a looker-on, but she was always ready and willing to help when we needed her. Success to you, Frances!

GEORGE JOSEPH PRENDERGAST, Jr.

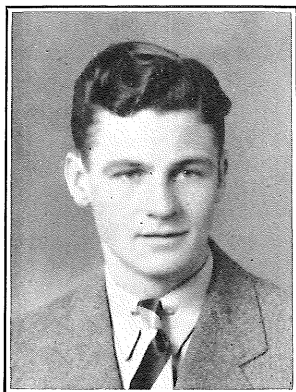

"He is rich in common sense."
Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Golf 2, 3, 4, Captain 4. A. E. Burr School. Trinity College.
We seldom hear anything from George. We don't know whether to attribute his silence to modesty or deep thought. George's amiable smile and courteous manners are envied by all his classmates.

ALBERT PRILL, JR.—"Bunny"

"Men of few words are the best men!"
Golf Team 2. Never tardy. Washington School.
He is not very noisy in school but our impression is that after "working hours" his stored-up exuberance bubbles out.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

GEORGE THOMAS PRIOR—"Lefty"

"Sigh no more, ladies, sigh no more."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Baseball 3, 4, Letter 4; Interclass Basketball 4; Class Marshal, Hartford Public High School. United States Military Academy.

"Lefty" and his handsome demeanor seemed to upset the feminine element about the school. He also has won recognition on the baseball team, holding down the first base position in great style. His athletic ability, coupled with his other fine qualities, will surely carry him to the top.

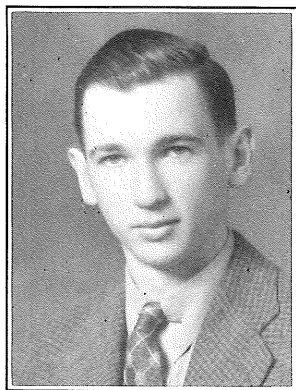

EDA DOLORES PROCACCINI—"Ed"

"The still sweet fall of music far away."

A. A. 1; Girls' League 1, 2; Junior Orchestra 1; Senior Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Inter-High School Orchestra 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Hartford High School.

Ed's outside activities are concentrated on music as well as on her schoolwork. She certainly deserves all the honor she can get, for she is a hard worker.

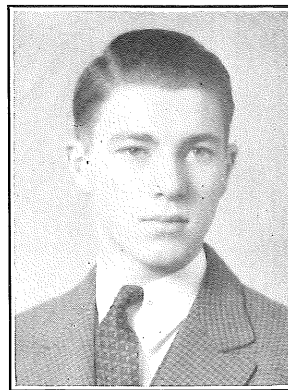

LAWRENCE GERALD PRIOR—"Larry"

"I am sure care's an enemy to life."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4. St. Stephen's High School.

Larry is a happy-go-lucky fellow with always a smile and never a care. You can always find him in front of 222 at Second Recess with his gang.

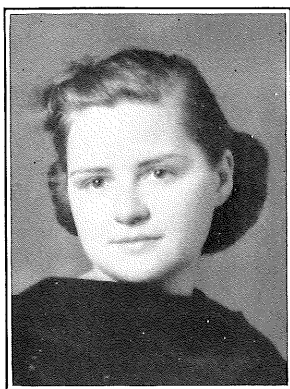

CORBIT TRUMBLE PROVOST—"Corb"

"Culture is one thing, and varnish another."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Parnassus 2, 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. Hamilton College.

Corb has an air of nonchalance about him that is hard to equal. Wherever you see Corb you see Art Smitten. The two are inseparable. Cheerful and cultural, Corb will go far in his life work.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

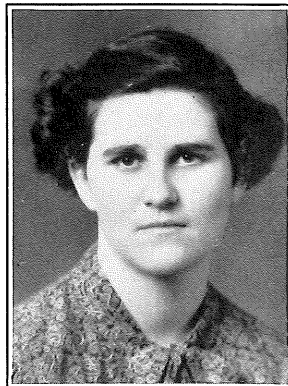

ANNA HELEN PUADZUINAS—"Pajoney"

"It is a friendly heart that has plenty of friends."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Ni-No-Van Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 4. No demerits. Chauncey Harris School.

Anna is a girl who is easy to get along with, one who fits in with your moods and never bores you. Her trimness in dress also appeals to everyone.

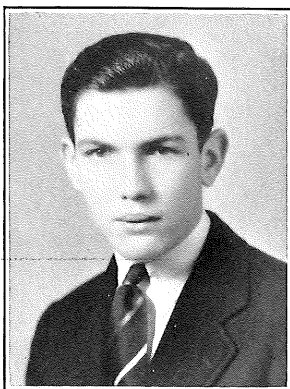

KATHLEEN ELIZABETH QUINLAN—"Cat"

"A good disposition is a quality worth having."

No demerits; never tardy. Immaculate Conception School.

You may be sure that there is something radically wrong if Kathleen greets you without her usual cheery smile. As you probably know, a smile of the right kind is a sure cure for the blues. This is why people like Kathleen.

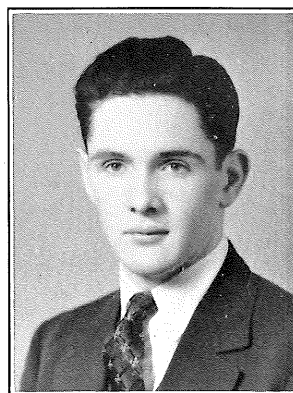

RUSSELL JOSEPH PYNE—"Twat"

"To a young heart all is fun."

A. A. 1, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Edison Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Chess Club 2, 3. Southwest School. Tufts College.

"Twat" always has that faraway look in his eyes, but does he know the answers in Miss Neal's solid class (or doesn't he?)! He has his usual prank to play on the unsuspecting classmate. We expect him to be a great banker some day, with so much experience.

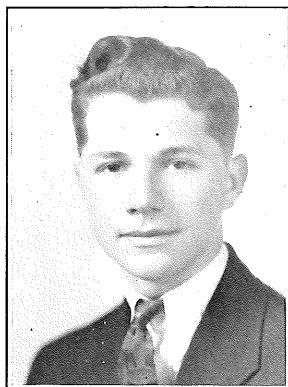

JAMES GORDON QUINLIVAN—"J. Q."

"He dreams awake."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 4; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Basketball 3, 4; Junior Usher. St. Peter's School. Trinity College.

If a prize were given for nonchalance and indifference, Jimmy would surely get it. He has always made a big hit with his classmates by his dryness and wit.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

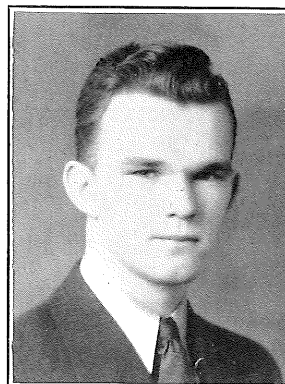

HENRY RAMENDA

"A modest man never speaks of himself."

Student Council 3. Never absent; no demerits. Easthampton, Massachusetts, High School.

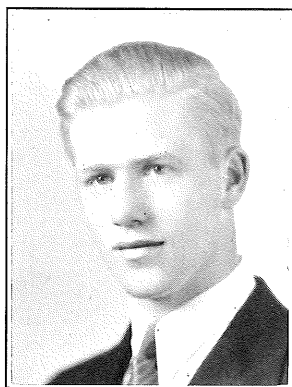

Henry is a calm, deliberate, quiet sort of fellow, zealous in his desire to learn and get ahead. We think he would make a fine scientist.

THOMAS GORTON RANKIN, JR.—"Mayor"

"He looked sleepy but his eyes missed nothing that went on."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School. There's no more regular fellow than Tom. He did not always have a lot to say, but when he spoke, he did so wisely.

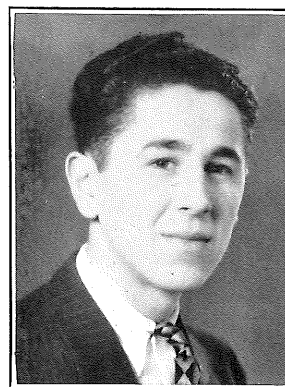

STANLEY HERBERT RANDALL—"Red"

"You've gotta have rhythm."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2; Boys' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; President 4; Boys' Glee Club 1; Interclass Basketball 2, 3; Track 2, 3, 4; Football 4; Intramural Basketball 4; Basketball League 3. A. E. Burr School.

One glance at "Red's" towering height and broad shoulders was proof enough of his strength and power. He was equally at home hurling the discus or weaving in and out on the dance floor.

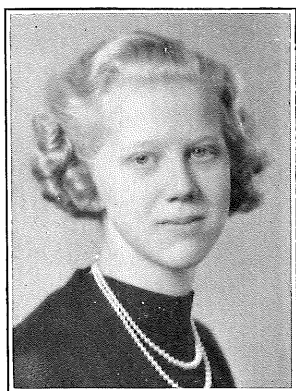

DANIEL JOSEPH RAYMOND—"Shakespeare"

"He had a head to contrive, a tongue to persuade, and a hand to execute any mischief."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2; Class Treasurer 4; Chess Club 2. J. H. Naylor School.

He has personal magnetism of the most obvious type. His oratorical ability and his light-hearted manner will always remain impressed on our memories.

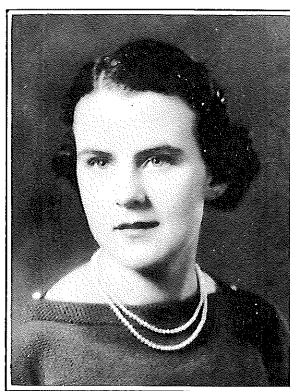

ELIZABETH ANNA REINHOLDZ—"Betty"

"Her hair like sunshine, and a heart of gold."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School.

Betty is the sweet girl with the blond locks. Friendly with everyone, her amiability is a by-word around Bulkeley.

MARGARET CAROLYN REMPE—"Marge"

"All's right with the world."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1; Art Club 2, 3, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4; Treasurer 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 3. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School. Smith College.

Ordinarily, Margaret is a rather quiet classmate, but she makes it up in school activities.

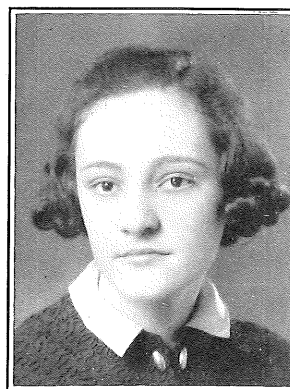

HELEN AGNES REKUS—"Elly"

"The charm of a quiet personality is yours."

Girls' League; Agora 3, 4, Secretary 3, 4; Honor Society 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; "Dial" Typing Staff 3, 4. Never tardy. Northwest School. Bay Path Institute.

Helen was never one to let down in her work. She is quiet and attentive, never losing a chance to show her ability.

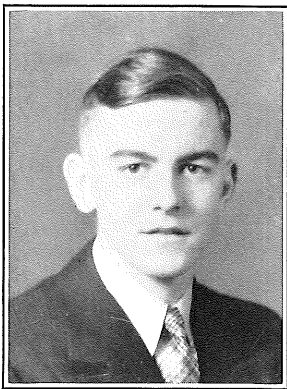

DOROTHY HELEN RESKE—"Dot"

"It is tranquil people who accomplish much."

A. A. 4. No demerits; never tardy. Holyoke High School. McCarthy Business School.

Dorothy, though she is the most bashful in our class, has many qualities we admire, especially her poise and courtesy.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

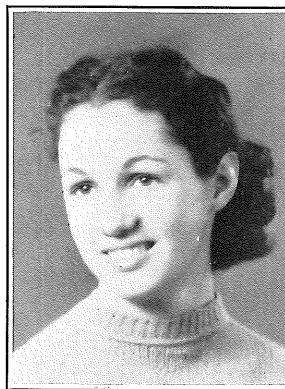

HARRY TALCOTT RHODES, JR.—“Dusty”

“A good pal for all times.”

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 1, 2; Biology Club 2. Never tardy. Southwest School.

Harry is the sort of fellow that nobody could help liking. His amiability and cheerfulness made him many friends.

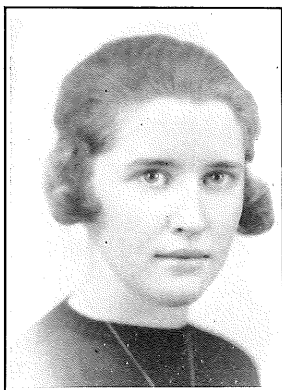

FRANCES ANNE ROATH—“Fran”

“I chatter, chatter as I go.”

A. A. 2, 4; Girls' League 1, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; “Dial” Business Board; Literary Club 4; Radio Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4; Girls' Tennis Club 3; Kickball 4; Gregg Certificate. Southwest School. St. Francis Hospital Training School.

Full of pep, vim, and vigor Frances is, possessing a vivacious personality, more commonly called “a gift of gab.”

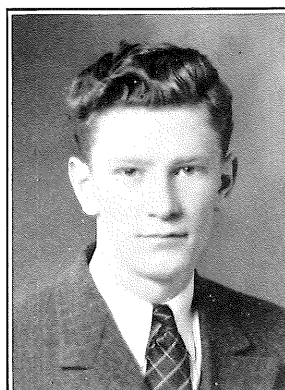

ISABELLE BERNADETTE RICE—“Belle”

“System is the keynote to success.”

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 4; Commercial Club 4; “Torch” Business Board 3, 4; Honor Society 3; Girls' Tennis Club 3, 4; Kickball 4; Shorthand Certificate 100 words. No demerits; never tardy; never absent. Washington Street School.

Isabelle has made a valiant attempt to become efficient in stenography and typing. We know her efforts were not in vain.

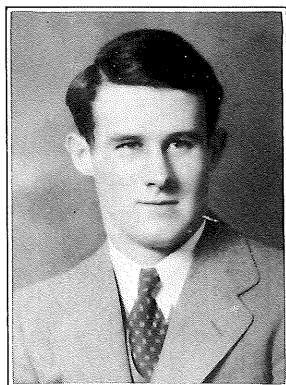

WILBERT JOHN ROBERTS—“Willie”

“There is sunshine in his smile.”

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3. New Park Avenue School.

Willie may be known as the “boy with the sunny smile.” His good humor and love of fun make him welcome everywhere.

WILLIAM JOSEPH ROBINSON—"Bill"

"Everyone admires a gentleman."

Upper Class Choir 3; Radio Club 3. Never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School.

Bill is the type of fellow whom you have to study deeply to know well. His reserved nature and gentlemanly qualities make this study worth while.

ALICE MARIE RODE—"Ai"

"Good company makes the way seem shorter."

Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Literary Club 3, 4; Classical Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Kickball 3. No demerits; never tardy. West Middle School.

Alice is a true and congenial person to have for a friend. She has made many friends here, and we know she will make many wherever she goes.

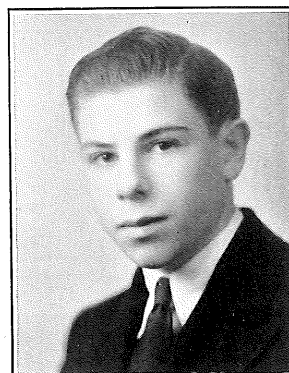

JANET MARY ROCHE—"Jan"

"Good things should be praised."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; "Dial" Business Board 2; Student Council 2, 4; Class Treasurer 4; Class Prophetess. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Southwest School. St. Joseph College.

Janet, with her sparkling wit and vivacity, was one of our favorite girls. She has been, indeed, a distinct asset to our class.

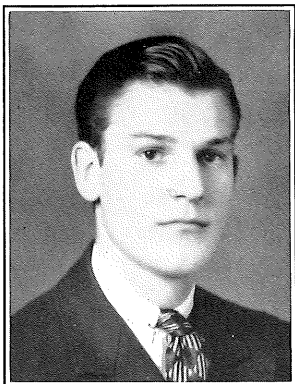

DAVID PAUL ROSEN—"Dave"

"In this man there was such a force of mind and character that in whatever country he had been born, he would have been bound to have made his fortune for himself."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3, President 4; "Torch" 2, 3, 4, Editorial Board 2, Assistant Editor 3, Managing Editor 3, Editor-in-chief 4; Legislative Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Boys' Debating Club 3, 4, Treasurer 3, Fifth member 4; Student Council 1, 2; Student Proctor 4; Junior Usher; Class Secretary 2; Honor Society 4, President 4; Class Night Chairman. Never tardy. A. E. Burr School. Yale University.

Dave, we venture to say, is by far the most outstanding figure in our class. His faithful and diligent service to his class and school, his fine scholarship, his magnetic personality and strong character win him this honor.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

FRANK RICHARD ROTHAMMER—"Fritz"

"Where there is music, there can be nothing bad."

Boys' Club 2, 3; Student Council 1; Senior Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Inter-High Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Intramural Basketball 4. Southwest School.

Fritz has a dual personality, the musician and the class cut-up. He was so entirely different in each role that we sometimes wondered if we knew two persons.

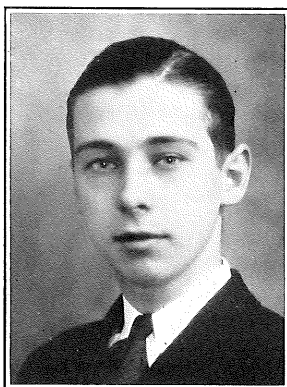

ELAINE ETHEL RUDOF

"All success be thine is our only wish."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Agora 3, 4; Classical Club 4; Literary Club 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Honor Society 4. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School. Brooklyn College.

Elaine is easily the most mature person in our class when it comes to reading, judgment, and thought. Her interest in the down-trodden people of the world is a credit to her.

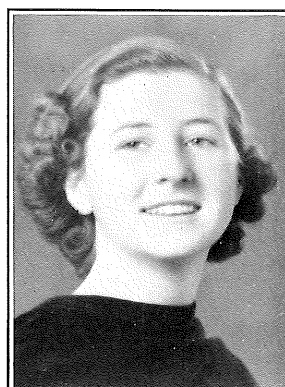

DWIGHT BENJAMIN ROY, JR.

"Joyfulness is the mother of all virtues."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4; History-Civics Club 4. New Haven High School. Tri-State College.

Dwight is a happy-go-lucky individual, who lets nothing bother him. His chief interest is aviation, and we hope that he will be successful in this pursuit.

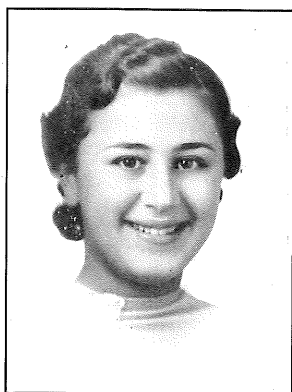

RUTH MARION RUSSELL

"The secret of success is constancy to purpose."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Girls' Biology Club 2, 3; Art Club 2, 3, 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Kickball Team 4; A Place in National Scholastic Awards Contest in Art. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School. Pratt Institute.

Ruth is very much interested in her Art work. She intends to continue it after graduating from Bulkeley. All success to you, Ruth.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

ROSE RUSTIGIAN—"Rusty"

"A sunny disposition."

Girls' League 1; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4. Never tardy. Hillside Avenue School.

Rose has a charming way and a sunny smile. From girls, she has gained friendship; from boys, admiration. A very nice person to have about, Rose.

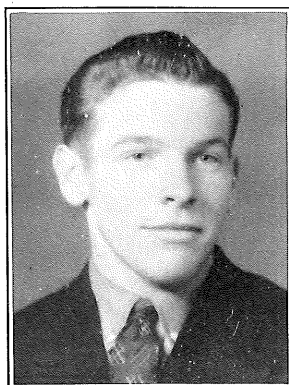

HELEN MARY SAKOWSKI—"Len"

"Friendliness is all that's necessary."

Girls' League 2, 3, 4; A. A. 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4. No demerits. Roxbury Memorial High School.

The presence of Helen is felt rather than heard. The smile which she uses to attract her friends has become popular among all her classmates.

WILLIAM JOSEPH RYAN—"Bill"

"'Twould take much to hold him down."

Boys' Club 2, 3; Student Council 4; Honor Society 3, 4; Junior Usher; Editorial Board of Class Book; "Dial" Editorial Board 4; Junior-Senior Prom Committee; Legislative Club 3, 4; Secretary 3, 4; Boys' Debating Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Biology Club 2; Chess Club 2; Track 3, 4, Letter 4. Southwest School. Trinity College.

Bill possesses a sturdy pair of shoulders, a long pair of running legs, and a scholarly mind. His sprinting form earned him the title of "the elboney antelope."

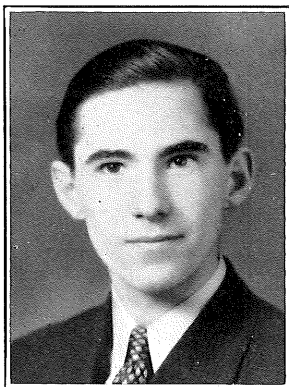

ANNA NANCY SANFORD—"Nan"

"Good humor makes all things tolerable."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Executive Council 3; Student Council 1; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Commercial Club 3, Treasurer 4; "Torch" Business Board 3; Girls' Tennis Club 3, 4; Kickball 4; History-Civics Club 4. Never tardy. St. Peter's. Morse Business College.

Anna is always known to be a good sport and a cheerful friend. Her winning smile is the index to her personality.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

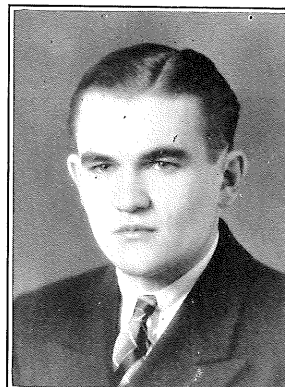

E. BYRON SANFORD—"Barney"

"The wind was left behind."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 4. Never tardy. Chauncey Harris School.

Barney found delight in telling his track mates how bad they were going to be the next season. Yet it was all in good clean fun, wasn't it, Barney?

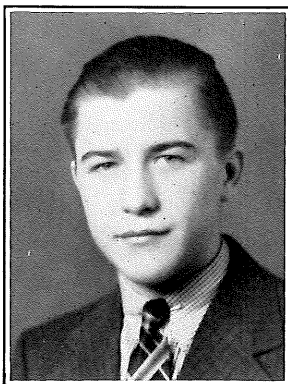

HOWARD EUGENE SCHRIEBER—"Dutch"

"A nice unparticular man."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Millersburg Military Institute, Brown University.

Although "Dutch" has been with us for only a short time, he has become fairly well known, especially by the members of that fraternal group seen wandering about the corridors at recess.

STANLEY SAPULA—"Sappy"

"A sage by all allow'd."

A. A. 1, 2; Boys' Club 3; Boys' Biology Club 2. Never tardy. Hartford High School.

Stan has a care-free, happy disposition. His witty remarks are thoroughly enjoyed by friends in 336. He also likes to recite poetry, and we all agree he does a good job of it.

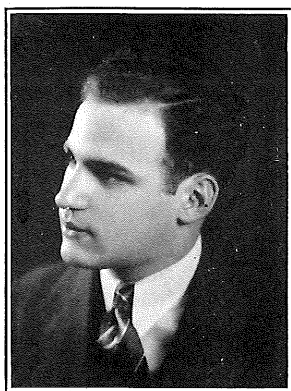

ROSALYN SCHWARTZ—"Bunny"

"Her form was ponderous and her step was slow."

A. A. 2; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Camera Club 4; Never tardy. Hartford Hospital Training School, Morse Business College.

"Bunny" has earned a reputation for taking "candid shots at Bulkeley's tots" with her camera. As a storehouse of jokes she also tops the list.

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

JOSEPH SENA—"Joe"

"This is the Happy Warrior."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2. A. E. Burr School.

Joe has been found to be very useful, especially by the boys on Adelaide Street to whom he gave free transportation to school every morning in his dilapidated limousine.

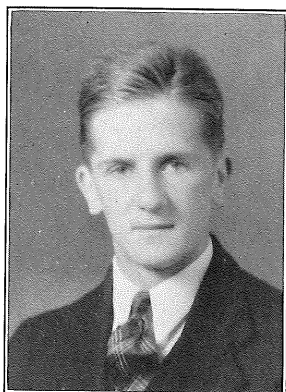

LORETTA JULIA SHERIDAN—"Sherry"

"Wine gives life to the body."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 3. St. Peter's School.

Sherry is one of our vivacious girls. A congenial personality coupled with a desire for knowledge has won for her many friends. Sherry is truly going to be missed next year.

PETER PAUL SEVETZ—"Pete"

"Modesty becomes a young man."

Baseball 4. Never tardy. Hartford High School.

Pete is as accurate with a basketball as was Davey Crockett with a rifle. Since he has remained unspoiled in spite of many compliments, we see that his modesty is proportionate to his skill.

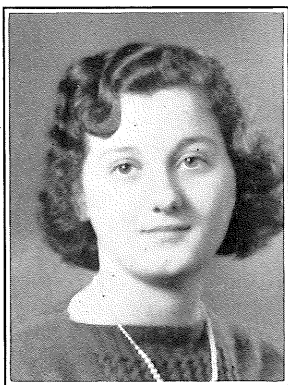

JOANNE MARIE SILVA—"Jennie"

"In listening mood she seems to understand."

Girls' League 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School.

Jennie is one of the reserved girls who impressed us as doing lots of thinking and little talking. Anyone with these two unmistakably fine qualities should go far.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

MARIE ANTOINETTE SIRIANNI—"Mare"

"She is a jolly good sport in everything."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Commercial Club 3, 4; President 4. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School.

Mare was a very well-liked personage among her classmates and she always succeeded in anything she attempted.

RITA MAY SKELLY—"Skell"

"Rare compound of oddity, frolic, and fun. Who relished a joke and rejoiced in a pun."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, Room Representative 1, 2, 4; Senior Reception Committee. Washington Street School.

Skell is the sweet little girl who gives the knightly lads of Bulkeley a desire to protect the weaker sex. We have our "four horsemen," and now Skell with three other charming girls has instituted the name, "the four horse women."

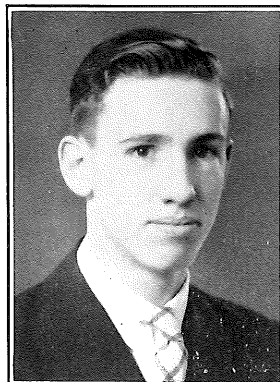

ALICE LEE SKAHILL—"Skippy"

"Calmness is a great advantage."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Girls' Golf Club 4. No demerits. St. Peter's School.

"Skippy" is one of those people who are calm, no matter what happens. Her quiet personality doesn't fail to attract her classmates. Kind, helpful, and a good sport, she will be greatly missed.

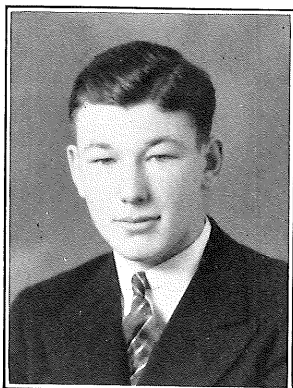

RUSSELL FREDSON SKINNER—"Russ"

"All's right with the world."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4; Commercial Club 3. Never tardy. Richard J. Kinsella School. Morse Business College.

Russ's chief interests have been outside of school, but he has been known to many for his fun making.

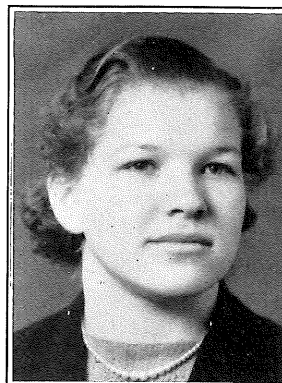

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

CHARLES ARTHUR SMEATON—"Art"

"Pleasure and action make the hours seen short."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Edison Club 3. Never tardy. Southwest School. Art is a quiet lad who is liked because of his amiable personality. He is usually found in a select group of intimate friends.

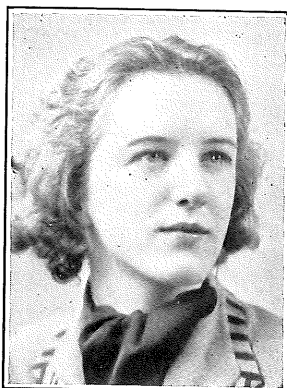

ELIZABETH EMMA RITA SMITH—"Betty"

"Friendliness is a great virtue."

Girls' Glee Club 1; Choir 1. No demerits; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. St. Joseph College.

Betty's sweet disposition has won for her many friends, and once you're Betty's friend, you're a friend forever. We predict that Betty's pleasant smile and geniality will win a high place for her in the future.

CLAIRE ELIZABETH SMITH—"Claire"

"'Twas her thinking of others made you think of her."

A. A. 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4. No demerits. St. Mary Junior High School. Smith College.

Good nature and jollity tell the story of Claire. She is always willing to lend a helping hand to a fellow student. More of this type would add to the fun of Bulkeley.

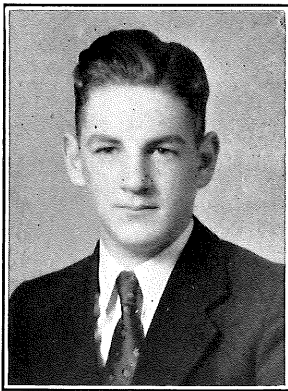

MARGUERITA ELIZABETH SMITH—"Rita"

"The way to gain a friend is to be one."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Upper Class Choir 3; Girls' Glee Club 1; Girls' Golf Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4, Treasurer. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. St. Joseph College.

Rita had her work to do and she did it well. Possessed of a keen sense of humor and a will to work, she is a girl we are proud to call a classmate.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

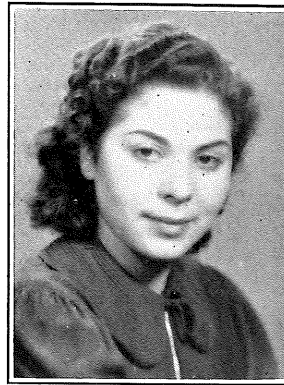

MATTHEW JOHN SMITH—"Matt"

"A soul of power, a well of lofty thought."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Student Council 2, 3; Honor Society 3. Business Board of the Class Book 4; Junior Usher. No demerits. St. Peter's School.

Matt is a quiet but distinguished scholar. He is one of the few monopolists of the A's. His intimate classmates know him as a good-natured, congenial friend with a real appreciation of humor.

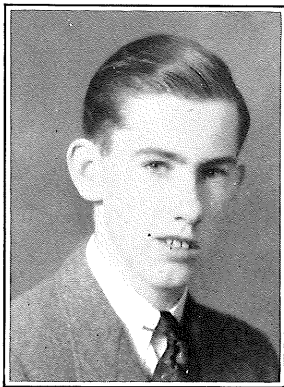

GRACE PATRICIA SPANO—"Gracie"

"As peaceful as a hidden pool."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 2, 3; Commercial Club 3; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4. Alfred E. Burr School. Morse Business College.

Since Gracie doesn't attempt to make herself conspicuous, her big black eyes and black hair become all the more attractive. Gracie's cheerful smile and sunny disposition will win her a place in the world just as they have at Bulkeley.

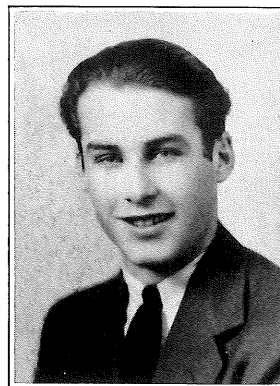

RONALD McDONALD SMITH—"Scotty"

"Quietness is best."

A. A. 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Fifth Member 4; Boys' Swimming Club 3, 4; Track 3, 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 4. Alfred E. Burr School.

Ronnie is a conscientious student, especially in his French class. He is liked because of his quiet, friendly disposition.

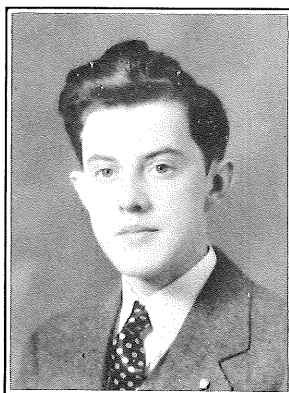

CHARLES ANTHONY SPILLANE—"Charlie"

"Happy am I, from care I'm free."

A. A. 2; Track 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; Interclass Basketball 2, 3, 4. Washington Street School. Morse Business College.

Charlie is a retiring chap who displayed his greatest ability on the track field, where he gained many laurels for Bulkeley. Although reserved, Charlie is quite a wit and therefore is well liked by all.

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

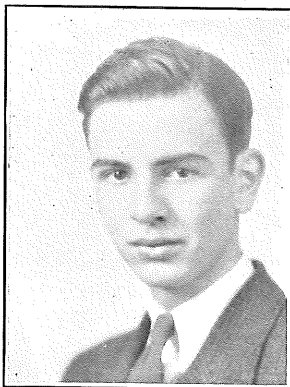

JOSEPH PERSHING SPILLANE—"Joe"

"He was a scholar and a ripe good one."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Secretary 4; Student Council 4; Vice-President 4; A Cappella Choir 3; Boys' Debating Club 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 2, 4; Secretary 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Junior Usher; Editor-in-Chief of Class Book; Harvard Book Prize 3; First Scholarship Prize 3, 4; Second Scholarship Prize 1, 2; Valedictorian. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School. Trinity College.

The very fact that Joe is Valedictorian of his class sings his praises. Joe's keen intellect and ability to accomplish much have always made him a vital factor in affairs around Bulkeley. His popularity among his classmates was great, for he had that rare trait of being able to make friends easily.

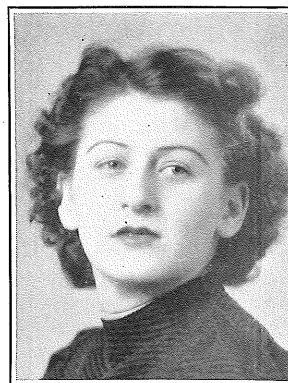

MAURICE LAWRENCE SPOSITO

"A blithe heart makes a blooming visage."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Legislative Club 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

Maurice is a very diligent chap who is liked by all. He greets his classmates with a broad, cheerful smile. He provides many mirthful as well as studious moments in his classrooms.

ANNA ELIZABETH STAMATON—"Ann"

"For men may come and men may go, but I go on forever."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School.

Anna has a sense of humor and dresses attractively. She has an atmosphere of friendliness about her, too, which invites your companionship.

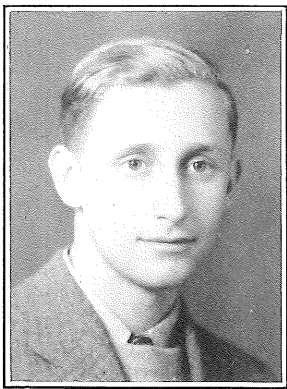

PEGGY IVY STANLEY—"Peg"

"To women silence gives their proper grace."

Girls' League 4. Never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

Peg's charming manner has become recognized by all. Though she is quiet, she has gained many friends during her four years at Bulkeley. Here's wishing you much success in life, Peg.

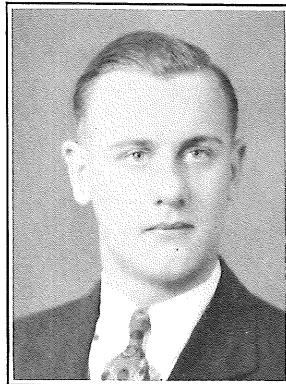

STANLEY JOHN STARON—"Lefty"

"The innocent are gay."

Stamp Club 4. Never tardy. Richard J. Kinsella School.

Stan is a very pleasant fellow whose quiet laughter is frequently heard in Room 336. He was one of the boys who were always in a hurry to be excused at the close of school.

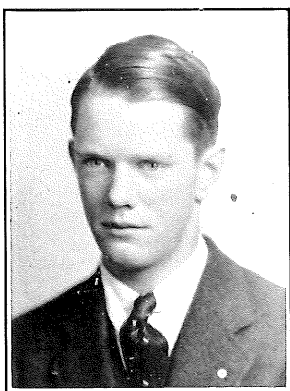

PETER FRANCIS STAWECKI—"Pippi"

"In wit a man, simplicity a child."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3, 4; Football 3, 4. Never tardy. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School. Northwestern University.

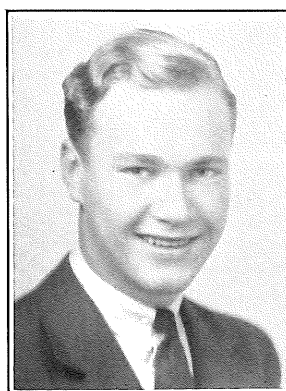

Pip is one of our good-natured football players, who has enlivened many a dull moment by his cheerful company. You are liked even by members of the faculty, aren't you, Peter? This football hero also has a habit of blushing when he is discovered perpetrating one of his mischievous pranks.

GEORGE HENRY STARR—"Star"

A. A. 1, 2; Boys' Club 3, 4; Track 3, 4. Never tardy. J. H. Naylor School.

George is the class prankster, but through his good nature he has made many friends. He has been a faithful trackman also.

KARL HERMAN STEDING—"Fred"

"Wit is the food of conversation."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Hartford High School.

With his bantering disposition, Karl can best any of the girls at repartee. His witty personality has gained for him many friends.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

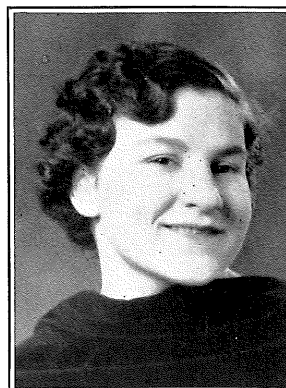

JANE BILLING STEELE—"Janie"

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 3; Junior Glee Club 1, 2; Senior Glee Club 3, 4; Agora 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3; French Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Girls' Golf Club 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Kickball 4. Washington Street School. Connecticut State College.

"Red" certainly lived up to her name. She was full of fire-like energy and zeal in whatever she did, and no sunnier smile than hers can be found.

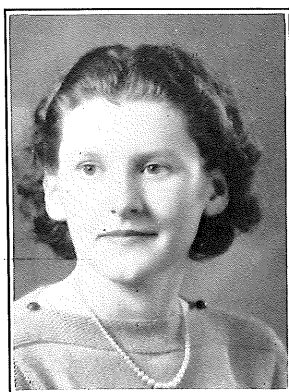

CAMILLE EMMA STEPHENSON—"Connie"

"The little lady with the big smile."

A. A. 1, 3, 4; Girls' League 1; "Dial" Business Board 3, 4; "Dial" Advertising Board 3, Circulation Manager 3; Camera Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. St. Peter's School. Becker College.

Connie is rather diminutive in size, but she always had a big smile that made you unaware of that fact.

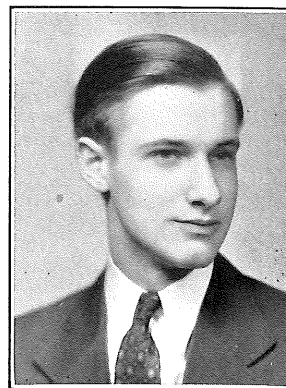

MARION MARGARET STEELE—"Mimi"

"Eager in pursuit of studies and labours."

A. A. 1; Girls' League 1, 2; Junior Glee Club 1. No demerits; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School.

A petite young lady who knows the right time and place for everything is Marion. She was a fine scholar, and yet found time to make many friends.

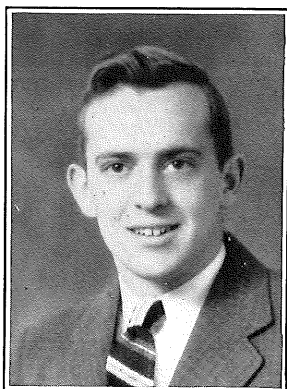

ARTHUR HORACE STEVENS—"Art"

"A silent, shy, peace-loving man
He seemed no fiery partisan."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3. Never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School.

Art is reserved, but possesses a very pleasant personality. His favorite rendezvous at recess time is Room 336.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

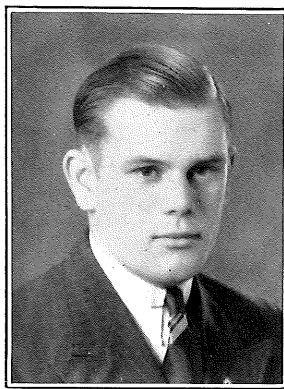

WALTER EVERETT STEVENS—"Walt"

"The noblest mind, the best contentment has."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 2, 3. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

Walt is a likable sort of fellow who seems either to be able to avoid all trouble, or else, if he has any, to keep it to himself. Best of luck, Walt.

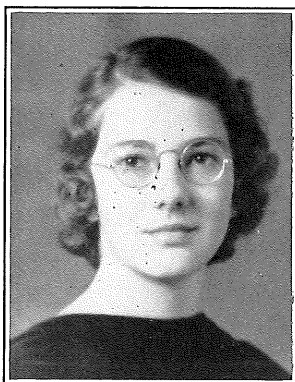

JOHN HUGH STREMPFER—"Johnny"

"Amiability shines by its own light."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 4; Edison Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. St. Peter's School.

John is an assiduous student, who takes his studies seriously. He is welcomed in many groups.

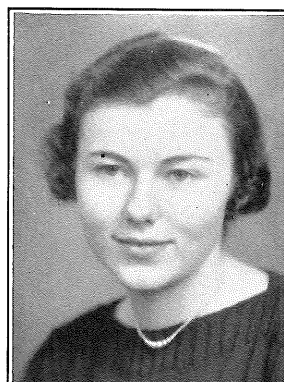

GERTRUDE RUTH STICKNEY—"Gert"

"Her talents were of the more silent class."

Girls' League 1; Honor Society 4; Glee Club 1. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. Simmons College.

Gert is the museful type with a warm smile that speaks of her inherent fineness.

ANNE MONICA SULLIVAN—"Shirley"

"Quiet as the gentle breeze."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3. Never tardy. Southwest School.

We often wondered what went on in Shirley's mind when we caught her so many times just looking into space. She was just a dreamer, but aren't we all?

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

DOROTHY ELIZABETH SULLIVAN—"Dot"

"She was a scholar and a ripe one."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 2, 3, 4, Associate Editor 4; Scribblers' Club 3, 4; Classical Club 4; Literary Club 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School. St. Joseph College.

Dot is a studious young lady with a twinkle in her eye. She enjoyed life and at the same time made her mark as a student.

ANNA SARAH SURABIAN—"Ann"

"Music is the universal language of mankind."

A. A. 1, 2, 4; Girls' League; French Club 4; Classical Club 3, 4; Scribblers' Club 3, 4, Secretary 3, Vice-President 4; Senior Orchestra 4; Accompanist of Girls' Glee Club 3, 4. Washington Street School.

Ann's musical prowess and sweetness ought to carry her far. It isn't everyone that can ripple on a xylophone as she does.

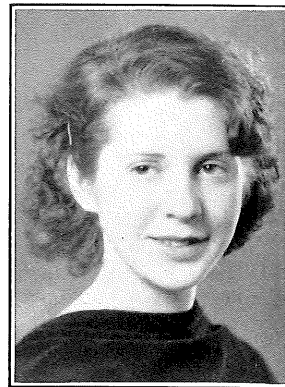

ETHEL MARION SULLIVAN

"Earnestness and sincerity are synonymous."

Honor Society 4; Co-assistant Business Manager of "Dial" 4; Advertising Manager of "Dial" 3; Classical Club 3, 4; Scribblers' Club 3, 4; Agora 3, 4. J. H. Naylor School.

Her theories were not always accepted by her classmates, but we know that Ethel was earnest and honest in her endeavors to carry them out.

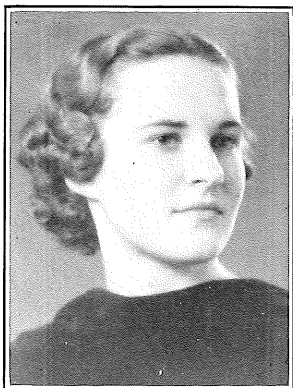

JANE CAWLEY SUTTON—"Jennie"

"Quiet and serene."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Hartford High School.

Jennie has a way all her own. Her sweetness and simplicity of manner have made her stand out in the crowd.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

SOPHIE MARILYN SYKURO—"Sue"

A. A. 1, 3; Girls' League 1, 2. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School.

This lovely lady has all the attributes of a model secretary. Why didn't she ever give us a break?

ROSE PAULINE TARASCIO—"Roe"

"—and she's got to know how to cook."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1; Junior Glee Club 1; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Brown School.

We hear that Roe is well versed in the culinary arts. It's too bad we didn't find out sooner.

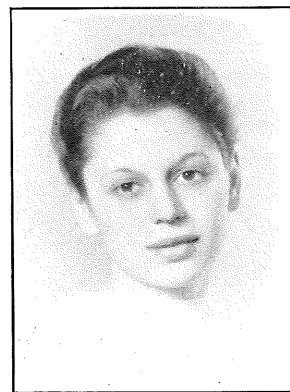

DOROTHY ANITA TAMBURRO—"Dot"

"Witty, courteous, full of spirit."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4. Never tardy. Chauncey Harris School. Skidmore College.

Dot is famous for her practical jokes. It's a wonder that she always managed to get away with it.

RITA MARIE TASILLO—"Tiny"

"Gentle in method, resolute in action."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4. No demerits. Weaver High School. Bellevue Hospital, New York.

Tiny is the possessor of a sophistication which is uncommon among high school pupils. We think that she will gain her objective through her clear thinking and systematic procedure.

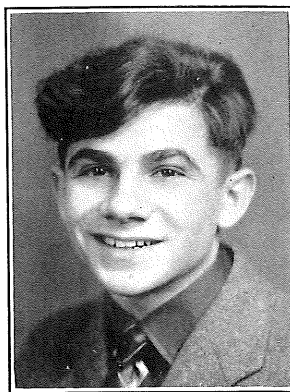

MARGARET THERESA TAYLOR—"Peg"

"A good heart's worth gold."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 4; Ni-No-Van Club 3, 4, President 4. Washington Street School.

Peg has all the feminine requisites for popularity: an agreeable personality, a practical turn of mind, and a love of sports.

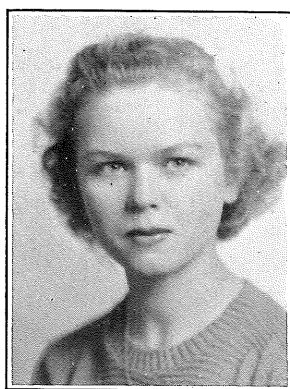

LOUIS JOHN TESTA—"Shorty"

"Little Napoleon."

Senior Orchestra 4. No demerits; never tardy. Wethersfield High School.

Shorty is known among his classmates for his industry and diligence. With such fine characteristics as these, there is little doubt that he will succeed at anything he attempts.

GENEVIEVE MARY TERAILA—"Gene"

"And ever and anon, with rosy red, the hashful blood her snowy cheeks did dye."

A. A. 1, 2; Girls' League 1, 2; Art Club 3. No demerits; never tardy. Holy Trinity School.

Gene is a demure lass with as fine and pure a character as any mere mortal could possess.

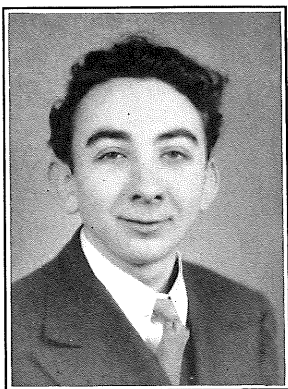

JULIA MARGARET TIGHE—"Julie"

"Why so serious, why so grave?"

Commercial Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3. No demerits; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. Hartford Secretarial School.

Julie was always a pensive, serious person, anxious to get ahead. We think that she will make an ideal secretary.

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

STEPHEN THOMAS TILLEY—"Til"

"It is tranquil people who accomplish much."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 2; Track 3. No demerits; never tardy. St. Peter's School.

The fellows in the class always had a lot of fun with Til, as he was a good-humored and tolerant fellow.

GRACE TOMLINSON—"Punny"

"I desire everlasting friendship."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Girls' League 1, 2; Ni-No-Van Club 4. Southwest School. Miss Marchant's Secretarial School.

It's a wonder to us why "Punny" didn't give more of the lads a break. We think that she certainly deprived them of knowing a fine and attractive personality.

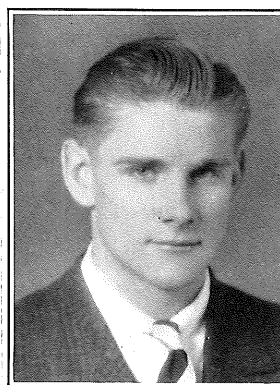

EUNICE LORICE TOBEY—"Eunie"

"Virtue is like a rich stone, best plain set."

Girls' League 4; Honor Society 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2; Junior Glee Club 1, 2; Senior Glee Club 3, 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; French Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School. Boston University School of Music.

KNIGHT CLIFFORD TREAT—"Casey"

"Everything which is unknown is taken for magnificent."

Student Council 1; Track 3. J. H. Naylor School.

His immobile countenance and stoical silence always gave us the impression that he was a cool and determined individual. He is rightly called the "mystery man."

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

ELEANOR NELSON TREYBAL

"Common sense is instinct, and enough of it is genius."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3; History-Civics Club 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Kickball 4. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School. Conn. State Teachers College.

"Yatchie" seems to be the typical all 'round girl, with the ability to cope with any situation. Everybody regarded her as a pal.

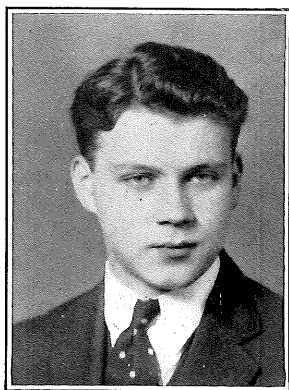

JEAN CHRISTENA VALERI—"Jeanne"

"Talkative rather than eloquent."

A. A. 2, 3; Girls' League 2, 3. Never tardy. Manchester High School.

Many members of the class were quiet, but Jeanne preferred to make noise. Many times the contrast was pleasing. More luck to you, Jeanne!

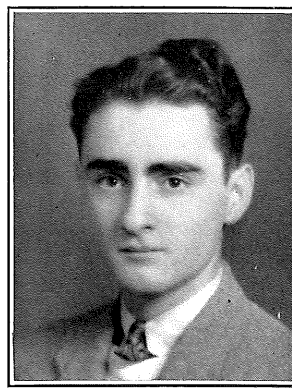

ALBERT VINCENT TYSKA—"Al"

"His smile is sweetened by his gravity."

S. S. Cyril and Methodius School.

Albert does things very nonchalantly. In his classes he always seems to be in a very pensive mood. Is it over your school work that you are so thoughtful, Al?

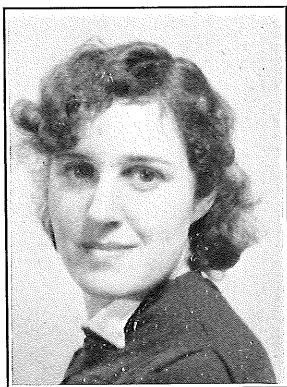

DOMINIC ANTHONY VALLARIO—"Dick"

"He is so good that no one can be a better man."

A. A. 2, 4; Boys' Club 4; Track Team 3, 4. Never tardy. A. E. Burr School. Pratt Institute.

Dick always struck us as being almost ideal. He had looks that rivaled Robert Taylor's, and a personality that added to his attractiveness.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

JEAN VANDERBECK—"Jeannie"

"To be like her we wouldn't mind."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Glee Club 1; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Girls' Tennis Club 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 4; French Club 4; History-Civics Club 4; Literary Club 4; Kickball Team 4. No demerits; never tardy. Southwest School.

The friendly glance in Jean's smiling eyes is enough to make anyone who thinks the world's all wrong go happily on to finish the day.

CLELIA ROSE VENDITTI—"Claire"

"A life that leads melodious days."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 3, 4; Honor Society 4; "Torch" Editorial Board 3, 4; "Dial" Editorial Board 4; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3; Upper Class Choir 2, 3; French Club 4; Literary Club 3, 4; Junior Dramatic Club 2. No demerits. Washington Street School. Connecticut State College.

Claire has a cheerful, sophisticated personality. Her singing voice is one of her delightful assets. Her friendship is welcomed by many of her classmates.

LUCY BRIDGET VASQUEZ—"Lou"

"Her very frowns are fairer far than smiles of other maidens are."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 3, 4; Girls' Leader Corps 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 4. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School. Connecticut State Teachers College.

Lou is a very charming lassie who should be very proud of her report cards. A's are very regular with her. Her sparkling eyes are worth looking at, too. We are indeed happy to have Lucy with us.

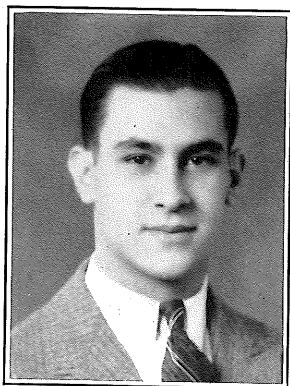

ROSE MARIE VERBONICK—"Ro"

"As gentle as the zephyrs blowing the violet."

Girls' League 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 3, 4. Never tardy. St. Peter's School.

We admire Rose for her fine portrayal of what a student in our school should be. She has endeared herself to those of us who know her intimately.

NON-SIBI SED-ALIIS

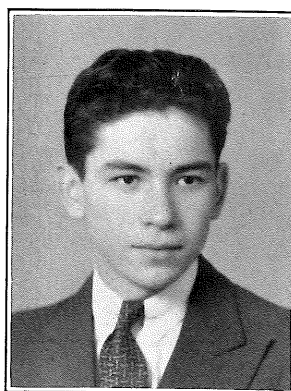

JOSEPH ANTHONY VINCENZO—"Vin"

"Meet a silent man."

A. A. 4; Boys' Club 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4. Hartford High School. Northeastern University.

A reserved nature, a cheerful smile, and good common sense marked this lad as outstanding.

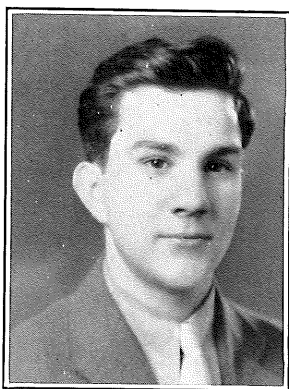

VINCENT CARL WACHTER—"Vinny"

"Artistic is the word."

A. A. 3; Boys' Club 1; Boys' Swimming Club 2, 3; "Torch" Art Staff 4; Indoor Table Tennis Club 4. A. E. Burr School. Trade School.

Vinny is artistic almost to the point of extremity. Yet we know that his constant drawing will never be a hindrance to him in an artistic career.

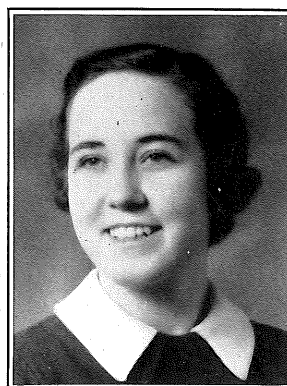

FRANK JOSEPH VISONE

"Never tyrannical; but ever true."

Boys' Club 4. A. E. Burr School. Lehigh University.

It is because of Frank's serious, quiet, and pleasant nature that we like him. Frank evidently doesn't believe in loquacious folly; he was always a good listener.

EUNICE MURIEL WALMSLEY—"Eu"

"They who are pleased themselves may always please."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Leader Corps 4; "Torch" Business Board 4; Classical Club 4; French Club 4. No demerits; never absent; never tardy. Washington Street School. Radcliffe College.

Eu is a very quiet but a worthy friend to those fortunate enough to know her well. Her low, clear voice is one of her most attractive characteristics.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

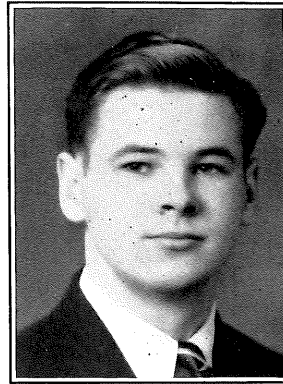

MARGARET DOROTHY WALSH—"Dot"

"Gaiety without eclipse."

Girls' League 1, Student Council 1. Washington Street School.

Dot is a good-natured, vociferous girl whose repartees have enlivened many a dull moment among her friends.

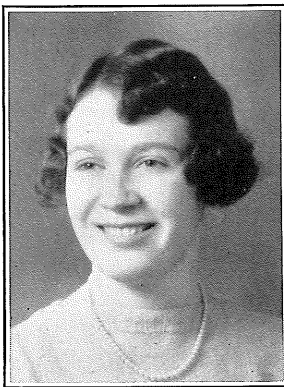

ZENON CHEMER WARSTOCK

"His limbs were cast in manly mould,
For hardy sports or contest bold."

Never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School.

We often wondered why Zen didn't make use of that remarkable physique and try out for football. He was just too modest.

RITA CATHERINE WARD—"Ree"

"She was so charitable."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2; Student Council 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4, President 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Ni-No-Van Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. St. Peter's School. Smith College.

Ree will long be remembered for her excellent work as president of the History-Civics Club. Her comeliness and sweet manners have pleased us throughout her four years.

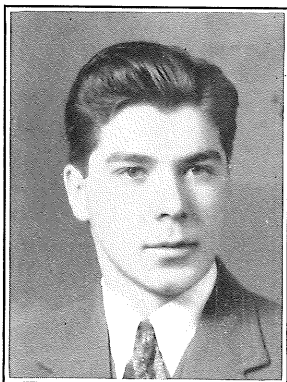

MURIEL ELAINE WATERHOUSE—"Jerry"

"All the charm of all the Muses."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; Honor Society 4; Student Council 1, 2; Junior Council 2; Junior Dramatic Club 2, Secretary 2; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Literary Club 3, 4; Classical Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 2, 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3, President 4; Business Board of Class Book. Southwest School. Smith College.

Jerry is one of the prettiest and surely one of the best-liked girls in our class. She is a charming dancer, a good actress, a fine athlete, and an excellent scholar. Her company is truly enjoyed by everyone. Because of her scholarship, leadership, and character, we consider Muriel an asset to our class.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

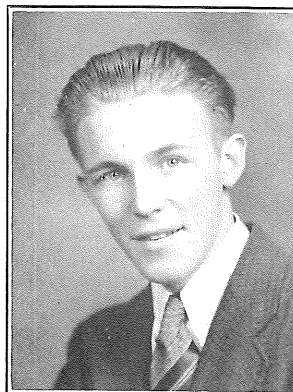

FREDERICK DAVIS WATSON—"Freddie"

"—and he went over them like a steamroller."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 3; Football 3, 4. Southwest School. Northwestern University.

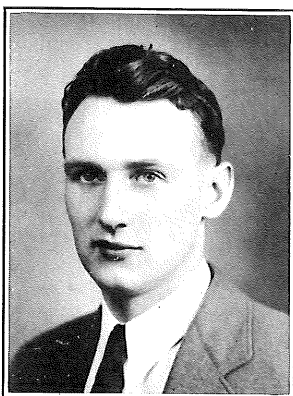

We still believe that Freddie was a good fullback, but maybe we're prejudiced because we know him as an all 'round good fellow.

JAMES DAVID WATT—"Jim"

"Get a little fun out of life."

Never tardy. Newington Junior High School. What would Mr. Cock's English class be like without the presence of this fun-loving, effervescent person? We don't know, either. More humor to you, Jim.

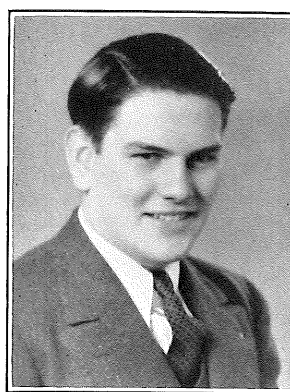

RENARD MILES WATSON—"Ren"

"Lazy bones, lying in the sun."

Biology Club 3, 4. Washington Street School. University of Alabama.

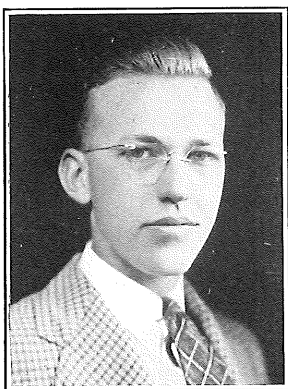

Here is a man who contentedly watches the world go by without criticism or complaint. We rather wish that everybody had his pleasant philosophy of life.

HARRY EDMUN WELCH

"He clings to his purpose like a vine to the garden wall."

A. A. 3, 4; Football 3. Southwest School. Harry has a remarkable endurance and pertinacity, as was exemplified in everything he did. With such commendable traits he can't fail in his endeavors.

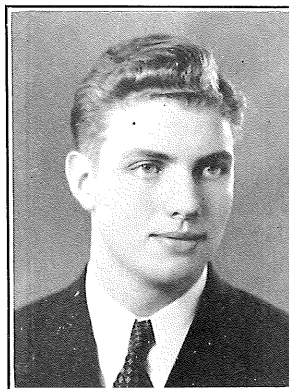

GEORGE ROGER WHEELER—"Rog"

"A light heart lives long."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Orchestra 1; Junior Glee Club 1; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2. Never tardy. Southwest School. University of Pennsylvania.

Rog is in our estimation the typical man about town. His distinguished aspect and smart dressing make him the apple of anybody's eye.

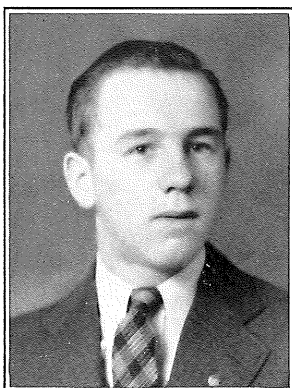

KENNETH IVAN WHITE—"Ken"

"A bad man is worse when he pretends to be a saint."

Wethersfield High School.

Kenneth hasn't been with us very long, but long enough to make a "hit" with the girls. Need more be said?

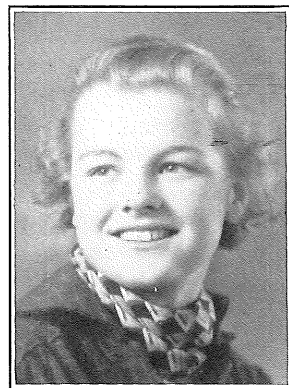

ALEXANDER SITTLE WHINNEM—"Dutchy"

"The curious man learns."

Honor Society 4; Boys' Biology Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3, Secretary 4; Class Treasurer 4; Boys' Golf Club 3. Never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

"Dutchy" was noted for his everlasting inquisitiveness and his willingness to hear diverse opinions. His good comradeship and his zealously at whatever he attempted will remain in our minds as his most outstanding traits.

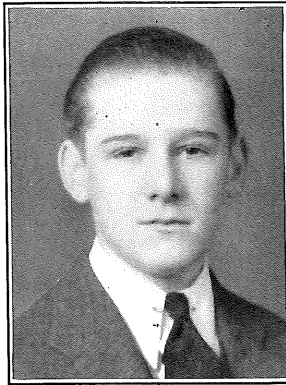

ALICE CATHERINE WIELAND—"Al"

"No gems, no gold she needs to wear; She shines intrinsically fair."

A. A. 3; Girls' League 2, 3; Student Council 4; Literary Club 3, 4, President 4; Upper Class Choir 2, 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

Al's popularity extends not only among her female friends but also among the Cassanovas of our class. Her frown of complexity and her pleasant laugh are treats. Is it any wonder that the Campfield Library was besieged by her male admirers?

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

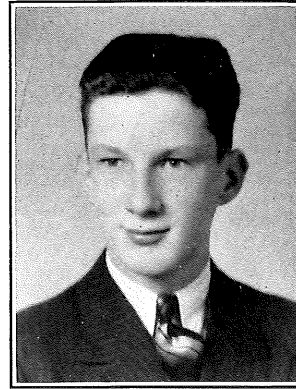

JOSEPH ANTHONY WIEZALIS—"Joe"

"The charm and playfulness of his talk."

A. A. 1; Boys' Club 1, 3. Never tardy. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School.

His seemingly perpetual boyishness and his fiery spirit have gained a place in the hearts of his classmates for him. Joe will always stand out vividly in our minds when we recall our high school days.

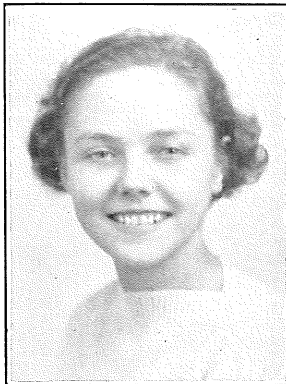

EDWARD BENNETT WILLIAMS—"Ed"

"He ruled with an iron hand."

"Torch" Editorial Board 2, 3, 4, Assistant Editor 3, Managing Editor 3, Co-Editor 4; Student Council 4, President 4; Legislative Club 3, 4, Speaker 4; Boys' Debating Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Honor Society 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Parnassus 4, Secretary 4; Assistant Editor of Class Book; Junior Usher; Lewis Rose English Prize 3. Never tardy. A. E. Burr School. Holy Cross College.

Ed is known by everyone, principally for his leadership and scholarship. He always ruled with an iron hand and a dominating will in everything he attempted, and for this reason accomplished much. He undoubtedly has gained a place in Bulkeley's Hall of Fame.

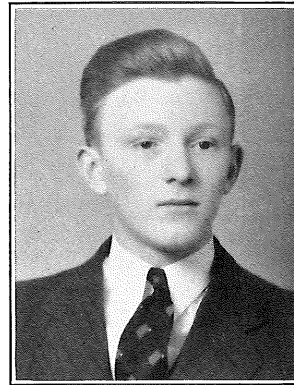

STEPHANIE MARY WILKOS—"Stephie"

"Purpose is what gives life a meaning."

A. A. 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Circulation Manager of the "Torch" 4; "Dial" Business Board 3; Commercial Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. A. E. Burr School.

Stephie must have a very accurate clock at home, as her punctuality record shows. This will certainly be an asset in a business career, and so will that demurely mischievous look of hers.

ROBERT VINCENT WILLIAMS—"Bob"

"There burns in him an incessant fire."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club 1, 4; Boys' Glee Club 4; Student Council 1; Junior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Boys' Swimming Club 4; Legislative Club 3, 4; Associate Editor of "Torch" 4; Upper Class Choir 3, 4; Tennis Squad 4. Southwest School.

Bob always seemed to be in the midst of things, livening them up with quips and wild antics. We hear that he swings a mean racket from the port side.

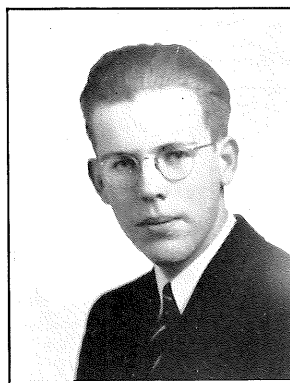

CLAUDIA MAY WILLNAUER

"Grace and remembrance be to you both."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4. No demerits; never absent. J. H. Naylor School. St. Francis Hospital Training School.

In the cafeteria Claudia was usually found digesting a bit of Latin with her lunch. However, this practice did not prove injurious to her digestion or her marks.

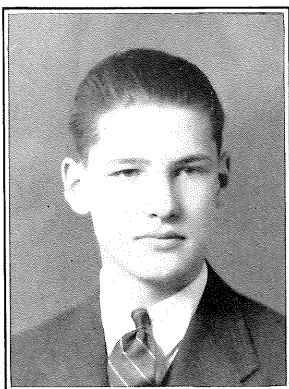

THOMAS DORE WILSON—"Tommy"

"Indifference and he are brothers."

Boys' Club 3, 4; Chess Club 2; Biological Repertory 2. Alfred E. Burr School. Wesleyan University.

We've always marveled at his superb calmness under all conditions and at his non-chalant manner. Such coolness under fire will surely benefit him as a scientist.

DUANE ISAAC WILSON

"Few words; much action."

Boys' Biology Club. Brighton High, Island Pond, Vermont. State Teachers College.

Duane is certainly a Vermonter in every respect. His towering build, quiet manner, and solid common sense speak for themselves.

HELEN AGATHA WINCZE—"Helen"

"Sing an old-fashioned song to a young sophisticated lady."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Girls' League Room Representative 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 3, 4; Commercial Club 3; Junior Dramatic Club; Senior Dramatic Club 4. Never tardy. Hartford Public High School. Bryant College.

Helen certainly has the bearing and aspect of a society debutante. We know that she has a delightful personality and good fellowship behind her sophistication.

NON-SIBI SED ALIIS

MARY THERESA WOLANIN—"Mamie"

"There's little of the melancholy element in her."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; "Torch" Business Board 4. Never absent; no demerits; never tardy. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School. Morse College.

Mary is that sociable and friendly type of girl whom we all like to have around. Although outside affairs interest her more, she surely added a great deal to our class.

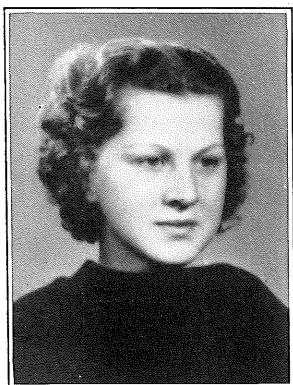

GENEVIEVE VERONICA WYKA—"Gen"

"Feminine, but noways weak."

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Assistant Circulation Manager of "Torch" 4; Girls' Leaders Corps 4; Camera Club 4; Girls' Golf Club 4. Never tardy. Washington Street School. Morse Business College.

Gen was indeed a fine feminine athlete in Bulkeley. Her only regret was that there were not varsity athletic teams for girls.

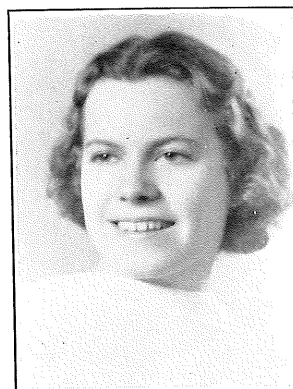

HELEN THERESA WOZNIAK—"Terry"

"Her voice was ever soft."

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; History-Civics Club 3, 4; Girls' Swimming Club 4; Commercial Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Hartford High School. Bryant College.

We often wonder who Helen's hairdresser is. Helen is one of our quiet girls. However, we know many of the stronger sex find her very attractive.

AGNES MARY YORGENSEN—"Ag"

"Come give us a taste of your quality."

A. A. 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 3, 4; Camera Club 4. Never tardy. New Park Avenue School.

Many members of the class have not gotten to know Agnes because she was rather quiet. Those who have, however, realize what the others have missed.

NON SIBI SED ALIIS

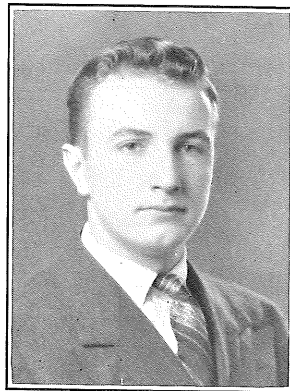

GERTRUDE FRANCES ZAK—"Gert"

"There is nothing like fun, is there?"

A. A. 1, 3, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 4; French Club 4; Girls' Swimming Club 3, 4; Girls' Golf Club 4; Upper Class Choir 4; Kickball 4; Camera Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School. Connecticut State Teachers College.

Gert reminds us of a kitten with her friskiness and unusual vitality. She always enjoys a good laugh.

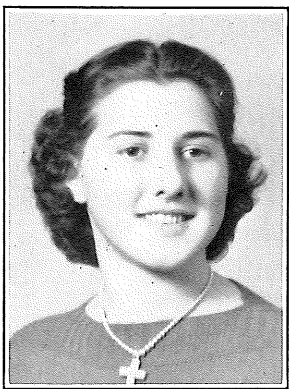

GEORGE RUCKER ZUKOWSKI

"It befits a young man to be modest."

Honor Society 4; Track Team 3. No demerits. S. S. Cyril and Methodius School. U. S. Coast Guard Academy.

He was not the type that took delight in talking about himself, but was always willing and ready to listen to the other fellow and cheer him up if he were in a troubled state. George was an excellent basketball player, besides his many other attributes.

WANDA ROSE ZIEMINSKI—"Wandy"

"An ounce of mirth is worth a pound of sorrow."

A. A. 1, 4; Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4, Room Representative 3; Girls' Biology Club 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 4. No demerits; never tardy. Alfred E. Burr School. Bryant College.

Wandy is the jolly girl who enjoys outdoor life. Maybe this is why she chose to join the Biology Club. She adds to the pleasures of life by her friendliness and co-operation.

LUCILLE JANE LAVIERE—"Stardust"

"All nature's difference keeps all nature's peace."

Girls' League 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1. Never tardy. Hartford High School.

Lucille is an unusual girl, because she is not very talkative. Her neatness of dress has been the envy of many Bulkeley girls, and so has her attractiveness.

BELVIN DOUGLAS MACKINNON—"Red"

"Silence is strength."

Southwest School.

"Red" possesses a very quiet, congenial nature. He displayed surprising aptitude for producing "A" themes. We are also told that "Red" is a skillful artist.

PAUL JOHN MANDZUK

"What supports me, dost thou ask?"

Never tardy. Washington Street School.

We have seen little of Paul's violin lately. Perhaps he has laid his musical instrument away during his high school days. Things other than music have evidently occupied Paul's time out of school.

ROSALIE MARIE MELLUZZO—"Ricky"

"Silence is a perfect Herald of Joy."

No demerits. J. H. Naylor School.

Rosalie is another one of our quiet girls, although at times she can be as gay as any of the rest of us.

ANTHONY JOHN PINTO—"Bip"

"Rolling stones gather no moss."

Never tardy. J. H. Naylor School.

"Bip" was a very popular boy among his classmates. He could always be counted on for a laugh. Good luck, "Bip"!

LENA SARCIA—"Lee"

"Modesty is a policy not like a virtue."

History-Civics Club 3, 4. No demerits; never tardy. Washington Street School.

Lena was rather retiring, but they say still waters run deep. It is asserted that she is livelier outside of school. Sar-cia woman!

KENNETH ALBERT SPARRELL—"Ken"

"Better late than never."

West Middle School.

It was a very frequent sight to see Ken ambling into his session room five or ten minutes after the opening bell had rung. When he did get to school, however, he always had plenty of fun. Ken's broad "Clark Gable" grin has melted the hearts of many Bulkeley lasses.

MILDRED THALER—"Millie"

"You talk just like a book."

Girls' League 4. No demerits; never tardy. Walton High School, New York.

Millie is pep, vim, and vigor, all in one, and her eyes are always twinkling with a mischievous light.

MALAMA ZAFIRIS ZAFRANIS—"Mollie"

"Her bright smile haunts me still."

No demerits. Palmerton, Pennsylvania, High School.

We have found Malama, who has been with us but a half year, to be a worthy member of the class, ever friendly and cheerful. Her smile would surely brighten up anything.

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS

PARENTS, TEACHERS, AND FRIENDS:

This evening we are here, following the custom of other years, to present what we hope will be an evening lavish with entertainment. This marks the final social meeting of our class as undergraduates, and by entering whole-heartedly into the spirit of the occasion, you can help make it the most successful and enjoyable of all. The Class of 1937, the largest yet to leave Bulkeley High School and the first under the yearly graduation program, has only gratitude toward you, teachers, parents, and friends, whose guidance has strengthened us during our four years in this school.

It is my pleasure to acquaint you with the speakers and artists who have been selected by their classmates for this program. Our history is to be recorded, our prophecy foretold, and our possessions bequeathed. As Chairman of these Class Night Exercises, I am honored to welcome you here tonight to share the pleasant program which we have prepared.

CLASS ORATION

CRIME MARCHES ON !

T would appear that everybody is interested in criminals, their exploits and punishment. Newspapers cater to this interest and devote much space to printing startling details of crime. They recognize a popular taste for the unusual, the mysterious, and the spectacular, and dramatize the battle of wits between detective and criminal, outlaw against society, and society against outlaw with thrilling variations. Biologists, psychologists, clergy and laity, penologists and psychiatrists speculate about the criminal with varied emotions, depending upon their individual viewpoints or professional bias. Some of their pronouncements are vindictive, some humane, some scientific, others morbid. All too few are effective in any practical way, and sometimes it may seem that little is being done to suppress crime. But such an inference would be hasty and not in accord with the facts.

Agencies intended to discourage crime are multitudinous. Among them are the police, the courts, jails, workhouses, penitentiaries, reformatories, and private agencies unnumbered, constituting in all a vast army of employees who labor night and day to circumvent the criminal. But in spite of all this opposition, crime persists and seems to be increasing. We are informed that every twenty seconds a major crime is being committed somewhere in the United States; every forty-five minutes someone dies by the hand of another man!

Right here in Hartford, which we rightly classify as one of the best cities in the world, there were in 1936 four murders, three hundred and twenty-seven automobiles stolen, seven hundred burglaries, and fifteen hundred reported thefts! But this is only a trifling fraction of the crime story. Last year in these United States $15,000,000 worth of property was taken in robberies, thefts, and holdups, including 26,000 automobiles valued at $6,000,000. Nearly half a million persons, of whom 150,000 were under twenty-four years of age, were arrested.

The United States Department of Commerce reported an average of 200,000 prisoners in State and Federal institutions, but according to penologists this is only ten percent of the actual number of criminals. They estimate that there are nine times as many criminals outside of the penal institutions as inside. If this is true there are 1,800,000 criminals at large, or one in every 67 of our population. The stranger sitting next to one in the theater, trolley car, or bus may be a burglar, or even a murderer!

Obviously the continuous depredations of criminals and the organized efforts to suppress crime are a prodigious expense to our nation; the costs involved are too huge and complex to be accurately tabulated. However, State and Federal statistics show that annual expenses solely for the prevention of crime are $115,000,000 and for the punishment of crime $123,000,000, or a combined total of $238,000,000. And still there is no visible diminution in the frequency and violence of criminal acts!

What, we may well ask, is the cause of this appalling volume of crime? Why so many criminals? J. Edgar Hoover, director of our Federal Bureau of Investigation, lays much of the blame upon environment. "Children become criminals", he says, "because of laxity in home discipline and such deep-rooted faults of society as poverty, degeneracy, and neglect on the part of their elders." Those notorious public enemies, Gerald Chapman, John Dillinger, "Baby Face" Nelson, Alvin Karpis, and "Pretty Boy" Floyd were reared in neglect and poverty and began their careers of crime when they were children. Their careers impress us with the ultimate futility of crime. There was nothing gained and everything lost. They all came to tragic ends.

Why does crime exist? Crime exists because some persons think they can take what belongs to others and not get caught. Crime increases because law enforcement is inefficient despite the huge expenditures for crime prevention. Crime flourishes because some lawyers, unlike Abraham Lincoln, will use all the tricks of their trade to shield criminals from merited punishment, if there is money in it for them.

It is high time that we awakened to the unspeakable tragedy of the cancerous growth of crime which threatens the very foundation of our liberty, and that is reverence and respect for law and obedience to it. If we would check the onward march of crime we must teach, not only in the Church, but also in the home, the schools, and through every character-building agency, the filthiness of crime, the utter lack of final reward, the miserable life of the fugitive from justice, and the personal and social loss which awaits the hardened criminal. And still more constructively we must inculcate in youth the highest ideals of personal and social justice which history affords, culminating in reverence and respect for people and obedience to law, without which crime cannot be checked and personal liberty cannot be preserved.

DONALD J. DAY

CLASS ESSAY

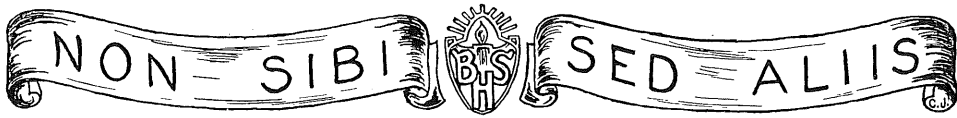

THE CHALLENGE OF THE DIFFICULT

THE Challenge of the Difficult! This is a challenge which has been flung to all corners of this earth. To answer it successfully, though, one must have as a component of his character, steadfast resolution, and a determination that no matter what the obstacles before him, he can and will attain his goal. Disillusionment after a failure may dampen the high hopes one has had, but should another opportunity present itself, he should grasp this chance with the tenacity of a bulldog. Eventually success will come to him in full remuneration for the difficulties he has had to face and has overcome. In the annals of American history, there are many men who had to encounter difficulties before their great opportunity came. Chief among these are Ulysses S. Grant and Abraham Lincoln.

Grant as a youth did well, then later came a period of trouble and failure, but when the Civil War came, he saw that all his previous failures had been steeling him to face this difficult task, his great opportunity. Unflinchingly he grasped it, and rose until now he stands among the greatest men in our history.

Lincoln, the greatest man of the nineteenth century, was also faced with one difficult situation after another throughout his life. Figuratively speaking, Lincoln "kept his face to the wind", bucked every storm, and slowly worked his way up to the highest position of honor and trust—President of these United States of America. He held this position during a period of turbulence in our national life—a period when only a wise and brave man could hope to win success and the honor of his fellowmen, and today Lincoln is immortalized within the souls of all Americans.

In direct contrast to the resolution with which one faces an obstacle is the courage and resolution one needs when he does not know what lies ahead of him.

What a gamble the pioneers took when they sold all they owned and left organized towns and cities to go to the West, of which little or nothing was known. What could have induced these brave folk to go West? First, undoubtedly, there was the inducement of all the free land they wanted. But in the heart of many an adventure-loving pioneer, there lay not dormant but pulsating with life, the thrill of attempting something new, of going to a country practically unknown and unsettled, and there to build a fruit-bearing land. Many died in attempting to have this dream come true, for fierce winters, Indians, locust-devastation, and prairie fires were but a few of the difficulties which the pioneers met. Some returned to their Eastern homes, discouraged and disheartened, but many more remained, battling the hardships, and to these brave, hard-working men and women we owe the development of the West into a productive, vital part of our nation.

Like the thrill felt by the pioneers in an unknown land is the thrill felt by pioneers in the unknown sky. The lure of these unexplored regions is picturesquely described in Anne Morrow Lindbergh's North to the Orient:

"And for us, setting out over unknown country, there would be those austere and breath-taking moments, when, looking down on inaccessible territory, one realizes that no one has seen that spot before. It is as fresh, still, and untouched as the night's new-fallen snow. Unchanged from the day it was made. One looks terrified for a visible sign of piercing with the light of human eye the darkness of a hitherto unseen world. The intruding gaze, one feels, must make some mark or leave an impression, as a stone shatters the unbroken stillness of a pool."

Mental difficulties have afforded as much challenge as physical difficulties. There are people read of by you and me who answered this challenge and proved victorious. Ludwig von Beethoven, the master composer of symphonies, is one of these. At the age of 49, in the glory of his creative power, he became deaf. Instead of losing all interest in living and working, Beethoven tried to forget this deficiency by putting it in the background, and continuing his composing. While totally deaf, he composed, in all, the five quartets. To date there has been no composer who has surpassed Beethoven in the creation of symphonic music. Imitated he has been, but without success.

When we are faced with difficulties, how easy it is for us to succumb to the temptation of not facing the problems. And yet, have you ever stopped to think what a world this would be if all had ignored the challenge of the difficult? Stop a moment to consider this question, and I am sure you will agree with me that it has been and is the stepping-stone to success, progress, and invention.

HISTORY

PROPHECY

CLASS HISTORY

IN 1933 a budding, blossoming band of four hundred thirty-three freshmen entered the portals of Bulkeley, with the pride of freshmen and with high hopes of attaining the many honors that the school offered. Timidity and restrictions, however, were responsible for the lack of participation in the school affairs. Several of our more courageous colleagues were successful, nevertheless, in breaking through this obstinate barrier and so launched upon their social high school careers before the average freshman.

Joseph Spillane and David Rosen first broke out in print as characters in a Torch joke. Imagine the exultant feeling they must have had to see their names actually in print, and only freshmen at that!

Phyllis Burr, one of our most competent musicians, was the first to become a member of the Upper Class Choir, and first to receive an office in any organization.

Katherine Devanney, one of Bulkeley's persistent social climbers, made her initial debut by singing at Torch night. We're still wondering if it was to our advantage.

Also, in 1933 the Bulkeley Golf Team was organized under the supervision of Mr. Quinn.

The Proctor system, which was later to become an important contribution to the orderliness of Bulkeley, was originated in the same year.

None of our members were able to penetrate the exciting field of athletics as yet because they were freshmen. The poor, little freshman is always left out of everything. High school dazes him so much that he doesn't know what everything is all about until he's a sophomore. Our class was no exception to the rule!

The scholastic honors of the year were awarded to Stella Piurek and Charles Ludke, with second honors going to Mary Marchoki and Joseph Spillane. With these awards the first chapter of our high school days came to a close.

With the coming of fall we resumed our studies as sophomores. We optimistically looked forward to becoming more prominent in the social life here at school.

Russell Pyne, "the little Giant", became president of the newly-formed Chess Club, with Peter DeVaux, the man with the Fuller brush head, as vice-president.

Annette Larned, more commonly referred to as "Peaches", was added to the Junior Department of the Dial.

Janet Roche, Jane Brown, and Matthew Smith represented our class on the Junior Council.

"Fire Chief" Keena and "Scoop" Rosen became members of the Torch board.

In February of this year we put our lanterns in moth balls, and began to come to school at the wee hour of eight o'clock in the morning.

Our more musically inclined members of the class, Evelyn Anderson, Phyllis Burr, Thomas Keena, and Frank Rothhammer, participated in a concert given by the Senior Orchestra.

The Junior Dramatic Club was first organized in this year, also, and it was as an active member of this club that Marion Finn, better known as "Babe" Finn, first realized her acting ability.

This was, also, one of the most memorable seasons for Bulkeley's Athletic Department, as they brought home the football, basketball, and baseball city championships. However, the athletic ability of our classmates had not yet become conspicuous.

In the last assembly of the year, we were informed that Stella Piurek and Joseph Spillane were successful in attaining the first scholarship prizes, while Matthew Smith was the recipient of the second honors. And with these awards, the activities of another year passed into the realm of golden memories.

With the termination of our high school careers visible in the not too distant horizon, we returned to our curricular duties as juniors, or rather as upper-classmen.

Our parade of athletics was led by football, with Richard Jaworski and Edward Pawlowski occupying important positions in the line-up.

Charles Spillane and Bernie Bucior, the fleet-footed trotters of our class, became members of the track team. Art Gustafson, Bob Madama, and George Prior, with Johnny Miller as manager, represented our class on the varsity baseball team which tied for the city championship.

George Prendergast was the first member of our class to take his place on the golf team.

The Boys' Debating Club, that club which is accustomed to moral victories, was defeated once more by the eloquence of their feminine opponents.

Ethel Sullivan and Henry Kaplan were the recipients of the prizes in the Rotary Club Essay Contest.

The state legislature passed a law during this year which made American History a compulsory subject in all high schools.

One of the most memorable occasions in the history of Connecticut and our high school memories was the Tercentenary parade and celebration in which Bulkeley played an unforgettable part.

George Blessing, known around Bulkeley as "Brother" Blessing, became head of the Biological Repertory.

The Great Flood of '36 occurred during our junior year, and many students aided in flood relief. The flood left many memories of disaster and gave the community the opportunity to display brotherhood. Despite the fact that the two Hartford newspapers were unable to be printed in the city, Bulkeley's Torch, New England's "snappiest scholastic weekly", under the direction of "Noise" Williams, the "Walter Winchell" of Bulkeley, "Sport" Kaplan, and "Chief" Keena was printed in Hartford and issued on time.

May Menci, who was so successful through her unfaltering perseverance, headed the Dial Business Board, with Annette Larned and Richard Phillips as co-editors. At this time Nancy Hoddinott headed the Torch Business Board.

Elena Petrini was a most essential part in the Senior Dramatic Club machine, not only as the treasurer, but also serving as assistant director for a whole year, a complete task in itself. After resigning, she was succeeded for the following half-year by Helen Wincze. The hit plays presented by the Club this year were "It Never Rains" and "Fly Away Home."

Edward B. Williams won the Mrs. Lewis Rose English Prize for excellence in English over a period of three years.

David Rosen, after a most bitter contest, edged out his perpetual opponent and became president of the Boys' Club, with Henry Kaplan as vice-president.

Joseph Spillane and Charles Ludke, the two master men of intellect, were awarded the first and second scholarship prizes, respectively. With this the third quarter of our high school education passed into the pages of time.

In 1936 we returned to Bulkeley as the senior members of this school. Graduation activities became the most important and foremost thought in our minds. Elections took place for various class offices.

Joseph Spillane was appointed valedictorian and Charles Ludke salutatorian of our class.

Joseph Spillane was also elected editor-in-chief of the Class Book, with Edward Williams his assistant, and with Adelaide Plumstead, Evelyn Anderson, Clarissa Hill, Frederick Watson, Wm. Clarke, and Wm. Ryan comprising the Editorial Board.

Thomas Keena was elected business manager of the Class Book, with Stephen Hart as assistant, and with Phyllis Burr, Muriel Waterhouse, May Menci, and Matthew Smith on the board.

Stella Piurek was elected Class Essayist.

Donald Day was elected Class Orator.

Evelyn Casey and Bernard Bucior were elected Testatrix and Testator.

Janet Roche and Milton McGuire became Prophetess and Prophet.

George Prior and Francis Hughes became Class Marshals.

Zachary Abuza won the election for reception chairman, with a committee consisting of Irene Hurley, Constance Magnuson, Rita Skelly, Jos. Burke, Robert Burian.

David Rosen was elected our Class Night Chairman.

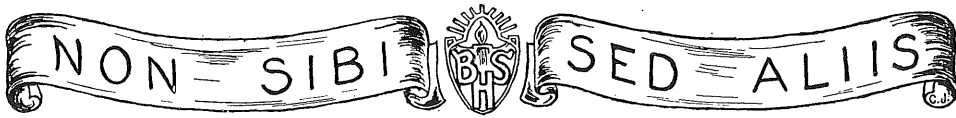

The room treasurers, an important activity, are as follows: Marion Dix, Harold Johnson, Daniel Raymond, Maria Marchetti, Paul Peters, Rhea Murray, Peter DeVaux, Joseph Burke, Thomas Condron, Janet Roche, Charles Ludke, Robert Madama, Joseph Spillane, and Alexander Whinnem.

The Camera Club and the Table Tennis Club were two newly organized clubs.

Many of the students added one more honor to their list of attainments and that was becoming a member of the National Honor Society.

The hit plays presented by the Dramatic Club this year were "Lady of Letters" and "New Fires", in which Don Day, Isabelle Macauley, "Jerry" Waterhouse, and Leverett Martel played leading roles.

During this year, two new events were inaugurated at Bulkeley. One was Sports Night, which drew an audience of over six hundred people, the other Parents' Night, on which occasion the school was open for inspection by parents of Bulkeley students. Among the events of the evening were the annual concert of the Musical Clubs, demonstration class in Physical Education, and demonstration classes in eighteen other subjects held in the classrooms from nine to ten o'clock in the evening.

Ed Pawlowski became captain of the Football team with Condron, D'Alessio, Conroy, DeFazio, Fanelli, Hughes, and McGuire on the team. The team won two games, lost three, and tied two.

The Baseball team consisted of Burgess, Goodrich, Franco, Hughes, Gustafson, Madama, Prior, and Milewski as members of our class.

The Basketball team with small representation from our class won six games and lost eight.

The members of the Track team at this time were Charlie Spillane, Clarke, Ryan, LeVasseur, Randall, Cosgrove, and Cardillo.

Undoubtedly, there are many others who would have contributed to this history, but as the time is limited it has been impossible to name everyone.

With this the curtain of our high school days is drawn. Our play, a most memorable and enjoyable one, has passed into the visible distance. We hope that future activities of our classmates will not be unknown to us, so that we may enjoy their triumphs. May they continue in the paths of righteousness and live happily wherever circumstances may take them. May the Class of '37 forever continue to make history in their future city, state, and national affairs.

CLASS PROPHECY

Janet Roche:

WE have been appointed by our classmates to attempt to delve into the future, to fathom what it has in store for us. The majority of our predictions came from dreams which sometimes assumed the proportions of nightmares. The few observations which we were able to remember are these:

Evelyn Anderson winning acclaim as the concertmaster of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and Phyllis Burr as the featured 'cellist.

Marion Dix as the hostess of the "Little Gypsy Tea Room" with Isabel Macauley as her petite waitress.

Teresa Donohue posing for "Darling's Delight" shampoo.

Loretta Sheridan as a rising young secretary in Hartford's leading insurance company, together with Isabelle Rice and May Menci.

"Harp" Condron, "Mike" D'Alessio, and Ed Pawlowski playing brilliantly on the Wethersfield football team, with John Miller as assistant manager.

George Prendergast and Art Carey playing off the New England Golf Tournament as finalists.

"Babe" Finn becoming the leading exponent of Betty Boop's style.

"Admiral" Bob Adams ordering Carl Ackerman, "Red" Randall, and George Zukowski to mop the decks of Pete DeVaux's yacht.

"Deed" Hill appearing as the physical education instructor in Stella Piurek's and Mary Jensen's finishing school.

George Blessing after years of experimentation finally isolating the rest of the vitamins.

Fred Brant visualizing the perfect game of "Pick-up Sticks."

"Red" Clarke burning up the 1944 Olympics with his red hair, and Bernie Bucior fighting it out with Joe LeVasseur in the pole vaulting contest.

"Franny Chick Webb" Horan as the drummer boy in Bob "Goodman" Burian's swing band, with Marjorie Custer, romantic vocalist.

Virginia Goulet, Hartford's "Wally Simpson", being offered a film contract by film producer Joe Cormier. Her first picture is to be directed by Elena Petrini and Helen Wincze.

Rita Giannettino as a librarian in Bob Donovan's drug store, with Pete Stawecki as an external decoration of "drug store cowboy."

Milton McGuire:

And then I saw Bob Curtin driving a Salvation Army Truck, with Bernard Conroy as his assistant.

Bill Ryan, Charles Spillane, and Johnny Cosgrove as favorites in the A. A. U. track meet.

Nancy Hoddinott as the authoress of an article entitled "Women in Business", in Richie Phillips' magazine, "Glamour in Business."

"Scoop" Keena, a roving reporter of the Courant, flitting from keyhole to porthole, to knothole, in quest of newsy bits for Teddy Martel's column.

Carol Goldenthal, proprietor of the "No End Beer Garden", with Martin Dabrowski and Renard Watson as waiters.

Ed Williams finally getting the scoop of the year: Charles Lettiere bites Ed Flanigan's dog.

Alex Whinnem, a pro at Wethersfield, trying to induce James and John Holloway to change their swing.

Graham "Ziegfeld" Muirhead producing "Rio Rita", starring Clelia Venditti, supported by five most beautiful, gorgeous, glamorous chorus boys, Herbie "Toots" Luscomb, Ed "Gold-Digger" Grandahl, James "Snooks" Quinlivan, Bob "Blondy" Williams, and Bob "Honey Chile" McKay; with "Jumping Jack" Leahy, a human whirlwind.

Doris Marshall as a fashion stylist with Elinor Nordstrom and Irene Hurley as mannequins.

Maria Marchetti as a commercial artist for the firm of Gertrude Eff, Mary Marchocki, and Elinor Devanney, New York's leading milliners.

Evelyn Casey growing enthusiastic over a new theory advanced by the Gunning cousins on improving Smith Brothers' Cough Drops.

And then as though a pail of cold water had been thrown upon me, I was rudely awakened from my fitful slumber when I saw Annette Larned scintillating as "Little Egypt" in "Barnum" Kaplan's road show.

And now, despite our feeble jests and petty sarcasms, as we take leave of you, we wish that each and every one of you may have the greatest possible happiness and success in the years to come. We wish you pleasant memories, a satisfying present, and a hopeful future.

CLASS WILL

BELOVED BENEFICIARIES OF THE CLASS OF 1937: You recall the eagerness with which the Romans clamored to hear Mark Antony read the will of the murdered Caesar. Your eagerness, I take it, is no less than theirs, and I now proclaim to you the treasures which the Class of 1937 in its generosity bequeaths to its numerous friends. Here is the WILL:

Know ye all men by these Presents, That we, the members of the Class of 1937, now on the threshold of a life beyond the portals of our Alma Mater, do hereby bequeath, give, assign in perpetuity, all the possessions and mementos, hereinafter described, the same to be the property of the beneficiaries named below, and to be their property forever.

To Dr. Feingold, Miss Dargan, and the faculty we leave our sincere thanks for their co-operation and guidance through our four years.

To Mr. Russell we leave a new pair of army shoes and a khaki shirt to wear at our reception.

To Mr. Quinn we leave a utility iron to get himself out of the rough at Goodwin Park's new nine-hole golf course.

To the lower classmen we leave a can of Crisco to help shorten the way.

Geo. Prior leaves a long trail of broken hearts to be sold next Valentine's Day.

Rosalyn Schwartz leaves her petiteness to "Tiny" Quinn.

Bob Gagel leaves his love for astronomy to future star-gazers.

Lucille Montrose leaves her style of dress to the French designers of 1950.

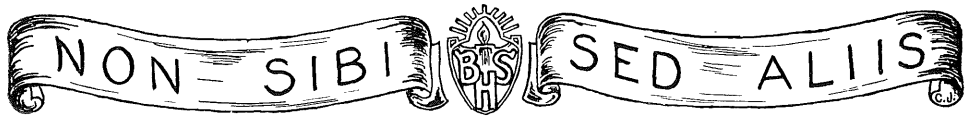

Fred Brant leaves a comb for which he had no use to Albert Devanney.

Shirley Norton inherits Olive Belair's flirtatious manner.

Kenneth White leaves the book "The Perfect Specimen" to the library.

Mary Bitondi leaves a well-worn path to the detention room.

Zachary Abuza leaves his clowning to the Barnum & Bailey Circus.

Rita Skelly leaves her well-known line to the New Method Laundry to be used for drying clothes.

Joe Cormier leaves his laziness to Stepin Fetchit.

"Pop" DeFazio leaves his conceit to Kenneth Sparrell.

Eleanor Treybal leaves her weakness for blondes to her sister.

Ed Palowski leaves a few pointers on football to Frank Murnane and Walt Galuszka.

Hope Clark leaves her art of bluffing to any Junior who can get away with it.

Graham Muirhead leaves with his nose in the air.

Doris Best leaves her wide-eyed air of innocence to Pat Kirby.

Joe Burke leaves Dr. Shanok a dozen demerit pads for distribution in future geometry classes.

Hortense Philbrick inherits Teddy Bartley's childishness.

Dwight Roy leaves a good opinion of himself.

Rhea Murray regretfully leaves John McNally.

Milton Sherman inherits Harold Johnson's bashfulness.

Connie Magnuson leaves her reserved chair in the Lobby during first recess to Kay Kinsella for after school discussions.

Bob Lavenburg leaves on the tip of Mr. Coburn's shoe.

Ruth Russell leaves her blushes to be used in repainting the fire alarm boxes.

Richard Matthews sadly leaves Mr. Soby's dancing class.

Marie Davidson leaves her place in Kramer's store after school to reserve a booth at the White Tower for after the reception.

Fred Mandley leaves Miss Safford in a daze.

Elinor Nordstrom bequeaths her "come hither" look to Arlyne VanDam.

Kenneth Nelson leaves his toys to the Salvation Army.

Alma Ashline leaves her haughty manner to the actresses in Hollywood.

Francis Horan leaves his baby face to adorn the walls of a day nursery.

Jane Steele leaves her long absence record and her stack of excuses.

Frannie Hughes contributes his theories on the characteristics of the ideal woman to Nick Pacelia.

Jean Vanderbeck leaves her smile to brighten up the school on gloomy days.

Art Gustafson leaves his ability behind the plate to Pat Scandura.

Muriel Waterhouse leaves her drag with Miss Tracy to her sisters.

D. Muisener and Bill Healey leave their Tarzan-like physiques to Geo. Levesque.

Irene Hurley leaves her foggy manner to be used as scenery in English screen productions.

"Dutchy" Whinnem leaves his position on the Golf Team to Frankie Bucior who thinks he can break a hundred.

Ingrid Monson leaves her golden locks to advertise a new kind of hair rinse.

Frances Curlee leaves her permanent wave to Shirley Temple.

Vincent Haiko leaves the school librarians a little peace and quiet.

"Morton" Holloway and George Starr donate the shovel that they are always using to Mr. Daly.

Dot Walsh and Kay Devanney leave with their mouths wide open.

Janet Roche leaves her sweetness to flavor the desserts in the cafeteria.

John Fitzgerald's nonchalant attitude toward the opposite sex is inherited by Marshall McGuire.

Connie Cassarino leaves her wink to those who want to attract attention.

James Quinlivan leaves a pair of shoes which are well worn by his Sunday afternoon walks to Wethersfield.

Genevieve Teraila leaves her silence to some timid freshman.

Mickey McGuire leaves his argumentative ability to the Boys' Debating Club.

Helen Horan leaves her pale complexion to all who want to secure sick passes from Miss Kelly.

Edward Olschefski, Teddy Kurlowicz, and Anthony Holowieszko bequeath a name-pronouncing dictionary to Dr. Feingold for calling the graduating list.

Anna Mae Chiascione leaves her address book to all the lonely hearts in the lower classes.

Bob Madama leaves as Bulkeley's undefeated ping-pong player.

Ethel Sullivan leaves her high-pitched voice to the freshman choir.

George Dush leaves his knack for wood carving to future carpenters at Bulkeley.

Olive Bueback leaves still talking about her sailor.

Charles Jaworski leaves his shyness to all girls who wish to appear coy.

Marie Casale leaves in her usual hurried manner.

Norman Hasselriis leaves his bow-ties to be used as experimental propellers on the Pratt and Whitney motors.

Albert Tyszka leaves his school girl complexion to Philip Prior and Russell Case.

Barbara Chittenden leaves to spend more time at Rocky Ridge Park.

Charlie Bittner leaves his harmonica to some hot swing band.

Betty Galvin inherits all the gum left under the desks and chairs by the seniors.

John Leahy leaves some of his excess hair to "Babe" Allen to help him recapture his youthful appearance.

Gertrude Stickney leaves her courteous manners as examples to the lower classmen.

Wallace Kelly leaves his laugh to be used in making one of Mr. Jenkins' jokes a success.

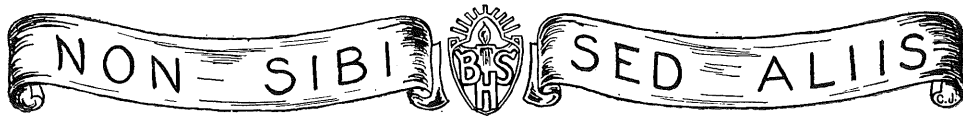

Anita LeCompte leaves her walk to anyone who can use it without stumbling.

Paul Peters leaves his timid voice to Tom Pappageorge.

To all true Bulkeleyites in the remaining classes we leave our school spirit to carry on the high ideals and standards of our Alma Mater.

CLASS POEM

THE PATH THAT LEADS FROM HERE TO WHERE?

A puncture in an azure sky reveals the doubtful light of heaven's early star.
We grasp, with futile tears, to seek a last embrace of parting joy from this,
our lingering day of severance.
We flow,
unconscious of the choking throng, along the path that leads from here to where?
And what we see distracts us not from knowing that this day must be a monument to what has been, a firm foundation for the days beyond this fading day.

When winter did precede this then remote,
but now immediate,
limit of the sight,
the sparse and scanty snow sang to us all,
to those who lived this day but yesterday,
to us, who know it now,
to some who'll live it on the morrow.
I saw a face that turned with snow-devouring appraisal of the spitting sky.
I saw another face which cast a brief, abrupt, and passing glance at all that fell around.
I could not see my face.
It could not yet reflect a vision of beyond.

But from here,
Beyond the seething scramble for a place,
I see my face.
But it is not of clear extent.
And there are more.
And they are also vague.
They turn,
They're looking back.
Ah, what a joy to see that they have not forgotten.
Whate'er the strife,
whate'er the pain.
despite the joy, as joy may be,
I see they've not forgotten.

Increasing is the evening star in light and clearing gladness.
Now manifest becomes the thought that what may come will bear the stamp of this,
our parting day.

The flighty, hesitant, and wary bird must someday leave the nest.
We cannot live forever
such a careless life,
For we have growth that's overcome those faults that barred the way.

Books that bored us, friends we found,
the life we lived,
all primed our wings.

And now we take our leave along the path that leads from here to where?

THE FOOTBALL TEAM

FOOTBALL

ALTHOUGH our team did not take everything this season, still, handicapped by having only one letterman, Captain Eddie Pawloski, it gave a good account of itself and fulfilled "Babe" Allen's prophecy: "Maybe we won't be as good as last year, but any team that beats us will know it has been in a ball game." The team opened the season with a scoreless tie game with Crosby. This hard-fought contest was made up of many fumbles. The team brought home its first victory when it defeated West Haven. Fingers seemed to be buttered that day also, for there were many fumbles chalked up against both teams. Bulkeley took a beating at the hands of Hartford High when attempting to defend the city championship title held for the past three years. It was a good fight, but penalties kept Bulkeley from much scoring. The team took its next "licking" from Hillhouse. This was another game full of penalties and fumbles. Though both teams resorted to passing, neither gained much by these tactics. The team, for the glory of the school, finally succeeded in triumphing over William Hall. The opponents were the first to score but Bulkeley soon tied, and added a few more points for good measure. Weaver left Bulkeley no chance of winning the city championship title when it held the team to a scoreless tie. The first half of the game held little in the way of excitement, but the second turned out to be quite a battle. The much anticipated New Britain game took place on a snow-bordered field on Thanksgiving Day. Bulkeley was kept on the defense most of the time and did not succeed in scoring at all. New Britain "went to town" with four touchdowns and one point after a touchdown.

THE BASKETBALL TEAM

BASEBALL

BULKELEY opened its 1937 season with a bang by beating a valiant band of Alumni 5-1. The victory was featured by the stick-work of Bachand and Lynch, and the twirling of Milewski and Burgess.

Bulkeley made it two in a row by drubbing West Hartford 6-3. This victory was also featured by the hurling of Burgess and Milewski, who appear to be standouts in their position, and by the hitting of Steve Lynch.

The Maroon and White made it three in succession when they downed the Hartford Traders 5-2 at Colt Park. Madama and Bachand with their hitting and "Red" Wilkos with his fine hurling starred for the Allenmen.

The Maroon victory streak of three straight was snapped by the Green and White of Weaver in a loosely played ball game by a score of 7-2. George Marcus, Weaver pitching ace, held Bulkeley well in hand, allowing only five hits.

Bulkeley met its second consecutive defeat at the hands of Kingswood by the score of 3-1. The defeat came mainly by loose ball playing.

Bulkeley lost its third game in a row to the Norwich Wildcats in a bitterly contested ball game. Bulkeley deserved to win, but Lady Luck was not on her side. The game was held up every few innings by frequent arguments with the umpire at Norwich. The final score was 5-4 as a result of a hotly disputed ninth inning home run by the Norwich first baseman with a man on base. Madama, Hughes, Lynch, Scandura, and Franko featured for Bulkeley with their hitting and fielding. Credit is also due "Red" Wilkos for his fine pitching.

Then Bulkeley came back with a 9 to 4 victory over Hartford. This together with the first victory over Trade gave Bulkeley a two to one lead in the city series. This lead was fortified by another win to the tune of 5-1 over Trade, and was almost clinched by a 10-7 win over Weaver. As we go to press it looks like a Bulkeley City Championship in baseball.

BASKETBALL

BABE ALLEN did not have any veterans back from the 1935-1936 squad, and had to form this season's team from practically green material. Only Noce, Bucior, and Levesque, second-stringers last year, had had any experience at all, and they, with the addition of Granato and Puadzuinas, made up the starting five.

Mainly because of their inexperience, the Bulkeley hoopsters started off rather slowly, losing their first two games to the Hartford Trade School and West Haven by the scores of 38-25 and 30-18, respectively. In both games Bulkeley fared badly during the last half. But the tide turned and the team gained revenge in a return game with the Hartford Traders with the score 26-20. Puadzuinas and Noce led the way in what proved to be a wild game. Bulkeley seemed to be hitting on all cylinders now, for a hard-working team utilizing the speed-sizzling type of play and paced by the rapidly improving Bernie Bucior clearly defeated and outplayed a hard luck Weaver team, and seemingly headed for a city title. A cool, precise Hartford High team shattered this dream in what was a close, hard-fought game until the last quarter, when Leonard and Dionne really went to work and sewed up the game at 35-27. The next four games with Rockville, West Hartford, West Haven, and Rockville again, were stowed away by a fairly consistent Bulkeley team. The first game with Rockville almost proved an upset, but Noce came to the rescue with a shot from the middle of the floor, making it an edge of one point. A peculiar characteristic of the Maroon and White showed up in the next five games. The team had the habit of winning a certain number of games and then duplicating it with the same number of losses. Bulkeley was knocked off by a superior Meriden team led by Klasoskus, who chalked up nineteen points. Still suffering from the sting of this defeat, the Allenmen were vanquished by a crippled Hartford High squad, and thus gave the Hilltoppers unchallenged claim to the city laurels. Then Weaver, a new team with Johnson in the lineup, swamped Bulkeley by the score of 42-27, and Meriden made it two by shooting out a good margin of 47-29. In the last game of the season West Hartford nosed out the Bulkeley sharpshooters by the score of 31-30.

Despite this rather discouraging season Bulkeley looms as one of the best teams of the state next year. Only one regular, Bernie Bucior, will be lost by graduation, with Granato, Puadzuinas, Noce, "Shorty" Levesque, Eddie Grogan, and Nicky Pacelia remaining to form a team any coach would cherish.

TENNIS TEAM

The start of the 1937 tennis season at Bulkeley brought great promise of a very successful season. Mr. Weaver, the coach, started with a well-balanced team under the captaincy of its veteran, Don Day. Gene O'Neil and Norman Hasselriis with Captain Day formed the nucleus of the squad, with Carol Goldenthal, Jim Scott, Phil Moreau, and Otto Staehr fighting for the coveted fourth singles berth.

Rain proved but a slight menace to the heavy schedule which had been booked by Captain Day, and when the middle of the season rolled around, the team had taken into camp in undefeated succession William Hall in the first match by a 4-2 score; Hartford High, for the first time in eleven years, by 4-3; Morse College in a 7-0 shutout; New Britain in the first match away from home by a 4-1 victory; St. Thomas to the tune of 5-1; and last, Windham, in a convincing 6-0 sweep. At this time, the netmen seem to have the makings of the only undefeated team in the school.

TRACK TEAM

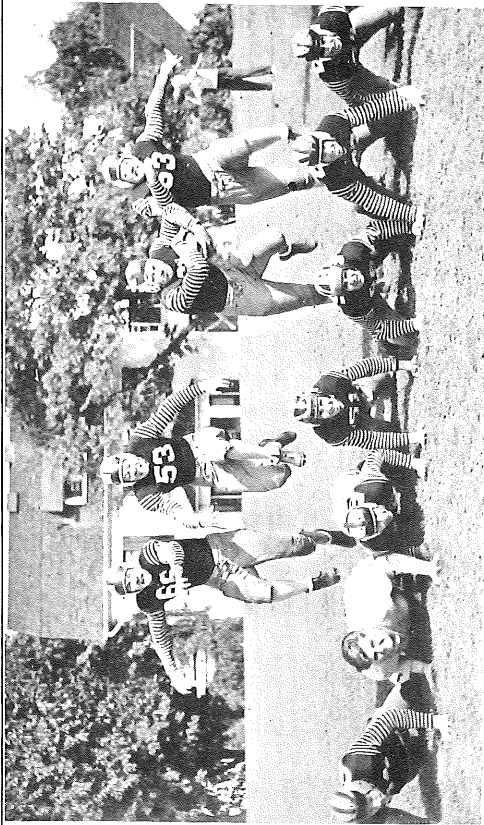

As Coach Daly put his track and field forces through their first workouts, prospects for a fine season were bright. But as time passed, such stars as Captain Charlie Spillane, "Dom" Scandura, "Bud" Stevens, Dan Cardillo, and Bernie Bucior became unavailable for the team. The seniors who carried the team through a fairly good season are Bill Ryan, Johnny Cosgrove, "Red" Clarke, "Red" Randall, Joe LeVasseur, and Dick Valerio. The scores of the meets to date are as follows:

THE HONOR SOCIETY

THE HONOR SOCIETY

The Bulkeley Chapter of the National Honor Society was chartered in January, 1927. Scholarship, service, leadership, and character are the chief factors considered in the selection of its members, who represent the upper third of their class. Its purpose is to promote leadership, to encourage scholarship, to arouse the desire to perform worthy service, and to stimulate the development of character in the pupils of Bulkeley. The tutoring of failing lower classmen was perhaps its greatest undertaking during the past year.

OFFICERS

President—David P. Rosen Secretary—Joseph P. Spillane
Vice-President—Phyllis A. Burr Treasurer—Edward B. Williams
Faculty Adviser—Dr. Feingold

AGORA

The Agora aims to teach its members to speak distinctly and sincerely, to think logically, and to develop a greater interest in modern problems. Debates are held in the clubroom twice a month, and club members act as judges and critics. In January, the Agora entertained the Legislative Club at a banquet at which the members of both clubs showed considerable skill in after-dinner speaking.

On April 27, the Boys' Debating Club and the Agora held their annual debate in the auditorium. They discussed the topic, "Resolved, That the Several States Should Enact Legislation Providing for a System of Complete Medical Service Available to All Citizens at Public Expense."

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

During the past year the Student Council has met with the officers of various clubs, who are members without voting power, to carry on the work of improving the school. Members have been on corridor duty during free periods and have acted as monitors in the cafeteria. A roller skating party was given on October 23, and fifty dollars was donated to the fund for a sound motion picture machine.

OFFICERS

President—Edward Williams
Vice-President—Joseph Spillane
Secretary—Mary Lynch

THE GIRLS' BIOLOGY CLUB

THE BOYS' CLUB

THE BOYS' CLUB

The purpose of this organization is to develop in its members an enthusiasm for the highest ideals in scholarship, sportsmanship, fellowship, and character. It endeavors to create among the boys of Bulkeley High a public opinion that shall at all times rally to the support of the school when the opportunity to serve is offered.

Under the capable guidance of Dr. Mahoney, the club has presented many interesting meetings with such well-known speakers as Gunnar Anderson, John DeRidder, Captain John Henry, Billy Taylor, "Mickey" Kobrosky, Howard Drew, Fred Stone, Adjutant-Brigadier-General William Ladd, and Lieutenant John Merriman.

OFFICERS

President—David Rosen

THE GIRLS' LEADERS CORPS

THE GIRLS' LEADERS CORPS

The Girls' Leaders Corps is one of the most popular organizations at Bulkeley High. The purpose of this club is to create "Leaders" among the girls in the school. The qualifications for membership are athletic ability, leadership, scholarship, and sociability.

The girls in the Leaders' Corps aid in the conducting of the gym classes. During the course in apparatus work, the Leaders coach and mark the girls in their work. In the early fall and spring the gymnastic classes are divided into groups under the direction of the Leaders. They also head the squads in the gym classes.

The club has both athletic and social activities. The athletic activities consist of golf, tennis, and ping-pong. The club has this year successfully conducted two semi-formal dances which have proved to be very popular.

OFFICERS

President—Muriel Waterhouse

Secretary—Dorothy O'Conner

Vice-President—Mary Meaney

Treasurer—Barbara Newell

Faculty Adviser—Miss Tracy

THE LITERARY CLUB

The purpose of the Literary Club is to further the knowledge of, and inspire interest in, the outstanding works that both past and contemporary authors have brought forth for our benefit and enjoyment.

OFFICERS

THE LITERARY CLUB

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club has for its purpose the presenting of worth-while and entertaining plays to the student body at a reasonable cost, and the provision of a medium for our more talented students to display their dramatic ability. This year the Club presented "Lady of Letters" and "New Fires", both excellent comedies.

OFFICERS

President—Leverett Martel Secretary—Zachary Abuza
Vice-President—Muriel Waterhouse Treasurer—Elena Petrini
Members of Executive Committee—Mary Meaney and Thomas Keena
Faculty Adviser—Mr. Costello

THE JUNIOR DRAMATIC CLUB

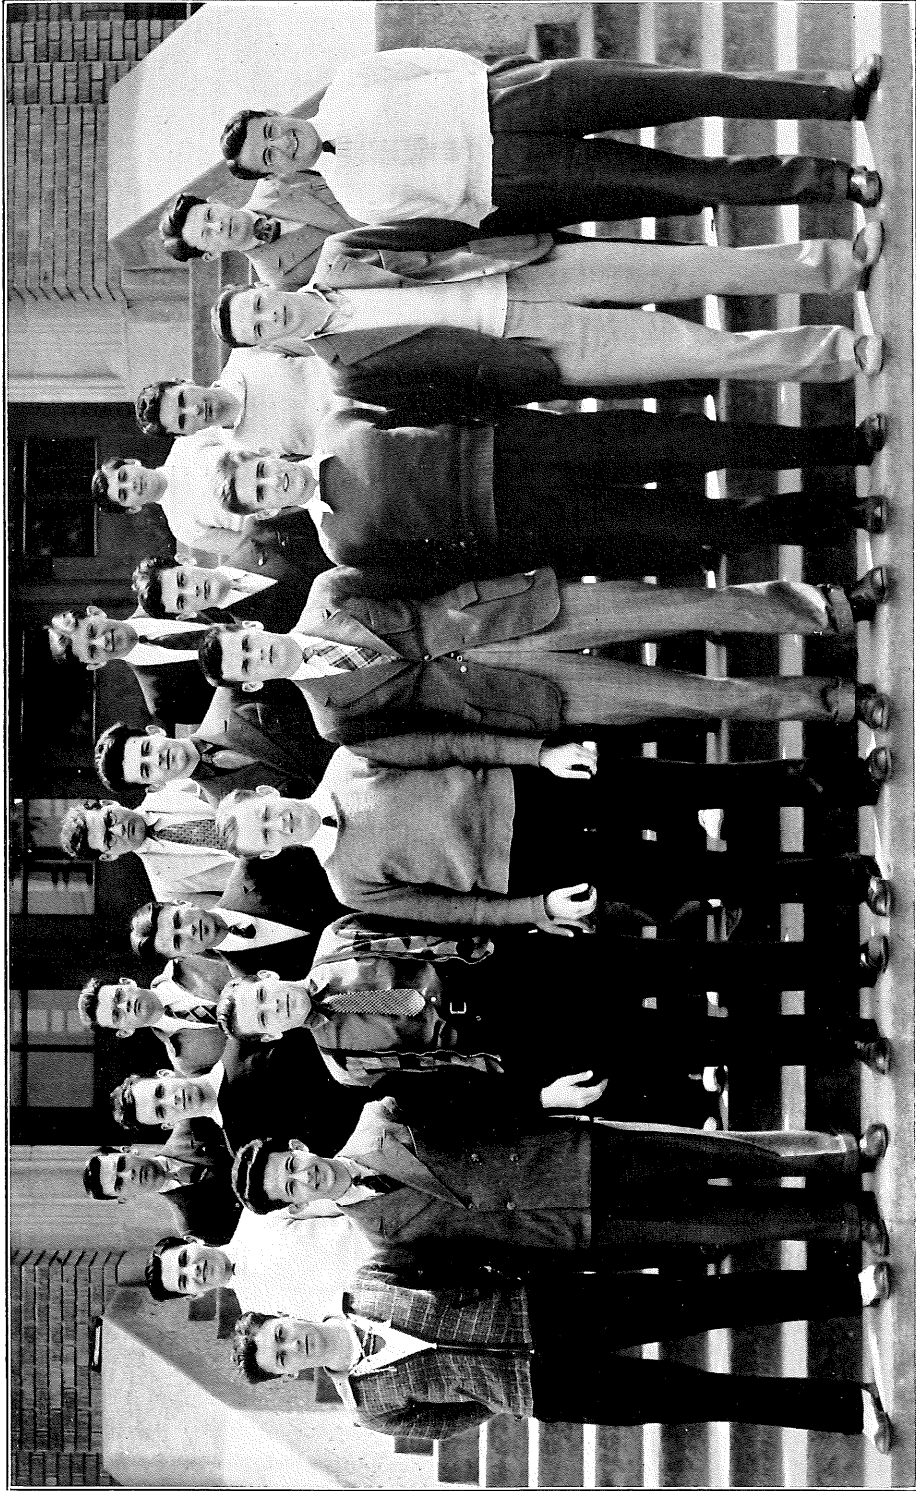

The Junior Dramatic Club gives the members of the fourth and sophomore classes an opportunity to study drama and the art of acting through the reading and acting of plays. This year for the first time in the history of the club its spring presentation, "Apple Blossom Time", was performed a second time by popular demand. The club was founded in 1935.

OFFICERS

President—Harold Hahn Secretary—Helen Rundbaken
Vice-President—June Lawrence Treasurer—Catherine Kinsella
Faculty Advisers—Miss Hoffman and Miss Leahy

THE JUNIOR DRAMATIC CLUB

THE LEGISLATIVE CLUB

THE LEGISLATIVE CLUB

During the past year the Legislative Club has continued its unique policy of thrashing out the leading political questions of the day, in addition to the introduction by individual members of their own bills for discussion, amendment, and action by the club. This comparatively new organization has fairly surged to the front in Bulkeley life, and it is headed for even greater accomplishments in the future.

THE RADIO CLUB

The Radio Club, formed in 1932, has always been a strictly masculine club until this year. Now the feminine members outnumber the masculine. Through the demonstrations and oral reports on radio, the readers obtain a clearer and more definite knowledge of the structure and mechanism of the radio. This club seems to be a great factor for boys who are intending to be radio engineers. We are always eager and willing to welcome new members so that they may further their knowledge in the field of radio.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

High hopes are offered to those who wish to carry on Junior College work evenings this fall.

HILLYER JUNIOR COLLEGE will offer approved four-year programs in Accounting, Business Administration and Engineering on a regular schedule of three nights a week, 34 weeks to the school year.

Authorization to confer the A. S. Degree (Associate in Science) for the completion of any one of these programs is now definitely expected.

For further information about courses and tuition fees, apply to J. S. AUGUR, Dean.
